

Participate in Upchurch and Allied Families Association (UAFA)

UAFA was formed by six organizers in 2013 as a 501(c)3 tax-exempt family history organization. This was an outgrowth of over 65 years of family history research by Phil Upchurch and his cooperators dealing with Upchurch and related families, thus the official name is Upchurch and Allied Families Association, Inc. The Association embraces the Upchurch Bulletin and its 37 years of publication. UAFA uses the power of the Internet to serve family history in ways that are innovative and unique. Progress is illustrated on our website www.alliedfamilies.com.

UAFA operates under the guidance of a Board of Directors. The Association maintains offices in Chesterfield, MO and in Wake County, NC. Visitors are welcomed. The focus of UAFA is for families who have a heritage tracing back to the 1700's in North Carolina. Families of interest are enrolled as Upchurch, Allied, or Associate Families.
