(1) Joseph Upchurch was son of George Upchurch – 1790 Upchurch Progenitor per (29)

Joseph Upchurch born 8-10-1800 NC died circa 1865. Joseph married 3-2-1823 Jane Crouch. At an early age, Joseph began acquiring land, most of which fell into Tennessee later. He bought 50 acres on Rotten's Fork in Wayne Co, KY for $10, part of the Kentucky Land Act, passed in the year 1815, called the Land Distribution Act. This Act offered land for $20 per 100 acres. This part of KY fell into TN in 1823 and Joseph became known as Tennessee Joe. The year also happened to coincide with the year of his marriage.

Joseph Upchurch was a fair-minded citizen of Fentress County and a kind father and husband. He was public spirited and was soon called for civic duty. He served on juries, was a Justice of the Peace, his name on many of the marriages of Fentress County gave those marriages a head start. The Upchurch Cemetery at Pall Mall was set aside by Joseph. One of the graves in the center of the cemetery is the grave of Joseph Upchurch. A simple rock, uninscribed, marks his grave. This land is his land and ever shall be.

END OF JOSEPH A & FAMILY

CROUCH, EDWARD FAMILY

Edward Crouch and his wife, Margaret, were the parents of James B. Crouch (1763) who with his wife Martha (Patey) Evans (1751) daughter of Thomas Evans, migrated across the Smokey Mountains from Virginia about 1798 into new territory that was to become Kantucky and Tennessee. Their first san William (Billy) Crouch (October 14, 1795-August 15, 1868) would have been about three years old as he was born in Virginia. Jim bought lands in the beautiful valleys and foothills of the Cumberlands and raised a family of three boys and three girls (if others, no records have been found).

Billy grew up and married Elizabeth (1797-1871). Her maiden name is not on census records nor on her grave marker. He acquired much land and many Negro slaves, and built a prosperous plantation. The mainhouse for that time. They had no children of their own, but welramed relatives, nearly always having some of their nephews or nieces waiting there.

When his brother John Wesley and wife Rinabeth died in Missouri leaving nine didren, Billy took 10 year old "Wash" to live with them. Brought him up like his own son, beaching and training him carefully. He sppointed him to be administrator of his state and to see that Elizabeth was provided in her lifetime and buried properly beside tim in the cametery he had set aside for the laves who had died in his service and for thers too. Billy and Elizabeth's graves have built up limestone about the size of a casket with a solid slab atop on which their names and dates are chiseled in the Rocky River Cemetery, Pall Mall, Tennessee: Billy Drouch October 14, 1785 - August 8, 1868 and Elizabeth, wife of Billy 1797-1871.

Other bits of stories passed down by word of mouth relating to Billy Crouch. William Marion Johnson as told to Daily Crouch. One Negro boy was assigned to going to the mill have corn ground into meal and wheat into lour). Mr. Marion looked forward to every thance he had to ride back up to Uncle Billy's with that little Negro boy. William Marion's ister, Julia Ann recalled the social entertainnents at Uncle Billys. She related how before he Civil War she was there at a ball (large ormal gathering for dancing). Guesta had idden in from the area round about. Their torses had been hitched outside surrounding he part of the house where they were lancing. The neighings and stamping of torses hooves interrupted the merry-making. In going outside, a large wild stallion had ome down out of the forested mountains and vas trying to steal the mares and horses. She old that everyone just stood there until Ben Benjamin) Barton seized a large sapplin' and trandished it defiantly before that wild torse, driving him off before they lost their iorses. (I dare say some of those other fellows elped with same gun shots into the air.)

The Bertram Negro family who lived in Fentress County on through WW I and into the early or mid-twenties. The mother claimed descendancy from one of Billy Crouch's alaves. Her son "Kudge" is remembered as a fine talented fiddle player. He served from Fentress County in WW I in France.

"The 8th day of April, 1869 Jane Upchurch her Bill of Complaint in the Chancery Court at Jamestown, Tennessee against Elizabeth Crouch, Martin Crouch, Mark Ginnings, Anna Ginnings, James Kidd, Martha Kidd, Elias H. Crouch, George W. Crouch, Adm. of William Crouch deed, Alfred Jones, Mary Jones, James K. Redman, Margaret Redman, Stokley Crabtree and Elizabeth Crabtree, all residents of this state and Alexander Rich. Elizabeth Rich, Anna Cypress, James Evans, Nancy Evans, David F. Crouch, John R. Morgan, Elvira M. Morgan, Timothy Bock, Sarah Buck non-residents of the state" (claiming he died intestate in 1868, leaving the above - complainants and defendants his only beirs.) They asked for a sale of certain real estate and distributions of proceeds to residents and non-residents. Agreement was worked out that the widow Elizabeth be given 'dower.' The court did settle the complaint by selling the land to the highest bidder after setting the minimum price of eight hundred dollars, three hundred dollars cash in hand. The court describes the property as lying to the right prong and the left prong of Bottens Fork, with a lane leading from the head of Mrs. Crouch's lane to the Monticello Road, said lane to be kept open one rod wide for property owners use. (The purchasers were Stokely Crabtree and H.W. Williams.")

The below information is taken from the Registers Office records in Jamestown, Tennessee. Martin and John Wesley's ten children, their sister Jane Crouch Upchurch are listed as heirs. The others I am as yet searching for their line of heritage. Could the Nancy Evans have been the "missing" former Mrs. Silas Upchurch? I cannot know why Martha Crouch Campbell is not asking for her share of the real estate sales.

UPCHURCH FAMILY

The Upchurch family of Travisville and Forbus are descendants of Michael Upchurch, who came from England to Virginia about 16511. One of their ancestors, George Upchurch, was a soldier of the Revolutionary War and was at Valley Forge under General George Washington. The Upchurches came to the Pickett area soon after 1800. From that time on they have contributed to the history of the area. Joseph Upchurch was a member of the Fentress County Court in 1843; George Washington Upchurch was a deputy Fentress clerk in 1856; Drewry and Henderson Upchurch fought for the Union under Captain "Tinker" Dave Beatty in the Civil War; Grady Upchurch (1902-65) was tax assessor of Pickett and was a member of the Pickett County Court at his death.

Marion Upchurch was twice elected sheriff of Pickett County. Ruble Upchurch (1903-), son of Gregg and Freely Ann Crabtree Upchurch, with a BS from T.P.I. and a MS from U. T., has spent his life in teaching and supervising the Fentress County Schools. Ruble has now retired and hopes he can spend his time doing historical research on Pickett and Fentress Counties.

Kentucky Land Warrants:

In 1815 the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act relative to land distribution, and the records written in fulfillment of this statute are now known as Kentucky Land Warrants, 1816-1873. These grants consist of forty-three books and 25,621 grants. The Act of the General Assembly governing this group of grants opened for sale, at $20.00 per 100 acres, all the vacant lands to anyone in Kentucky, except an alien. The method followed was similar to that originally employed by Virginia, the purchaser securing receipt from the State Treasurer which was in turn converted into a land office warrant, authorizing the owner to locate and survey a certain acreage. When this had been completed and returned to the land office, it was registered and a land patent was issued to the owner within about six months. This law, however, did not apply to lands west of the Tennessee River.

Grants west of Tennessee River

Following the acceptance of the treaty drawn by Andrew Jackson and Isaac Shelby with the Chickasaw Indians in 1818 and approved by Congress in 1819, the United States became the possessor of all lands lying between the Tennessee and Mississippi rivers in what is now both Kentucky and Tennessee. The Kentucky portion, oddly enough, became known as the Jackson Purchase and embraces McCracken, Ballard, Carlisle, Hickman, Fulton, Graves, Marshall and Calloway Counties. These lands were opened up for settlement in 1820, the General Assembly appointing a surveyor to lay off this great boundary into sections and townships—a very fortunate provision. The records of this group has thus come to be known as Grants West of the Tennessee River, and are to be found in eleven volumes from 1822 to 1858. They compromise 8,713 grants.

Grants South of Walker's Line

A small group of grants known as the Grants South of Walker's Line were issued from 1825 to 1923. They are located as their title suggests, "South of Walker's Line," and north of the parallel 36 degrees and 30 minutes, a line which was accurately established in 1819 by Robert Alexander and Luke Munsell, following legislative appointment. Dr. Walker in running his line for the southern boundary of Kentucky in 1779-80 failed to establish the true parallel of 36 degrees and 30 minutes, his line falling variously from six to ten miles north of the true parallel. Since the old Walker line had been established as the southern boundary of Kentucky and covers a considerable distance, it will be seen that the lands indicated in these grants were really in Tennessee. To settle the matter, an agreement was reached in 1820 by the Commissioners selected by the Kentucky and Tennessee, in furtherance of which Kentucky was given the right to issue grants for all of the territory lying north of parallel 36 degrees and 30 minutes and east of the Tennessee River.
