Pulley Confirmed By Senate

Spring Hope native Cassandra M. Pulley, a businesswoman with a private-sector background that includes strategic marketing, business development, financial services and corporate banking, was confirmed by the Senate recently as deputy administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration.

"I'm happy that the Senate saw fit to confirm the president's choice," said SBA Administrator Erskine Bowles. "Seldom have such qualifications been rolled so appropriately into one nominee.

She understands small businesses, and I know she's anxious to get to work. Luckily, we've got a lot of work to do."

As deputy administrator, Ms. Pulley will serve as Bowles' second-in-command in the day-to-day management of agency operations, policy development and program supervision.

Before coming to SBA, Ms. Pulley established and directed her own business, Business Strategies International Inc., a consulting firm specializing in helping small firms with strategic marketing and business development.

From 1987 to 1991, she served as vice president at subsidiaries of American International Group, first as vice president for special finances and later as vice president for sales and marketing. In the latter role, she opened, staffed and established a Washington, D.C., office for the financial services company and managed direct sales and vendor programs for two sales forces and three product lines.

Corinth Baptist packs pews for 125th anniversary celebration

By Kerry Watson
STAFF WRITER

There is a phrase known in Baptist churches: "pack-a-pew."

When used, it means that a normal church pew usually holding 10 to 12 people comfortably has suddenly fit in as many people as humanly possible — shoulder to shoulder with hardly any breathing room.

"Pack-a-pew" fit nicely, and tightly, Sept. 26 as Corinth Baptist celebrated its 125th anniversary.

"We're having a great day. This is as big of a crowd as I can remember," said E.J. Corbett, a 78-year congregation member.

In honor of the historic feat, Corinth Baptist celebrated via its homecoming service. Corinth native the Rev. Ricky Anderson preached the sermon.

During its existence, 20 different pastors have handled pulpit duties. Pastor A.A. Pippin holds the record for the longest term (23 years spanning 1898-1920).

Over the past 125 years Corinth Baptist has had 20 different pastors. A.A. Pippin holds the record for the longest term with 23 years, from 1898 to 1920.

Hiring ends in suspected robbery

A Zebulon business owner believes the man he attempted to help by giving him a job ended up robbing him blind.

Neil Luxenberg, owner of Red Rose at 116 W. Horton St., told Police Officer Larry McKeithan that he noticed items missing from his warehouse soon after he hired Jerry Wayne Pulley, 38, of Zebulon, to work in his warehouse after Pulley asked him for a job.

Luxenberg called Rusty Peele at the Zebulon Pawn Shop and inquired if he had seen any of the items, which included a skill saw, adjustable wrenches, a microwave oven and a compact disc player. Peele said he did have some (others had already been sold), but Luxenberg could not acquire them until he filed a police report.

After speaking with Luxenberg, the officer was able to retrieve Luxenberg's remaining property from the pawn shop. All told, approximately $500 worth of property was stolen from the warehouse.

McKeithan said he will be acquiring warrants for Pulley's arrest.

Finch, Pulley marry in Zebulon

Robin Paige Pulley of Zebulon and Neuma Elmo Finch Jr. of Zebulon were united in marriage Nov. 24 at the Zebulon United Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Benfield.

The bride is the daughter of Robert E. Pulley and Kay Pennington Pulley of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Barbara Perry Finch of Zebulon and the late Elmo Finch Sr.

The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Pennington of Knightdale.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white formal satin with a sweetheart neckline. The basque bodice was overlaid with English netting, alencon lace, white seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The gown was fashioned with long, fitted sleeves of English netting and alencon lace cutouts. The back of the bodice featured a satin bow from which fell a bouffant skirt adorned with hand-beaded pearl and alencon lace appliques.

From the skirt flowed a chapel-length train detailed with hand-beaded appliques. The skirt and train were edged in a border of alencon lace.

The bride chose a wreath of silk and iridescent flowers and leaves enhanced with sprays of seed pearls and crystalenes on each side for her headpiece. The full-length veil of silk illusion featured a pouf, adorned with seed pearls in the back. She carried a cascade bouquet of white bridal roses, stephanotis, miniature carnations and ivy, accented with pearl sprays.

She was attended by Emily Pulley, her sister, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janie Finch of Zebulon, sister of the bridegroom; Allyson Harris Creech of Zebulon; Anna Wilson Crowder of Zebulon; and Cammie Kelly of Tiverton, R.I.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids each wore a dress of purple iridescence with a high neck. The bodice gathered to a pouf on the side with a rosette of purple iridescence.

Serving as register attendants were Gina Pulley Bryant, cousin of the bride, and Dana Richardson of Zebulon. Erin Pulley of Zebulon and Mandy Pennington of Raleigh, cousins of the bride, were bulletin attendants. Michele and Kristy Pennington of Wendell, cousins of the bride, served as rice maids.

The bridegroom and ushers wore black dress tails with white bow ties and white vests.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Franklin Finch, to be his best man. Ushers were Mel Ferrell, Cliff Ferrell and Chris Bunn, all of Zebulon, cousins of the bridegroom; Wayne Dupree of Zebulon; Gary Crowder of Zebulon; and Ricky Barrow of Clayton.

Wedding music was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Powers. Betsy Green served as organist, Mary Lib Privette served as pianist and Susie Powers played the flute.

Melrose Ferrell, aunt of the bridegroom, directed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and N.C. State University. She is an accountant at Don H. Perry, CPA. Her husband is a graduate of Zebulon High School. He is a self-employed farmer.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Zebulon Shrine Club. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Pulley.

The room was decorated with ferns, and white and purple mums. The register table was decorated with wedding party figurines.

The menu consisted of shrimp, chicken tenders, chicken salad puffs, ham and biscuits, roast beef on kaiser rolls, cheese tarts, cucumber sandwiches, cheese and crackers, fruit and vegetable trays, nuts, mints, fruit punch, and champagne punch.

The wedding cake was made by the bridegroom's mother. The three-tiered cake was decorated with white icing and fresh flowers. The bottom layer featured white wedding bells inside a white heart with crystal figurines. The middle and top tiers were decorated with fresh flowers.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Durant Finch. Music was provided by harpist Bertie Stevens.

Rehearsal dinner

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the family of the bridegroom-elect, was held on Friday, Nov. 23, at the Zebulon Shrine Club. The dinner menu consisted of assorted fruits, salad with various toppings, steak, baked potatoes, rolls and tea. The dessert consisted of a groom's cake made by the mother of the bridegroom-elect.

The couple-elect chose this time to present gifts to their attendants. Family and the bridal party were invited to attend. Betsy Mitchell and Joan Driver greeted guests as they arrived.

Bridesmaids' breakfast

A bridesmaids' breakfast was held on Nov. 24 at the home of Barbara Pulley.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Pulley, Gina Pulley Bryant, Sandra Pittman and Bertha Alford.

The breakfast consisted of scrambled eggs, grits, a variety of breads and muffins, assorted fruit tray, country ham, sausage, bacon, homemade biscuits, orange juice, apple juice, and coffee.

The hostesses presented the bride-elect with a five-piece place setting in her chosen china pattern.

Corinth Baptist packs pews for 125th anniversary celebration

By Kerry Watson
STAFF WRITER

There is a phrase known in Baptist churches: "pack-a-pew."

When used, it means that a normal church pew usually holding 10 to 12 people comfortably has suddenly fit in as many people as humanly possible — shoulder to shoulder with hardly any breathing room.

"Pack-a-pew" fit nicely, and tightly, Sept. 26 as Corinth Baptist celebrated its 125th anniversary.

"We're having a great day. This is as big of a crowd as I can remember," said E.J. Corbett, a 78-year congregation member.

In honor of the historic feat, Corinth Baptist celebrated via its homecoming service. Corinth native the Rev. Ricky Anderson preached the sermon.

During its existence, 20 different pastors have handled pulpit duties. Pastor A.A. Pippin holds the record for the longest term (23 years spanning 1898-1920).
