Dear Janice,

My cousin, Carol Conway, whom I presume is known to you, gave me your business card and suggested I write to you with the idea that we might somehow collaborate on family history matters. I am not sure what Carol had in mind but I am always interested in finding a kindred soul relative to family history. Carol said you might be able to identify some potential subscribers for the Upchurch Bulletin which I produce. Details on the UB are enclosed. I do like to obtain new subscribers but that is not critical. I am more interested in obtaining new collaborators.

I follow all the Upchurches as we are all related. The Upchurches of Fenner Co, TN are descended from George Upchurch of the Revolutionary era. He was born in VA, lived in NC for a time and settled in Wayne Co, KY about 1810. Some of his descendants were soon found in Fentress Co, TN. I am in touch with a number of people now who trace their roots to Fentress Co, TN.

I have a copy of the Fentress Co, TN Heritage Book (Congratulations to you and your colleagues who put this fine publication together) and have studied your heritage as shown in Family History #347 & others. I looked hurriedly to see if you descended from any Upshur but could not locate a linkage for you to Upshur. I did note the Upshur name in F 683 & F 685. As a separate matter I note that there was a Margaret Upshur on the 1880 census in the home of Stephen Pile. Is this your Stephen Pile and if so can you elaborate on this alleged Upshur?

Carol has recently presented me with a copy of Wheeler's book "Cemetery Records - Fentress County, TN. It is an excellent publication.

I am anxious to have copies of the Upchurch Bulletin in key libraries around the county where there is significant evidence of Upchurch heritage. I do not send copies of the Upchurch Bulletin to a Fentress Co, TN Library but I believe that Carol places her copies in a library there - possibly in Jamestown, TN. I would welcome any guidance you have on this matter.

If you know of individuals who are interested in Upchurch heritage based on Fentress Co, TN I would be most happy to have names and addresses. If you have questions of me or know of any way in which we can help each other I would be most pleased to hear from you.

☺ Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

LEE, JANICE PILE B.
F347

Janice Faye Pile arrived in Pall Mall, Tennessee on December 3, 1940 to the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pile. Her father, Lyman Stephen Pile was born on December 25, 1915 in Pall Mall, Tennessee and her mother, Edith Crouch Pile was born on April 16, 1920 in Travisville, Tennessee. They were united in marriage on April 2, 1939 in Monticello, Kentucky.

Janice spent her early childhood with her "Mom" Pile, as her mother was teaching school. Jan has many warm and loving memories of her grandmother: sitting in a cozy kitchen and being read Wing Wong Wu her favorite story, helping prepare for the workhands and sweeping the dining area afterwards. Being an only child, Janice was expected to do her part of the farm work, from feeding stock, gardening, working in the fields, to any job a young man would do. Her rural background enabled her to be an active and winning 4-Her. She was perhaps most proud of a young heifer, Bessie, that earned her numerous awards and money.

When Jan entered Alvin C. York Agricultural Institute, she was a natural for the high school basketball team, due largely to her six feet one inch height. While her height was good for basketball, it proved an inconvenience in finding suitors. But on July 13, 1959 Jan's dating dilemma was put to rest when she married Boyce Dean Brannon. Boyce was born on December 28, 1938 in Stockton, Tennessee. While Boyce was home on leave from the U.S. Army they eloped and were married at the Bear Creek Methodist Church in Burkesville, Kentucky. They were not to set up housekeeping for thirteen months, it was in August, 1960 that Boyce was discharged from the Army and returned from Panama. Waiting at home was his bride and a son, he had never seen. Phillip Dean Brannon was born on March 8, 1960; the first baby delivered in the Fentress County Hospital.

Jan continued to work for Cole Farm Supply until September of 1961 and in the spring of 1962, with the edition of a second son, Patrick Hugh Brannon born June 21, 1961 in Jamestown, Tennessee, they moved to California. Once there, Jan worked for North-American Aviation. California gave a young woman from Tennessee a different outlook and view of life, but the pull of the mountains was too strong. In the fall of 1962 they moved to the Nashville area where the boys started school and their mother worked for the State of Tennessee until December of 1969.

After thirteen years of marriage, Boyce and Jan were divorced and Jan was a single parent with two young boys to raise.

In September of 1970 Janice went to work for her mother's brother, Boyd Crouch, as his secretary. Uncle Boyd was a second-generation State Farm agent. With the expense of raising two boys, Jan worked diligently and with the support of her parents was able to have a home built. The brick house on the Round Mountain Road is still called home today.

Jan was very close to her mother's family, the Crouchs. Elmore "Papa" Crouch owned and operated a general store, Crouch's Cash Store in the 'Possum Trot Community. It was in this store that a young child gathered many happy memories. "Granny" Abby Crouch bore eight children but was a jolly lady that had a quick smile for each and every child, grandchild and neighbor. She was a woman that faced her children's shortcomings but was proud of her family and received their love because of it. Papa was a man that never met a stranger, he took a man at his word and made every grandchild feel as if he or she was the most special person in the world. He was a quiet man that was easy to tell secrets to. Papa Crouch spoke seldom, but when he did, it paid one to listen to his advice. Jan's grandparents gave her the heritage of honesty, love and respectability.

Jan is dedicated to her church and community service. She is a member of the Jamestown Methodist Church, where she currently serves as Sunday School Superintendent. Jan is a member and vice-president of the Fentress County Historical Society. The study of genealogy has become a passion with her. She is also an active member of the Wolf River Extension Homemakers Club and has recently been accepted into the Eastern Star. Jan's hobbies include: reading murder mysteries, watching who-done-its on television, needle work and spoiling her grandson, Phillip Conrad.

Janice has been the State Farm agent in Fentress County since May 1, 1974. This resulted mainly due to the death of her Uncle Boyd in August of 1973. Jan has moved her office from the Square in Jamestown to the southern end of the Jamestown City Limits. She is the third generation, with State Farm Insurance in Jamestown.

After her divorce from Samuel J. Lee in December, 1980; Jan lives alone. Her older son, Phillip is married to the former Darlene Phillips and they have one son, Phillip Conrad. Jan's youngest son, Patrick lives in Mt. Juliet and works for a television and concert lighting company.
