Hi Mr Potts—
It was nice of you to tell me about the Josephine at the WCGS Meeting. I am just now trying to follow up on this lead. As I understand it She is your first cousin and she married an Upchurch. I have tried to get more information on her though Ancestry.com with minimum luck. I learned that she was born 6SEPT1918 and that she died in Goldsboro, NC on 7JUL1999. It seems her Social Security Number was issued in WV. I don't know if that means she was born there or not. I can't seem to find your GF Ernest Pipkin or his sister Ida on the Census. If you could provide me with a couple of additional hints I would be most grateful.
The project to collect information for a history of Swift Creek Township is going nicely. If you have any leads I should follow on this please let me know.
With Appreciation. Phil Upchurch

③ RECAP - 11 JUN 2007 - EGP responded to ② saying he did not need any more information. I sent him an email saying I would like more if he would be willing to provide it. These two emails seem to be missing since I have not heard from him after the passage of several weeks I will have to assume that he is unable or unwilling to cooperate at this time - RPH

Hello Mr. Upchurch, thank you for your message but you needn't go to any trouble.

I know the family well and was just wondering, when I asked, if you knew any of them.

Don't know if anyone has mentioned to you our quarterly journal is usually looking for material and this may be a good place for you to submit information on your findings/project as this publication reaches out to many people who may be of assistance to you one day with your project

Hi Again Guy--

It appears I did not use the right approach in my email to you about Josephine Morgan. It could have been that you needed some information but I understand clearly now that this was not the case. Actually my desire was to get my records more complete. Whenever I hear of an Upchurch I try to fit them into my broader knowledge of the Upchurch Family. So, from what you told me a Mr Upchurch married Josephine but I have no idea who he is and would like to find out. This is not a big deal--just one of hundreds of loose ends in the family that I would like to resolve if it can be easily done. If you can make input to help it will be appreciated.

On the other matter you mentioned I was fortunate enough to discuss this very topic with Hope Blackford at the WCGS Meeting. We talked of perhaps adapting some of the articles I have included in the Upchurch Bulletin over the last 27 years. I have already gone over the issues to see what might be worth considering. Now you have given me a new idea of what I could submit. I'll plan to email Hope tomorrow and get started on an exchange of ideas of what might be worth considering.

In Appreciation.

Hi Guy--

In about a week I must create UPCHURCH BULLETIN Volume 28 No. 2. If you have any snippet of family information such as births, marriages, deaths, comments, questions or whatever that I might consider including please send me an email or a letter. A number of individuals are being sent this request to see if the electronic world can be used to augment our joint efforts to tell the story of the descendants of Michael Upchurch in America. I hope to place any inputs in the "From The Clans" Section in the Bulletin. It may be necessary to augment, and/or edit inputs for clarity or due to space constraints.

It would be a pleasure to hear from you whether you have anything to include or not.

All Best Wishes!

Phil Upchurch

Thanksgiving visit ends in girl's murder

Herald Staff Report

A 19-year-old Apex girl was stabbed to death in the Maryland home of her boyfriend during a Thanksgiving weekend visit, and her boyfriend's older brother, who was wanted in Wake County for skipping probation, was charged with her murder.

Meredith Ellen Potts, the daughter of Richard and Jo Ellen Potts of U.S. 64, Apex, died Nov. 25 from injuries she sustained when she was attacked with a large kitchen knife.

The 1988 graduate of Apex High School and former cheerleader had been visiting the family of her boyfriend, John Zimmerman, in Chesapeake Beach, Md.

John Zimmerman's brother, Harry M. Zimmerman Jr., 21, was being held without bond in the Clifton T. Perkins Mental Hospital in Jessup, Md.

He was charged with first-degree murder.

Miss Potts

Police said they did not know why Harry Zimmerman allegedly jumped out of a room along a hallway and stabbed Miss Potts several times as she walked down the hall at about 6:30 p.m. last Saturday.

All the other members of the Zimmerman family were home but apparently were in another part of the house, police said.

Det. Sgt. R.R. Hampshire of the Maryland State Police said it was unclear where the other family members were when the incident took place.

"There is considerably more to do," he said of the investigation.

Hampshire said the rest of the family subdued Harry Zimmerman Jr. when they heard the commotion in the hallway.

Miss Potts had been stabbed several times in the chest, arms and back, Hampshire said.

She was flown by medivac ambulance from the house at 3615 28th St., Chesapeake Bay, to the Prince Georges Trauma Center, where she was pronounced dead, Hampshire said.

The Zimmermans had lived at 111 Amesbury Lane in Cary before moving to Chesapeake Beach, a town of about 2,500 on Chesapeake Bay in Maryland.

Miss Potts was a sophomore at Peace College in Raleigh, where a memorial service was planned for this week.

John Zimmerman, Miss Potts's boyfriend, is a junior at N.C. State University. He also had attended Apex High School.

Harry Zimmerman Jr., the accused killer, worked at J.W. Nicholson Masonry in Huntingtown, Md.

Harry Zimmerman attended Apex High School from February 1983 through the 1983-84 school year before transferring out, according to Principal David Stipe. He later attended the Wake County Optional School in Raleigh during the 1984-85 school year.

Before moving to Maryland, Harry Zimmerman was charged with several misdemeanors, including larceny and possession of marijuana.

He also had been convicted in February of first-degree trespassing, stemming from an incident in Garner. He was placed on two years' probation. Probation officials discovered in May that he had left the area.

Since his crimes were misdemeanors, authorities did not enter his name into a national crime information network.

Miss Potts's funeral was scheduled for Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at Salem Baptist Church, with burial to follow in the church cemetery.

In her memory a fund has been established at Peace College for the benefit of an Apex High School student who wishes to attend the two-year women's institution. Memorials may be made to the Meredith Potts Memorial Scholarship Fund, c/o Peace College, 15 E. Peace St., Raleigh, N.C., 27604.

In an open field, about thirty-five feet south of Morgan street and near Boylan avenue on the east, under what was once a stalwart mulberry tree, but now decayed and tottering with time, and without a stone or slab to mark the spot, is the last resting place of Joel Lane.

This place, in the early part of the century, was owned by Peter Browne, one of the first lawyers to settle in Raleigh. Subsequently, in 1818, it was sold by him to Wm. Boylan. At present it is occupied by Mr. R. L. Potts and his cultured and interesting family.

As many descendants of Col. Joel Lane are still living among us, a brief sketch of the Lane family may prove not uninteresting:

There were five of the Lane brothers—Joel, Joseph, Jesse, James and Barnabas. The three first mentioned settled in the vicinity of Raleigh in 1741. Col. Joel Lane's first wife was Martha Hinton, his second Mary Hinton, daughters of Col. John Hinton, of Wake. Joseph Lane married Ferebee Hunter. He died in 1798. The maiden name of the wife of James Lane was Lydia Speight. Jesse Lane had a son, John, who married Betsy Street, of Buncombe, and these two were the father and mother of General Joseph Lane, of Oregon, who was the candidate for Vice-President in 1860, on the ticket with Breckenridge. Jesse Lane married Winifred Aycock, and these were grandparents of ex-Governor Swain.

Joel Lane had six sons and an equal number of daughters. The sons were: Henry, James, William, John, Thomas and Joel; the daughters were, Nancy, Martha, Elizabeth, Mary, Dorothy and Grizzelle. The eldest son, Henry, was the grandfather of the late Henry Mordecai, and second cousin to General Joseph Lane. This relationship between the latter and Mr. Mordecai occasioned, in 1860, when the Vice-Presidential candidate came to Raleigh, the most distinguished social gathering which had ever been observed here.

This was at the residence of Mr. Mordecai, on the northern limits of the city, to which were invited every one of consequence hereabouts and all the kinspeople of the Lanes and Mordecais far and near. It is said to have been the most brilliant and elaborate affair ever known in the history of the capital. Among others present, and who were descendants of Joel Lane, were members of the following families: Devereuxs, McCullers (John Joseph Lane McCullers, father of Mr. Chas. E. and Dr. Joseph McCullers), the late Col. L. D. Stephenson, Matthew Stephenson, Austin Jones, and a great many others whose names are not now recalled.

The living descendants, now in this vicinity, of Henry Lane, are Mrs. Margaret L. Little and five sons; Miss Martha Mordecai, Mrs. Mary W. Turk and two children; Mrs. Ellen Mordecai, her son S. F. Mordecai and his eight children; Mrs. Margaret Devereux and daughters—Mrs. J. J. Mackay and five children, Mrs. J. W. Hinsdale and five children, and Misses Annie and Laura Devereux.

Capt. J. J. Thomas, Dr. D. E. Everett, Joseph G. and Jno. W. Brown are also descendants of Col. Lane. The late W. H. Holleman was Col. Lane's great-grandson. Mrs. Margaret E. Rowland, of Middle Creek Township, and mother of J. T. and Rev. Chas. H. Rowland, is also lineally descended from Col. Lane, whose son James was Mrs. Rowland's great-grandfather.

Mrs. Lydia Brown, mother of Messrs. Jno. W. and Joseph G. Brown, was a granddaughter of James Lane.

Mrs. Phil. Thiem, her sons and daughters—one of the latter being Mrs. Walter Woolcott; Mrs. John Redford; Miss Janie Brown; Mrs. Richard Young, her sons and daughter; the children of the late Nat. L. Brown, and Mrs. W. M. Brown, her sons and daughters—are also descendants (through their mother and grandmother, the late Mrs. Lydia Brown), of James Lane.

Other descendants of the historic Lanes are Messrs. Thomas J. Stephenson and his brothers, David, James M., Lonnie D., Jr., Nathaniel R., Ralph Lane, and sisters, Sallie E. and Julia V. Stephenson—sons and daughters of the late Col. L. D. Stephenson—all of Middle Creek Township, this county.

Mr. Chas. E. McCullers, of Raleigh, has in his possession a powder-horn and mahogany walking-cane, with the name of "Joseph Lane" carved on each, the lettering being still quite distinct.
