Ex-husband charged in delivering bomb to family

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

Agents arrested Charles Paul Hickman Verna, 43, of the Franklin County community of Social Plains, on Thursday, Jan. 12, and charged him with possession of a bomb that was found near his ex-wife's car in Zebulon nine days earlier.

The bomb, described as a device of lethal destruction, consisted of a small liquor bottle packed with black gun powder, complete with multi-colored wires and four nine volt batteries.

On the morning of Jan. 3, (as reported in the Zebulon Record last week) Patricia Verna's son found a package next to his mother's car. After Ms. Verna saw the box-enclosed bomb — which she originally thought was a Christmas present — she took the bomb to work with her to Oxford. It was only after she returned home that she called the Zebulon Police Department.

Investigators say Ms. Verna and her children are "very lucky" the bomb did not explode, because it did have the potential to do so.

Assisting Zebulon in its investigation of the incident were agents from the State Bureau of Investigation, the City-County Bureau of Identification and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

The case was turned over to ATF and it made the arrest because construction or possession of a bomb is a federal violation. Investigators were led to Verna after his fingerprints were found on the explosive device.

ATF is continuing its investigation. It has not been revealed why Verna would allegedly leave such a deadly device for his ex-wife and children to find.

According to Zebulon Detective Darryl Wright, Verna claims he is innocent. Ms. Verna has told police that while she and her husband was separated, he would threatening messages on her answering machine.

Verna has a criminal record, having served time for breaking and entering. In 1992, he pled guilty to kidnapping after he abducted a man at gunpoint in a fight over a girlfriend.

○ Extract of item provided to RPU via email 6 JUN 2011 by [△]Kenn L. Hicks. The article concerns the various locations of [△] MOUNT OLIVET BAPTIST Church in Wake Co., NC. The article has been archived in the Bioguide of [△] Rev HUGH CONWAY U, 1890-1972 who was a major force in this church. He is s/o Matthew Robert U of the Messer U / Murray U subclass - Isham Lewis U line.

The church was first on Reedy Creek Rd where its first cemetery is still preserved. The Grandparents of Kenn & some of his other relatives are buried there.

Founded in 1890 the church was forced to close during WWI as the US preempted the land for an ordnance camp. HCU facilitated a reopening on 3 JAN 1926 & was called as Pastor in 1928. The church relocated to Blue Ridge Road in 1940's on land donated by Mrs [△] JOE COOK. In the 1950's [△] MARY ESTELLE DOYLE gave more land.

It also relocated in 1971 and again in 1982 to its present site at 3500 Edwards Mill Rd. Rev [△] TOM VESTAL became pastor in 1979. Reedy Creek Rd = SR 1650
