Hi Janet---

I have now returned from two extended trips and have worked on the request presented in your email of 11 May. Sorry for the delay.

I have made a Biofile sheet for each of the individuals you mentioned and have placed copies in my system. In the process I did not find a case in which the names had been encountered before. However, they are now in my records and I can contact you if they show up again from another source.

I do not know of any of my ancestors that would have been in House Creek Township and owned slaves. Of course in family history we always have to be prepared for surprises.

As to suggestions as to how to proceed I have two. One is to go to the Olivia Raney Family History Center on Poole Road in Raleigh. They are well equipped to guide you and they have many resources right there in the Center. My other suggestion is to check in with the Mormon Church (Church of Latter Day Saints) in Raleigh. They are happy to help you and when I was getting started they were of much help to me.

Good luck on your search. I'll be glad to get in touch with you if I come across something that might be of interest to you and I trust you will contact me if you run across any Upchurch information.

Local dairies provide window to town history.

By Robert Ham

In the early 1930's there were several dairies operating in western Wake County. Here in Apex W.A. Peebles Dairy was in operation from 1930 to 1943. The old Peebles dairy barn is still standing on Hunter Street, just east of the Western Wake Hospital. The Peebles sold some of the dairy's pasture land so that the hospital could be built in that area. There is a gravel road that runs off Hunter Street through the old dairy that is named very appropriately Peebles Street.

The reason I started investigating the history and location of the dairy is that I am a bottle collector and that collection includes milk bottles. Several years ago I found several old milk bottles in an old well that had been filled in next to my backyard. When I cleaned up one of the old bottles, it stated in raised glass letters on the neck of the bottle, "A bottle of milk is a bottle of health." A large capital "P" was on the bottom of the bottle. The front of the bottle had the name "W.A. Peebles Dairy, Apex, North Carolina." Susan Castlebury Behringer of Apex also has a collection of milk bottles and she was able to trade me out of the bottle about a year ago.

It was almost ten years ago when I found the milk bottle. Mrs. W.A. Peebles was 90 years of age at the time and was still living in the old house at the dairy. She gave me some paper lids that were left from the dairy. The milk bottle lids had the following words printed on the label "Peebles Dairy, Grade A Raw Buttermilk, phone 469." There was also a drawing of a woman churning buttermilk. Mrs.

ROUND THESE PARTS

Peebles told me that they had to close the dairy in 1943 and sell the dairy cows and equipment because they could not get enough help during World War II to keep all the cows fed and milked and deliver the milk. She said that while they were selling the dairy cows that one of the calves decided not to have any part of the auction and ran off into the woods. It was about three days before they could catch the calf and sell it. Mrs. Peebles told me that while the dairy was in operation, it had home delivery routes in Apex, New Hill, Cary and Raleigh.

Mrs. Peebles told me about the good old days when she attended the old Cary Academy and lived with her aunt who ran the Walker-Page Hotel. She remarked that she enjoyed attending the Academy, but she did not like the three mile walk every morning to the old High House down at what is now the High House Road in Cary. Back in those times the girls wore very long dresses. On rainy days the old dirt roads would naturally be muddy. The hems on all the girls dresses would be muddy before they got back to the Academy.

Seeing the old glass milk bottles reminds me of how we would wash out the milk bottles after we had used the milk. We put them on the porch for the milkman to pick up when he made his deliveries. Now, as far as I know, one dairy in the area still makes home deliveries. And, the milk is certainly not in glass bottles anymore.

This also reminds me of the time that my spouse, Betty Ham, left a note to the milkman that turned our front porch into a dairy case. At that time my wife was a well organized school teacher. She even had well organized notes. On this note she listed all the items that she wanted from one through five. 1. quart buttermilk; 2. quart homegenized milk; 3. quart chocolate milk; 4. pint cream; 5.

pint cottage cheese. The milkman did not realize that she had listed the five items and he therefore left fifteen containers of dairy products on the porch. You can imagine how I felt when I opened the door to get in the milk.

In a few years a glass milk bottle will only be recognized by the older generations. If one is found somewhere the young people will wonder what type of glass container it was.

PEERCY FAMILY

NOTE TO BE FILED WITH:

PERCY FAMILYPEERCY FAMILY

PIERCY FAMILY

PEARCY FAMILY

A.A. of 29 AUG 1999 RPA notes that the above four names have often been used interchangeably in a common line of descent. All RPA Profiles for the three will now be maintained under the family name PERCY and these will be filed by first name irrespective of the spelling of the last name. Much of this body of detail pertains to Wayne Co, KY and to members of the George W. Class. However, in the Wayne Co, KY Cemetery Book one finds about an equal number of PEERCY & PIERCY entries but no PEARCY or PERCY entries.

The filing plan described above was triggered by RPA receipt of the book "The Percy-Piercy-Pearcy Genealogy from Devon, Wiltshire, England - from approximately 1690 to Slipford, Wayne County, Kentucky, 1998" by Billy Joe Young - a descendant of George W. - Head of Class. Up to this point RPA had 1 Pearcy, 1 Percy, 0 Peercy & about 50 Piercy entries.
