Lori Pfefferkorn Stanley

Stanley, Pfefferkorn are wed

Lori Diane Pfefferkorn and Daniel Todd Stanley were united in marriage, September 30 at the Candlelight Wedding Chapel in Cary. Officiating at the double ring ceremony were the Reverends Albert Eller and Bruce Benton, Jr., cousin of the bride.

During the ceremony a memorial candle was lit near the portrait of the bride's brother who died earlier this year.

Kathy Pfefferkorn, mother of the bride, accompanied her daughter to the altar. Mandy Pfefferkorn, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Her dress was a cream colored imported lace, ankle length, and she carried a spray of flowers tied with lavender ribbon.

The bride wore a white imported off-the-shoulder lace dress. The front was dress length and flowed to ankle length in the back. It was embellished with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of lavender roses and fern. Her only accessory was a string of pearls that belonged to her mother.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Kevin. Ushers were Greg Stanley, brother of the groom and Ernie Murphrey, friend of the family.

The mother of the bride wore a cream colored imported lace dress that was ankle length and scalloped at the hem. She wore a corsage of purple roses.

The mother of the groom wore a two piece pink linen dress and her corsage was of purple roses.

The grandmothers of the couple were given white Peruvian lily corsages.

The bride is the daughter of Kathy Pfefferkorn and granddaughter of Margaret Ferry, both of Apex.

The parents of the groom are Wayne and Bobbie Stanley, also of Apex and the grandson of Hazel Niece of Liner, Virginia.

The bride is Human Resources Assistant at Stone Heavy Equipment Company in Garner.

The groom is with Carolina Golf Associates in Raleigh.

After a honeymoon at Wrightsville Beach the couple will be at home in Garner.

Lori and Danny were guest of honor at a luncheon on August 27 at the home of Bruce and Linda Benton of Durham. The couple received a gift of linen from the hosts.

On September 12, the staff of Stone Heavy Equip. Co. entertained the bride at a shower at Ryan's Steak House. They presented Lori and Danny with a vacuum cleaner.

On September 16 a coffee hour was given to honor Lori at the home of Marie Benton who was a hostess with her daughters, Barbara Lawson of Durham and Anne Seawell of Goldsboro. The bride received a hand vacuum from the hostesses.

The bride was honored on Friday night, September 22, at a buffet dinner and shower at the home of Joice Mills. Hostesses were Joice, Jenny Tart, Debra Moore and Ruth Garver.

On Saturday, September 23, Lori was honored at a luncheon at the home of Eleanor Brown. Hostesses with Eleanor were Agnes Castlebury, Florie Johnson and Betty Quick. The bride-to-be received a gift of linen.

Following the wedding a brunch was given by the grandmother of the bride, Margaret Ferry. Assisting her were Billie Duncan and Sara Knuepfer.

Catherine Eller directed the wedding. The photographer and his wife, Jimmy and Joanne Wood, recorded the wedding and brunch as a gift to the couple.
