This craftsman style house, remodeled in 2008, was originally a 1954 ranch. Gerald Truelove, an outstanding builder of the period, was employed by H. L. and Evelyn Tillerson to custom build the original house.

Gene and Wendy Allen purchased the house in 2006 from Mrs. Bertha Holt, and began an extensive remodeling project. The entire roof was removed so that a second story could be added. All of the hardwood floors on the first floor are original except for the kitchen area. The hardwood ceilings in the kitchen, breakfast nook, and laundry room are also original.

The back area of the house, which was originally a closed in porch, has been converted into a laundry room/sunroom. Off of the sunroom a powder room was added, and the front porch was expanded. Originally the house had only a carport, so the Allens decided against a garage and redesigned a carport which matched the new exterior.

People often ask the Allens, "Where is the old house?" To which they smile and reply, "It's still inside."

Floyd was expelled from Cary High in 10th grade over a School Bus Incident involving Eva Warner, also involved *Jack Truelove, *R. L. Bennett, *Billy Anley, Floyd + Stanley Anley [ = Expelled]. The argument was over saving seats. One of those involved boned Floyd's trunk. Floyd went to Acapord, NC to school 1 year - but then back to Cary - but dropped out.

Note: At the Cary High Reunion on 4 MAY 2007 I mentioned the above to Eva Warner. She did not seem to recall it. David Martin overheard the conversation and said he thought Floyd was expelled for fighting with him. Perhaps this was Floyd's second "event" - RPA

I think I have just located Mary Elizabeth Wilson U. (wife of James Benj.) on the 1870 Harnett Co. census. There is a Mary E. Wilson age 13 living with the family of Sim/Simon Truelove. The age is a little off but the family lives near the family of James. They were married by the 1880 census. I am now trying to find if this was my great-grandmother and what the connection to the family was. Her mother Sarah is not listed with household.
