Apex's Bertha Holt cruises by 95

Holt was born in a seven-room farmhouse where the Peak Plaza is now

By Mary Beth Phillips
Staff Writer

When Bertha Holt celebrates her 95th birthday on Sunday, she will leave her home downtown where she still lives by herself, drive to Salem Baptist Church where the flowers will be given in her honor, and arrive at Holland's Grill where friends and family will celebrate with her.

Holt was born Bertha Howell on Dec. 2, 1904, in a seven-room farmhouse off NC 55 where the Peak Plaza is now located, which she shared with seven siblings and two parents. She is the last one living, though she was the sixth child born.

At that time, she helped her family farm, did her shopping on Salem Street (which then had shoe stores, furniture stores, and several drug stores along with many other shops), rode to Salem Baptist Church in a horse-drawn carriage, and after arriving there, sat on the women's side. At that time, she knew everyone in the church, many of whom have died since her childhood.

A big event in town was when the trains would arrive at the depot. "Young people would go up there and watch the trains unload," she said.

The lights and heat in her home were provided by a Delco plant, which used batteries and wires to run power from a shed in the yard. "We had to charge it every month," she said. "If the batteries got weak, the light would go weak." But there was a large Aladdin lamp to fall back on. "It had a good, round wick, and it gave good light."

The family had to draw its water from the well and go to the outhouse. "On wash days, drawing water was a job. We had to put on gloves when it was really cold," she recalls.

Besides tobacco, which was harvested on a tobacco stick in those days, the family had a large vegetable garden.

"You didn't have to buy anything except flour, sugar and salt," Holt recalled. "We also raised hogs and chickens, and had a cow for milk and butter."

She went to school, first at White Oak, and later at Apex High School, which was located in the building that now houses Apex Elementary. Her favorite subject was home economics.

Dr. Johnson got the first automobile in town, but her father got a Ford soon after that, "about the next one," she said.

She lived 21 years in that house until she got married and moved to Lillington for a year

Ninety-five-year-old Bertha Holt relaxes in her home in downtown Apex before moving to a farm in Fuquay-Varina. Her husband, Alton Holland, died about 20 years later, so she let the farm go. Her only child, Marie Holland, later died of a brain tumor at age 34. After her first husband's death, she got a job at Belks in Durham and lived there for more than 20 years. While in Durham, she met and married Bill Reid, a painter. Bill died in 1968 of leukemia, and she stayed on in Durham until marrying Raymond Holt, who she had known since her teenage years in Apex. They moved to a home on US

64 in Apex, which has since then been moved to make way for progress, this time the road widening.

In 1993, they moved into the house on Chatham Street, but Holt went into a nursing home and died in 1994 at the age of 88.

Holt said her present home is perfect. "The furniture all fit just right." She is proud of the fact that she still keeps house, reads the newspaper, and pays her own bills.

She has been actively fighting a cold to be well for her birthday party this weekend, which will be attended by her stepson, Joe Holt and his wife, Marie of Apex; their three children, Kelly and her husband Kevin Jones, Glenda Jo and husband Staley Smith, and David all of the Apex area, and two great-grandchildren; her stepdaughter, Patsy and husband, Vince Thompson of Green Level; and many nieces and nephews and friends.

DAVID S. REID

① Raleigh, NC - David S. Reid espoused the cause of western N.C. in the 1848 election for the governorship of NC and ran on a platform of free manhood suffrage under the Democratic banner. He was defeated by a majority of only 854 votes by Charles Manly, ^{a Whig} the first Wake County resident to serve as ~~the~~ Governor of NC. The narrow margin signaled the end of the Whig domination of politics in NC. (37, Pg 39).

FRANK REID

① A riot at Central Prison in Raleigh, NC in the mid-1880's disturbed the peace of mind of citizens. The Prison Director was the Reverend Frank Reid and he preferred ~~prayer~~ prayer to force as a means of quelling the rioters. (39, pg 90)

○ THE FAMOUS 1889 TRIAL OF EUGENE GRISSOM, SR - As Presented in Chapter 41 (Pg 417-431) of THE TAR HEEL EDITOR By JOSEPHUS DANIELS "J.D." - 1939. This Chapter is extracted here especially to record important Wake Co, NC names and because S. OTHO WILSON a resident of RAMCAT is referenced.

JD takes much credit for the downfall of Dr Gussom. That at his risk.

THE EVENT of 1889 which stood out conspicuously was the trial of Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, on charges preferred by John W. Thompson, Steward, and Dr. Sion Rogers, one of the physicians of the Institution. They charged Dr. Grissom with immorality with patients and female attendants, with cruelty to patients, and with graft. The publication of these charges shocked and surprised the bulk of the people who believed that Dr. Grissom was both a great alienist and a man of high character. He had received all the honors of the State Medical Association. He had delivered addresses before Medical Associations all over the country. A year or two before the charges were brought against him, Dr. Grissom connected himself with the Methodist Church. When the charges were made, he called upon the leaders of that church to stand by him. The editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, Rev. Dr. Frank L. Reid, believed in his innocence and came to his aid in his paper and denounced as slanderers those who had used what he called gossip to put a stain upon the reputation of a great man. In Raleigh Dr. Grissom had many friends. Every doctor in Raleigh except one or two were his partisans. He was a member of a leading drug firm of the city, and incidentally he had purchased most of the medicine and liquor used by the Asylum from that firm. It was charged that this made him guilty of graft.

PG 425:

At that time the Farmers' Alliance was holding meetings all over the State. The day after the meeting in the Metropolitan Hall, they were to hold a big meeting at Auburn. S. Otho Wilson, a leader of the Alliance, came to me that morning and said he wanted to introduce resolutions denouncing the Board and Grissom and asked me to write them for him. I did so and they were unanimously adopted by 2,000 Wake farmers. This was followed by like meetings in other parts of the State.

After the Civil War Dr Gussom came to the State Senate as a Republican of the Reconstruction Party. The Spoils System allowed GOV. W. W. HOLDEN to eject a Democrat and to name DR. GRISSOM as Superintendent of the N. C. Hospital for the Insane (ASYLUM). He was politically astute and survived through subsequent Democratic administrations of Gov Zebulon Vance, T. J. JARVIS & ALFRED M. SCALES. In 1884 he supported Scales, Democrat, for GOV over Dr Tye York. Daniels was against Gussom because he saw him slap an older Senator. John W. THOMPSON was steward of the Asylum & a member of the Watauga Club. He was unhappy with Gussom & said Dr. FRANK FULLER, Chief Asst. Physician, was responsible for all good work, Gussom being corrupt in Administration and in life. JW T said Dr Swan Rogers, Asst Physician, agreed with him. SPIER WHITAKER & A. M. WADELL presided Gussom with the Board of the Asylum sitting in judgement. Dr E. B. Burke Haywood was Board Chairman. Gussom's Council included: THOMAS G. FULLER, ex GOV THOMAS J. JARVIS, CHARLES M. COOKE of Franklin (County?), two sons of Dr E. B. Haywood [A. W. H &], ARMISTEAD JONES & T. P. DEVEREAUX. The trial, incidentally, revealed severe faults of DR SION ROGERS. The Board acquitted Dr Gussom on a split vote. There was an uproar over the acquittal as illustrated by the Farmers Alliance. Ex GOV HOLDEN came out of retirement to speak in favor of Gussom during the uproar but did him more harm than good. GOV DANIEL GOULD FOWLE, with advice of JD, reconstituted the Board adding OCTAVIUS COKE & JOHN B. BRADFORD of Fayetteville - Gussom got some of the new Board members drunk but they were recused by JOHN W. THOMPSON & A. D. JONES, Gussom blamed RICHARD H. SMITH. ALFRED D. JONES, a friend of JD heard Gussom trash JD on a Raleigh Street. JD also encountered ROBERT GILJUM GRISSOM, a s/o Dr Gussom and also EUGENE GRISSOM, JR when JR was an employee of U. S. DEPT. of INTERIOR when JD was Chief Clerk in 1873 & still there in WWI when JD was SEC USN in WWI at which time EUGENE GRISSOM, III came to see JD. Dr Gussom wanted to go to war but was killed but soon died. Years later JD was in CO & was escorted by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce whose wife was D/o Dr Gussom. She was very cordial.

MR. JERRY REID
25 S. MEADOWCLIFF CIRCLE
CARROLLTON, GA 30117

Dear Mr Reid,

As you will see from the enclosed material I am keenly interested in the entire extended Upchurch Family. For a time your mother was married to George Henderson Copeland who was the son of Alice Kate (Upchurch) Copeland. I am missing a few details on your mother and would appreciate any help you or she could give me here and my questions:

- 1) when was Jennie Mae Waldrop born?
- 2) where was Jennie Mae Waldrop born?
- 3) when in FEB 1975 did she marry George Henderson Copeland.

These are not critical details for Upchurch family history but I like to try for a complete record if possible. If you or your mother have any questions about Upchurch history I will try to provide answers.

Thanks.

Sincerely yours

Paul Upchurch

I. GEORGE JOHAN BANTHER

Δ G. SARAH ELIZABETH BANTHER - 2 BELOW 11 CHILDREN

- 11. SARAH ELIZABETH³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 18 Jan 1864 in Rutherford Co., NC. She died on 09 Jan 1941 in Transylvania Co., NC. She married Alfred Henry Owen, son of John Bishop Owen III and Malinda Reid, about 1881. He was born on 28 Dec 1844 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He died on 26 Dec 1926 in Lake Toxway, Transylvania Co., NC.

Notes for Sarah Elizabeth Banther:

1880 census: She was with Alfred.

1910 census: She was living with Alfred. She had had 12 children; 10 were living. 1940 census:

1940 census: She was widowed and living in Gloucester with her son Jesse Dillard's family.

Notes for Alfred Henry Owen:

According to Bonnie Waldier "My great grandfather, Alfred Henry OWEN, left Elizabeth (Betty) to raise the kids around 1879-80 (he was still there for the 1880 census) for Sarah Banther. He went to Virginia and started another big family. He stayed there until Betty Wood OWEN died, and then returned to NC. I have a copy of a letter that Alfred's mother, MELINDA REID OWEN sent to Alfred telling him that Betty was dying. I have always wondered if that is why Alfred killed himself. My grandfather, Tillman OWEN came west in 1907, and never got over any of it."

1850 census: living at home

1870 census: He was in Caney Fork, Jackson Co., NC.

1880 census: He was living in Gloucester, listed as 23, when he was surely 33.

1910 census: He was still in Gloucester, a farmer.

Alfred Henry Owen and Sarah Elizabeth Banther had the following children:

- i. Δ LAMBERT CLAYTON⁴ OWEN was born on 26 Apr 1882 in Transylvania Co., NC. He died on 06 Mar 1961 in SC. He married LIZZIE M. ELLENBURG.

Notes for Lambert Clayton Owen:

There is a C. L. Owen (1870-1929) in Whitmire Cemetery, Transylvania Co., NC.

- 16. ii. MARY MALINDA OWEN was born on 14 Jun 1886 in Transylvania Co., NC.
