Elizabeth Cassandra Pridgen of Raleigh and Phillip Victor Goodson of Raleigh were united in marriage June 6 at First Christian Church in Wilson. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Kaeser of Washington.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Norman E. Pridgen Jr. of Wilson. Parents of the bridegroom are Douglas W. and Carolyn M. Goodson of Franklin, and the late Linda Robinson Goodson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal sheath gown of white silk shantung with a fitted bodice adorned with re-embroidered alencon lace, beaded with iridescent sequins and pearls. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline and off-the-shoulder pouf sleeves. The floor-length skirt was bordered at the hemline with matching lace. A detachable cathedral-length train flowed from the waistline and was complemented with lace medallions.

She wore a cathedral-length veil of French illusion attached to a band of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

She was attended by Ann F. Johnson of Bailey as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Beth A. Cogan, Phyllis L. Goodson, sister of the bridegroom, and Kristin W. Hasbrouck, all of Raleigh.

The attendants each wore floor-length gowns with a fitted tapestry bodice blending shades of blue, lavender and purple, and a skirt of iridescent purple taffeta.

The bridegroom chose C. Mark Casey of Cary to be his best man. Ushers were Jason R. Day, Montey S. Edge, and Michael D. Pridgen, brother of the bride, all of Raleigh.

Wedding music was presented by Clyde Patterson, organist; Becky Vanden Bosch, soloist; and Thomas Mense, flutist.

The register was attended by Paula Johnson of Bailey. Leigh Ann Johnson of Bailey was the program attendant. Doris Watkins of Wilson directed the wedding and reception. The wedding and reception were videotaped by Hilton, Dalene and Sharon Petway.

The bride is a graduate of Elon College. She is a self-employed accountant. Her husband is employed by Action Oil Equipment Co. in Zeblulon.

A reception was hosted by the parents of the bride at the Willow Springs Country Club in Wilson with music by After Five. Greeting guests upon arrival were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hayes of Wilson.

A wedding-day breakfast was hosted by the bride-elect's mother and the matron of honor in the bride-elect's home.

LOOKING FOR FREDERICA'S GRAVE

A Genealogical Puzzle
by
Lyman William Priest, C.G.

One of my wife's most treasured possessions is the fragment of an old letter describing the final illness of her great-grandmother, Catharina Frederica Chitty, who died unexpectedly while visiting members of her family in Hope, Hawcreek Township, Indiana, where Moravian settlers had established a community in 1830.

In the letter to my wife's grandmother, Ellen Rebecca Stroupe, in Salem, the first page of which with the date is missing, the writer, Francis R. Holland, head of the Moravian Girls' School at Hope, described the loving care that Mrs. Chitty received during her last days as follows:

...invitation to ride in the hack, We are told that, upon leaving the train, she also walked to her brother's house, a half mile distant. While there she began to feel unwell. On the following Thursday (or Friday) the 27th or the 28th, he brought her to Hope in a buggy. The drive was long,--the day raw & windy,--and on her arrival at her granddaughters' she felt chilled through, & quite sick. She at once took to her bed; and Dr. Stapp, the oldest & most experienced of our physicians, was called and attended her faithfully to the end. From the first the disease was severe and extremely prostrating. But after a few days the symptoms became more favorable. The fever subsided, the disordered condition of the internal system seemed subdued; and the Dr. thought that if she had sufficient natural vigor left she would certainly get well. But it seemed that no means were sufficient to restore her strength. The system was worn out beyond the power of restoration. To our unprofessional eyes she seemed "much better." She rested well, had no pain, & seemed to share our cheerful hope that she would soon be regaining strength. Nevertheless she felt herself in the Lord's hand, assured that His will was for the best.--I called to see her daily; but on the 8th or 9th inst. (Monday & Tuesday) had to be away from home, but hoped to find her better.--On my return, Tuesday evening, I was told that a message had been left saying that your dear mother was worse. I went at once to see her, & found that a great change had taken place. It was evident that exhausted nature was sinking and that the end was drawing near. Very gradually and apparently without pain, she continued to grow weaker until Friday morning (yesterday) Oct. 12, without a struggle she breathed her last. As the day was breaking, she entered upon an eternal glorious day, to be followed by no night of weeping.

We frequently joined in commending her departing spirit to the Lord her Savior; and have assurance from her own lips that He was with her in all the fullness of his grace.

On one occasion, when she was no longer able to articulate,, I said to her, in short, broken sentences: "You will soon be at home--you will see those who are gone before--Addie--Cornelia--your husband--Mary & all the rest--and you will see Jesus--and that will be the best of all." To all of which she significantly nodded her head, & tried again and again to utter the word: "Yes!" --Thus we went with her to the brink of the river, and have the happy assurance that the Savior was with her to bear her through, fulfilling his promise "I will come again and receive you to myself, that where I am ye may be also."

I am told that when asked about the disposal of her remains she emphatically and clearly requested that they be interred here. Accordingly, they have just been laid to rest in our beautiful cemetery, where not a few of her friends and kindred already lie in hope of a joyful resurrection. The funeral services were numerously attended. Her sickness and death had excited general sympathy, and there was an abundance of tender ministrations at her sick-bed. The sermon was from the text (John 14:2,3) "In my Father's house are many mansions etc.--I enclose, in substance, the memoir which was communicated, regretting only that for the want of dates etc. it could not be more full & complete. With love to you all, in wh. Sr. Holland joins,

I am very truly yr friend F.R. Holland

Mrs. Chitty, the sixth child of the Reverend Georg Christian Heinrich Ruede and his wife, Maria Elisabeth, maiden name Seiler, was born on 10 September 1815 at Friedburg, Stokes County, North Carolina,<sup>1</sup> where her father was the Moravian minister. She married Traugott Chitty on

25 July 1837 at Salem<sup>2</sup> and was the mother of eight children, six girls and two boys.<sup>3</sup> She was survived by only two children, Ellen Rebecca, who married Ephraim Augustus Stroupe, and Emma Louise, for whom my wife was named, a teacher for 49 years in the Salem Academy, who never married. After the death of her husband on 14 December 1874 Mrs. Chitty continued to live in Salem and on 2 June 1880 was enumerated in the Widows' House in the Tenth United States Census.<sup>4</sup>

Because of the loss of the first page of the letter with the date and the memoir referred to in the letter, my wife knew only that her great-grandmother had died and was buried in Hope, Indiana. My wife's efforts to learn the date of death and place of burial were fruitless despite correspondence with the Moravian Archives in Salem and the Moravian Church in Hope. The search resumed when my research on the Johannes Strub family moved to Bartholomew County, Indiana, where many Strub descendants migrated from North Carolina.

When I re-read the letter I recalled that a perpetual calendar is a useful tool for narrowing down search for year of an event when the date of the month and the day of the week are known.. In this instance Mr. Holland mentioned in his letter that Mrs. Chitty died on Friday morning, 12 October. From the perpetual calendar we learn that 12 October fell on Friday in 1883, 1888, and 1894, all years after 1880, the year in which Mrs. Chitty was enumerated in the 1880 census in Salem. With this information the Indiana Division of the Indiana State Library came up with the following short death notice from the 12 October issue of the Columbus [Indiana] Daily Herald

DIED: Mrs. Frederica Chitty, aged 73 years, at Hope at 5 o'clock this morning, and will be buried to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Chitty was on a visit from North Carolina to her grandchildron [sic] at Hope.

Having learned the date of Mrs. Chitty's death, we were interested in finding out the identity of the brother mentioned in the letter as well as the names of the grandchildren mentioned in the death notice. Of Mrs. Chitty's four brothers, two had migrated from Salem to Hope to join the Moravian community. George Henry Ruede, born 9 May 1812,<sup>5</sup> had died on 20 September 1882. Samuel Christian Ruede, born 17 May 1817,<sup>6</sup> died 26 August 1895. Since George Henry Ruede had died before his sister, we conclude that Samuel Christian Ruede was the brother mentioned in the letter.

The grandchildren referred to in the letter could not have been children of Ellen Rebecca Stroupe, because none of the latter's children ever lived in Hope, Indiana. Mrs. Chitty's only other child who married and had children was William Edward Chitty, who was born on 13 August 1838 and who married Julia M. Essex on 25 March 1862 in Bartholomew County, Indiana.<sup>7</sup> Their children, Martha, Lucinda, Laura, and William Edward Chitty, aged 16, 13, 12, and 10 years, respectively, were enumerated in the 1880 census in the household of their maternal grandparents, Lewis and Matilda Essex in Hawcreek Township, Bartholomew County, Indiana.

The author expresses his gratitude to Patricia Dodd, Hope, Indiana, granddaughter of Laura Chitty, who married John Pense, for sending information which confirms this research, including a photograph of the gravestone of Catharina Frederica Chitty in the Hope cemetery; to Mary Frances Urbahns, Deputy Clerk of Bartholomew County, Indiana, for sending the dates from the gravestones of George Henry and Samuel Christian Ruede and for putting me in touch with Patricia Dodd; to the Indiana Division of the Indiana State Library for finding Mrs. Chitty's death notice; and finally, to my mother-in-law, the late Mary Constance Stroupe Upchurch, for preserving and passing along the fragment of letter about the death of her grandmother.

Going Home

By Angela Miller, 1988

Someday I'll slip away when no one is looking;
When everyone is busy with their own.
And if anyone should ask for me or wonder,
Tell them that I wanted to go home.

I'll leave a part of me so they'll remember;
A loving little touch in every room.
And if they find they miss me in the evening,
Maybe they'll put flowers on my tomb.

Early 1900s Hand-Written Recipe Book, Mrs. W.S. Primrose, Raleigh, NC

- △ Hand-written recipe book with recipes compiled by Mrs. W. S. PRIMROSE of Raleigh, NC, whose husband was the President of the North Carolina Home Insurance Co. This came from
- △△ the estate of Helen Primrose McPHERSON, her great-granddaughter. After some recipes, she wrote the name of the person who gave it to her. It is mostly desserts, salads, and sauces
- ↳ with some snacks; I see no entrees. Some recipes are Chocolate Ice Cream (Mrs. Jas.
- △ BOYLAN), Ice Cream (Bessie BATES), Cheese Straws, Bavarian Cream, and Molasses Taffy
- △ (all Miss Adelaide BOYLAN), Chili Sauce, Tea Cakes Without Eggs, and Jumbles (all Mrs.
- △ B.S. SKINNER), Velvet Sponge Cake, Fruit Lemonade, Orange Sherbet (Mrs. Chas. E.
- △ JOHNSON), and more, a total of at least 40. A few of the titles are difficult to make out in full, but the instructions usually clarify. Some are dated starting at 1901 with the latest date 1905.

MRS. CORNELIA NORRIS

In the death of Mrs. Norris, the William Utley Memorial Association sustains a distinct loss. Three years ago at its organization, Mrs. Norris was present and was unanimously elected the genealogist of the Association. Many years of genealogical investigation amply qualified her for the difficult task. She brought to it not only special ability along these lines but an enthusiasm equaled by few; and surpassed by none. She delighted in tracing old family records; and had gathered a fund of information on the early settlers of Wake and adjoining counties that perhaps no predecessor had approached. In such painstaking investigations she found great pleasure. This type of historical investigation calls for unlimited patience, perseverance, and devotion to the ends in view. Industry is absolutely essential for sources of information are all too often meager, and many and various kinds of records have to be searched, and information to be relied upon, must be obtained from many sources. All these essential qualifications Mrs. Norris possessed to a marked degree. For many years this type of investigation had been a hobby of hers. And the information she had gathered and distributed had enriched the minds of many relative to their ancestors, the places they came from and the family connections.

We deeply appreciate her services and the contributions she so unselfishly made in the most altruistic manner. And we the members of the William Utley Memorial Association hereby place on record, for permanent preservation, our high esteem of Mrs. Norris as a lady of culture and high character whose long and useful life was unselfishly devoted to her family, friends, and all who sought her services which she rendered gracefully and graciously and whose memory we will cherish always as one worthy of our fondest recollections.

Mrs. Norris was the daughter of the late Jessie Norris of Apex; and was born August 3, 1857. She therefore lacked only a few weeks of having reached her 78th birthday. For many years she had been a resident of Raleigh and an active member of the First Baptist Church. Her husband, the late M. T. Norris, preceded her in death by more than 25 years. She leaves three children (daughters), all of Raleigh, Mrs. J. K. Marshall, Mrs. James McKimmon and Mrs. J. L. Primrose ↑

Mrs. Norris was for many years a member of the Caswell-Nash Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, had done much work along genealogical lines for the Chapter, and represented it frequently in Washington City. Her funeral was conducted by Dr. E. McNeil Poteat, pastor of the Pullen Memorial Baptist Church of Raleigh.

RHAMKATTE ROAD

Rhamkatte Road is one of the earliest known locations in Wake County. Cornwallis stopped to rest his troops just South of Dorothea Dix's present location. A number of camp followers had taken up with General Cornwallis and here he ordered them to remain behind. He was on his way to surrender to George Washington at Yorktown. The camp followers named the place Ramsgate after Ramsgate in England where a lot of them were from. They couldn't spell or write and pronounced it Rhamskatte and the name took. Wake County farmers ran the camp followers off. Where is Rhamkatte? "Take the Fayetteville road out ov Rolly ontwell Swift Creek, turn to the west awhile, go by the old vineyard of Lotho Wilson, an' there ye air at Rhamskatte . . . When ye get to the intersection ov Ike Langston Avenue an' Furman Gulley Avenue (named fer illustrious early citizens ov Rhamkatte) — ye air in Rhamkatte." — News and Observer, The Rhamkatte Roaster, Joseph Daniels.

OLD YATES MILL

△ Old Yates Mill is located on Lake Wheeler Road, which was Rhamkatte Road for as long as older Wake County residents remember, until changed twenty or thirty years ago.

△ The mill site was surveyed in 1756 and the land was granted to Samuel Pearson in 1761. It is probable that the mill was built a short time before the survey.

△ Pearson died in 1800, and, in 1820, his son, Simon, was forced to sell it in a sheriff's sale. The mill was purchased by William Boylan, who rebuilt and modernized it and, in

△ + △ 1854, sold it to James Penny, Thomas Briggs and John Primrose. Five years later, Primrose, △ sold his interest to James Dodd. A few years later Briggs and Dodd sold their interest to James Penny. For many years after that, the pond at the mill site was known as Penny's Pond, even though Penny sold the mill to his △ son-in-law, Phares Yates, in the 1860's. The mill remained in the Yates family until acquired by A.E. Finley about the middle of this century. North Carolina State University purchased the mill site in the 1960's.

△ The mill furnished water ground meal and flour for over two hundred years. Johnny Lee operated the mill for over 50 years, beginning in 1898. A sawmill was added to it once and wool was carded there at one time — when sheep raising was a major farm enterprise in the county.

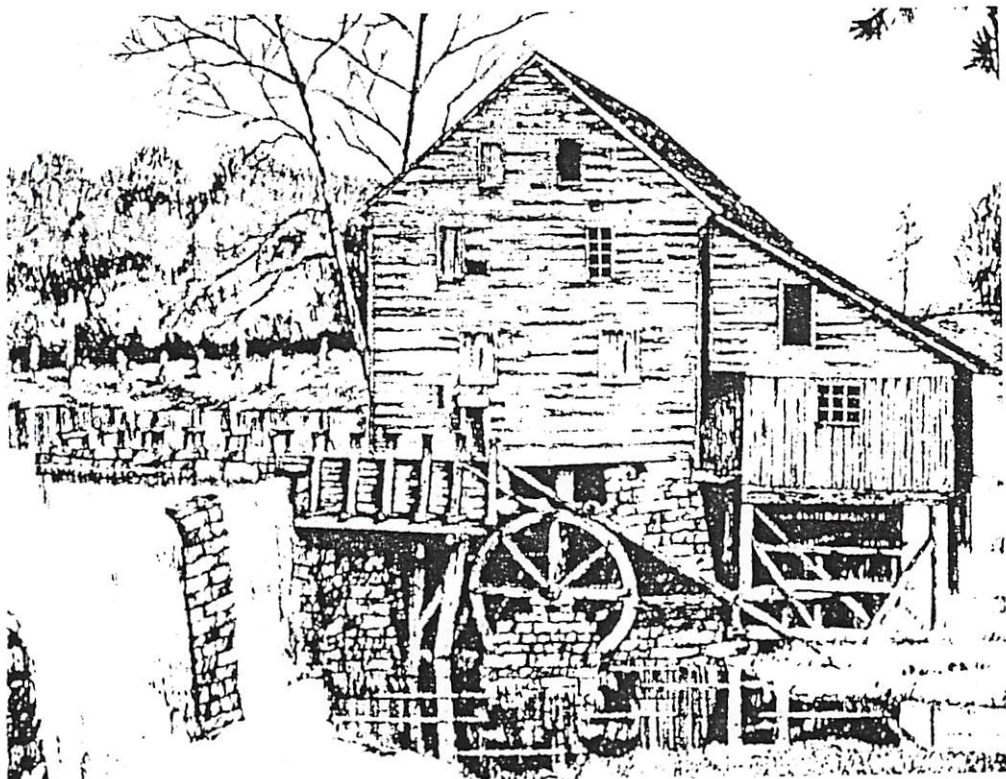

The pond was a favorite fishing and picnicking spot in days gone by and was used by nearby churches for baptizings.

The building has been added onto several times, but the structure remaining is believed to date from 1835 to 1840, with the foundation probably the original one build by Pearson. The old wool card is dated 1867. The wooden siding was originally nailed with hand-cut iron nails. Yankee cavalry set fire under the porch in 1865, but neighbors extinguished it, with little damage done.

Once a proud structure, the mill has been by-passed by progress and is rotting away.

Early 1900s Hand-Written Recipe Book, Mrs. W.S. Primrose, Raleigh, NC

- △ Hand-written recipe book with recipes compiled by Mrs. W. S. PRIMROSE of Raleigh, NC, whose husband was the President of the North Carolina Home Insurance Co. This came from
- △△ the estate of Helen Primrose McPHERSON, her great-granddaughter. After some recipes, she wrote the name of the person who gave it to her. It is mostly desserts, salads, and sauces
- △ with some snacks; I see no entrees. Some recipes are Chocolate Ice Cream (Mrs. Jas.
- △ BOYLAN), Ice Cream (Bessie BATES), Cheese Straws, Bavarian Cream, and Molasses Taffy
- △ (all Miss Adelaide BOYLAN), Chili Sauce, Tea Cakes Without Eggs, and Jumbles (all Mrs.
- △ B.S. SKINNER), Velvet Sponge Cake, Fruit Lemonade, Orange Sherbet (Mrs. Chas. E.
- △ JOHNSON), and more, a total of at least 40. A few of the titles are difficult to make out in full, but the instructions usually clarify. Some are dated starting at 1901 with the latest date 1905.

Agricultural Department.

MR. W. G. UPCHURCH, CHIEF OF DEPARTMENT.

Several large and commodious sheds will be devoted to displays of agricultural implements and agricultural machinery. In order that the machinery may be seen in actual operation we have planted quite a portion of the ground in clover. Mr. Upchurch, the Chief of this Department, will be most happy to aid the Plow manufacturers in representing the efficient work of their Plows in this field. After the sod is turned he respectfully invites Harrow manufacturers to represent their machines in actual use, and after that a most cordial invitation is extended to the various Drill manufacturers, granting them the privilege of drilling in any kind of grain that they may prefer--either wheat, oats or rye. (See pages 2 and 3).

Chapter 30 entitled "The Watuga Club and State College" pages 291-300 provide insight on how Josephus Daniels recalls the events leading up to the creation of N.C.
 State College (Now University). A full chapter is devoted to the role the Watuga Club played in this process. A full copy of this chapter less about 3 1/2 pages has been placed in the Organization File of RPH - N.C. State College.
 The names of people prominently mentioned as being instrumental in the formation of N.C. State are given below.

W. J. Peelle, Raleigh Lawyer organized the Club 1883 along with
 + Walter H. Poge, Charles W. Sawyer, Arthur Winslow,
 Added Members: Joseph E. Brown, Alfred D. Jones, John W. Thompson
 Edgar Leach + W. E. Ashley - JD joined 1885

Their idea was a model N.C. State College after MIT

1885 State Legislature authorized a school in Raleigh if land + a bed was offered

17 APR 1886 - Raleigh Board of Aldermen offered $ if site could be found 8 Acres south of Methodist Dispensary offered - Then came a public meeting - Maj Robert Bingham of the Bingham School gave the address - Jester = W. J. Primrose + Henry E. Fries
 - but the movement lagged until Farmer Albane under

Col L. L. Polk of the Progressive Farmer came forth. UNC had the $7500 income from land script fund for Ag

UNC President Dr Kemp P. Battle objected to the loss but W. J. Peelle +
 JD reassured Battle. Battle as member of Ag Board worked to assist Peelle as Commissioner + put in a dispatch MONTFORD MCGHEE. For

ALFRED M. SCALES supported Battle and was offended when his daughter KATIE SCALES dated ALFRED D. JONES a supporter of the Ag College

Dr Charles Stanhope Pullen Raleigh Developer gave land for N.C. State 1887 - Legislature appropriated the Land Script Fund + a little more for an

Ag College and in 1889 it opened with one bed

William R. Williams of Pitt + Augustine Leggar of Iredell were big supporters

Gentleman,

Dr. Ewan Pritchard is a member of the Apex Historical Society and lives in the Tula Upchurch Holland House on Salem St. He came in the shop last week and purchased "Pluck, Perseverance, and Paint" and indicates it was useful in finding more information on the family that lived in the house. If you have further information that would be of value to him in his quest in finding out about others that lived in the house, who built the structure and/or any information on the history of the house he would be most grateful.

Thanks, Mack

Mack,

Our house is called the Tula Upchurch Holland House. Mrs Tula was married to Henry Odessa Holland AKA "H. O. Holland" in the book I bought. I have quite a bit of information on them but am always looking for more, I am also looking for more info on the house such as actual dates built and whether something was there previously. I know that there was some relationship between them and A. B. Hunter, which I am trying to understand, Hunter owned the home next door to ours where Lise Zublena now lives. Regards, Ewan

I don't have anything more than what is in the book. Maybe Warren does. We both have personal stories about "Miss Tula," inasmuch as she was the matriarch of Apex Baptist Church during our childhood and youth. But nothing that goes back before the mid-50s.

She taught Sunday school continuously for 60 years, so at one point nearly everyone in the church had had her as teacher, including Toby and me. If you look in the index you'll see stories about her and her husband (Dessie Holland). On p 214 there is a story about a "busybody" - we don't give the name, but it was Miss Tula. Leland Dollar can tell you about the history of the pharmacy--the one he had was originally owned by the Hollands. A.B. Hunter had a pharmacy in his general store going back to the 1880s - it was located 1 or 2 doors south of the Peak City Grill location. Hunter got a pharmacy license back in the 1880s, I believe - you can check the book to be sure. Back then you didn't get a graduate degree, just a license. Tula's parents were close friends with the Hunters. Then Tula married Dessie Holland, a pharmacist. Perhaps Hunter helped the Hollands get their pharmacy started? Do you know Tula's maiden name? If I knew that I might be able to say a little more. Warren

Hi Ewan---

I returned yesterday from a 10 day trip to Ireland to find the several emails on the subject house. It was my pleasure to visit the house several years ago. I have a good record of the heritage of Artula J. Upchurch the wife of H. O. Holland but more needs to be added. Her father was Allinder Burtess Upchurch. He and my Grandfather Bartley Jefferson Upchurch served in the Civil War together. They were first cousins once removed. Two cousins and I are writing a book on Bartley and are naturally looking for information on their service together. This group of Upchurches belonged to the Nathan Upchurch, I Clan about which I have a great deal of information. I have a small amount of information on the house.

The information about Miss Tula as a Sunday school teacher was new to me. It appears to me that we have more sharing to do. If you can tell what kinds of things interest you it would facilitate us moving along sharing. We may have to work out a process to share as several are already in the loop. I am certainly willing to share what I have and will be anxious to get more details.

My time is a little constrained right now as I am a little behind and am preparing for a three week trip to N. C. in May. The important thing is to get a little momentum so I look forward to hearing from you or others in the loop.

Phil,

Thanks so much for all of the insight. I am not on a tight timeframe, just want to make sure I keep learning more over time. I have a little on H. O. Holland, which I would be happy to share sometime, perhaps we could have a drink on our porch sometime and share notes (Mack just supplied me with some great new rocking chairs.) I am primarily interested in the house, and inasmuch interested in Dessie and Mrs Tula. Let me know anytime you are in Apex and may be able to talk.

Warren,

Thanks for the follow up and great information. I will go into the book and look more closely at page 214. I have a number of documents on Henry Odessa such as his death certificate and his pharmacist licensure. The other night, I was even able to find a picture (inside of his pharmacy) here - <http://ia700202.us.archive.org/21/items/carolinaj241943nort/carolinaj241943nort.pdf>. you can see him referenced on page 10 and pictured on page 11 (image 3). Good news is that there is also more information in reference 7 and picture of A.V. Baucom (picture 7). Does anyone have a picture of either the house early on or a picture of Mrs. Tula?

Thanks,
Ewan

Hi Ewan---

I really like the idea of the porch venue. We will be in Raleigh, N. C. May 23 to June 8. I have your phone numbers and will call you after we arrive to see if we can pick a mutually agreeable time to meet. Between now and then I must put several items on the schedule but we should be able to work around them.

When we meet I suggest we consider what can logically be done going forward and who might be involved. One thought I have is that we might work cooperatively to prepare a Resource Book that would deal with the house and with Dessie and Tula. As much as desired could be included on their heritage. I visualize a fairly good size collection but with perhaps no more than a dozen copies. Various individuals could use this to create narratives of their own liking. I would certainly want a copy for the Upchurch Collection at N. C. State University.

To get a better idea of my background/interests you may wish to go to my Facebook Page "Phil Upchurch Genealogy Project" an allow me to friend you. By clicking on the "About" Section you can get the big picture.

I am not sure how much I can pull together before we come but will bring what I have. This will include input from a cousin who grew up knowing Miss Tula. I suspect this is just the tip of the iceberg with more to come as we pursue the facts and opinions.

Best!

Hi Ewan---

We returned home on June 11 after 20 days away being very pleased at what we were able to accomplish. Now I have tons of notes to be processed.

It was great to tour the Artula Upchurch house with you and to sit and chat about your plans for this historic structure. As you can tell keeping up to date on this project falls within the orbit of my ongoing interest in all things having to do with Upchurch. There was a lot of Upchurch involvement in Apex and I continue to pull as much of the details together as possible.

I will welcome any additional details you may be able to provide me on the house or on Artula or Dessie and I will be happy to share likewise.

I do hope we can stay in touch and help each other as much as possible.

Thanks for taking time to visit.

RE: EARLY CHURCHES IN RALEIGH

The Baptists were next to organize a congregation. This was in 1812, and a church building of an humble character was erected on Moore Square, or in what was then known as the Baptist Grove. The bell was of the size and sound of those generally in use by tobacco factories. In this Grove the founders of the First Baptist church worshipped. There is high authority for the statement that the members were accustomed each to take a tallow candle to this humble building in order to produce a "dim, religious light" (so conducive to spirituality, it was thought) for services at night. The membership of the church, says Mr. W. C. Upchurch, was never more than eighteen—seven males and eleven females. Of the former there were Madison Royster, Jas. Nunn, J. D. Briggs, Mark Williams, and W. C. Upchurch; the late Mrs. Alfred Williams was among the female members.

About 1835, owing to differences of opinion among the members, dissension arose, and a new and better edifice was accordingly erected at the southeast corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. The pastors of this church, in the order named, were Revs. Amos J. Battle, Louis Dupree, T. W. Toby, J. J. Finch, G. W. Johnston, T. E. Skinner.

In 1858 the present imposing First Baptist Church was erected. Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, one of our most distinguished theologians (who is yet living and much beloved by all) was the first pastor. The late Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard was another of the early pastors.

Among the members of this church in the old days were, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Miss Lucinda Briggs, P. F. Pescud, J. J. Biggs, Miss Sallie Towles, M. B. Royster, Jas. D. Royster, Lynn Adams, W. D. Williams, Caswell Lee, Jas. D. Nunn, Jordan Womble, Jr., Robert Jones, Miss Selina Jenkins.

A prominent feature of the Sunday School of this church is the Infant Class, which numbers one hundred and sixty-five. The class was organized in 1865, with but twelve pupils. Dr. W. I. Royster was the first teacher in charge. It is now conducted by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dodd and Miss Elizabeth Briggs.

In 1874 a few members of this church, led by Messrs. N. B. Broughton and J. S. Allen, organized a new congregation, and purchased on Swain street a house of worship and denominated it the Second Baptist Church. The congregation assumed in a year or two such proportions that it became necessary to secure a more commodious structure, and a site was accordingly purchased on the corner of Hargett and Person streets, upon which was erected the present edifice, known as the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Its seating capacity is about one thousand. The Sunday School is the largest in the city and its fame in this department of religious work extends throughout the country, due, in a great measure, to the zeal and popularity of Mr. N. B. Broughton, known throughout the State as foremost in all that makes for the advancement—moral and material—of the people.
