Grissom, Price united in marriage

Eileen Marie Price of Zebulon and Vernon Lynn Grissom of Kittrell were united in marriage April 22 at Sacred Heart Cathedral in Raleigh. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Michael P. Shugrue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Price Jr. of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon W. Grissom Jr. of Kittrell.

The bride's grandmother is Lina Bell Price of Wendell. Her grandfather is Bill Vogel of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and schiffli embroidery. The beaded schiffli embroidered lace bodice featured a V-neckline outlined in matching lace, short puff sleeves adorned with butterfly bows and pearl clusters, a basque waistline and a gathered satin skirt augmented with lace motifs and bows, which extended to a cathedral-length train. Her headpiece featured a band of white flowers, baby's breath and pearls with a fingertip-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white and peach roses and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Kim Driver of Wilson as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Tracy Wiggins of Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom; Vanessa Wiggins of Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom; Beth Laneve of Raleigh; and Donna Richards of Zebulon.

The attendants wore formal peach taffeta gowns.

Nicholas Santucci of Knightdale was the ring bearer and Crystal Tuck, cousin of the bridegroom, served as flower girl.

The bridegroom wore a charcoal-gray tuxedo with tails, a black bow tie and black cummerbund.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Jay Grissom of Henderson, brother of the bridegroom; Tony Wiggins of Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom; Floyd Price III of Zebulon, brother of the bride; and Jared

The bride is a graduate of East Wake High School and Atlantic Christian College. She is a registered nurse at Wilson Memorial Hospital. Her husband is a graduate of Vance Senior High School and is employed by Roses Stores Inc. of Henderson.

After a wedding trip to Walt Disney World in Florida, the couple will make their home in Henderson.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the couple was entertained at a reception at the Holiday Inn North in Raleigh. Hosting the affair were the bride's parents.

Covered with a white linen cloth, the bride's table held a four-tiered wedding cake. Other refreshments included turkey and dressing, roast beef, scalloped potatoes, Mexican corn, hot rolls, tossed salad, fruit salad, carrot salad, potato salad, three-bean salad, tea, ice cream, champagne and apple cider.

Rehearsal dinner

The bridegroom-elect's parents entertained the bridal couple-elect, their attendants and family members at an after-rehearsal dinner in the fellowship hall of Wake Cross Roads Baptist Church. The bridal couple-elect was presented a "name poem" by the bridegroom-elect's parents.

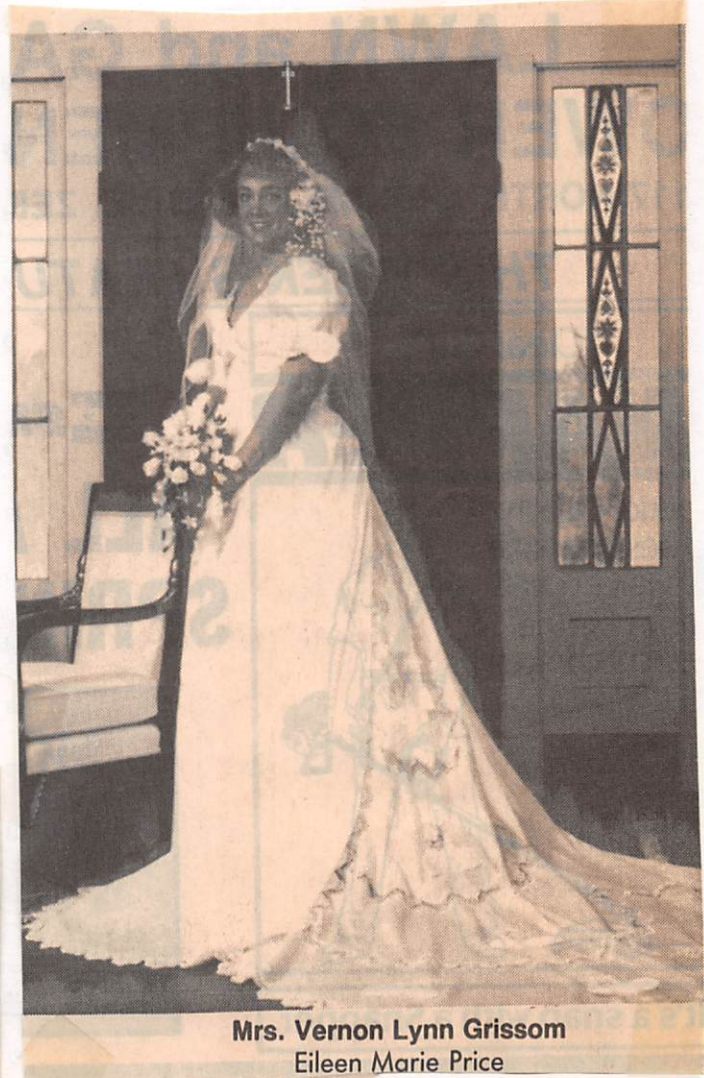

The bride- and bridegroom-elect took this occasion to remember their attendants with gifts.

Price of Zebulon, brother of the bride.

A basket of assorted spring flowers graced the altar and white satin bows marked the family pews. A unity candle was also used.

Wedding music was presented by Annette Bandy, vocalist, and Craig Barfield, organist.

Stephen Santucci of Knightdale and Bernie Nalesnik of Lehigh, Pa., read passages in the ceremony. Rachel Price of Wendell and Tori Riddle of Raleigh directed the wedding. Wendy Lawrence of Raleigh registered the guests.

Volunteer Work To Continue

FORMER HABITAT FOR HUMANITY EMPLOYEE TO KEEP LENDING A HELPING HAND

By Scott Smith

TIMES RECORD • SSMITH@SWTIMES.COM

It's going to be extremely hard for Terry Upchurch to stay away from work, even though she retired Thursday.

The 71-year-old Fort Smith resident spent the final hours as volunteer coordinator for the Arkansas Valley Habitat for Humanity office shaking hands and giving hugs and smiles to her co-workers, friends and fellow volunteers during a reception in her honor at Central Presbyterian Church. Upchurch, who graduated from St. Anne's Academy and received a bachelor's degree in zoology at the University of Arkansas, worked for Habitat as a volunteer for eight years before working six years as an employee.

Busy office work has kept her away from painting and other duties on the program's construction sites, but now with some free time, Upchurch promises to continue — literally — lending a helping hand.

TERRY UPCHURCH

What exactly was your job at Habitat For Humanity?

My job (was) to get people from other areas nationally to come in and help us build homes for the working poor. We are a worldwide program that builds houses from the ground up for people. There's a $250 monthly house payment once the home is built. But we don't like to call them clients. We call them God's people in need.

How did you get involved with Habitat For Humanity?

A friend here invited me to a meeting back when the program started here in 1989. I can't remember his name exactly, but he asked me to attend the get-together.

What has been the best part about your job?

Oh, helping the people and the dedication of the homes. That's the most fun of all. We have most of the people involved in the construction there, and we present the family or person with a hammer and a new Bible because we are a Christian-based organization. And working with the City of Fort Smith. They and Mayor Baker have been so good working with us.

How will you like retirement?

I told my children I won't know what to do. (Laughs) I'll still volunteer here and help out.

Do you have any hobbies?

I love knitting. I'll knit sweaters, hats and stuff. I've been doing that since I was 10-years old. And I like spending time with the grandkids.

Are you a fan of music?

I love music. I love anything. (Whispers) Except opera. (Laughs) I do like a lot of different music. Blues is my favorite. I'll probably go to the Fort Smith Riverfront Blues Festival this year. I've gone before.

What about movies?

I was raised on movies. I just got a movie book from Hobby Lobby.

What was it like growing up in Fort Smith?

It was great. The perfect years. I was raised downtown in the Ward Hotel by my father, Frank Volker.

What are the biggest changes you've seen since then?

Computers. Gosh! (Laughs) You know, my age grew up during charmed times. Everyone was patriotic and there were no drugs to speak of. It was such a wonderful time.

IF THERE IS SOMEONE WITH WHOM YOU'D LIKE TO SPEND 15 MINUTES, PLEASE ALERT FEATURES EDITOR TINA DALE AT TDALE@SWTIMES.COM OR P.O. BOX 1359, FORT SMITH, AR 72902.

 & 1405 WILLARD OTIS VOYLES "Bill"

Willard Otis "Bill" Voyles

Notes

Willard "Bill" Voyles was a wonderful man, he was well liked by everyone. He farmed in the Wellington area for 30 yrs. He moved to Wellington where he was Water Commissioner many years, he also worked with his brothers in heavy construction equipment. He loved the "Cubbies", Chicago Cubs, baseball team.

He was active in his childrens 4 H activities and encouraged them to do well in school and their chosen careers. He was proud of them and they of their father. Bill became ill very suddenly, after several surgery's he was transferred to Champaign, Il. in the Mercy Hospital. Efforts to save his life became futile, Bill died there, 7 February 1993. He was cremated and wanted to have his ashes placed in Florida, where he and Marge had gone several years for the winters. Her sister Marlene and her husband Herbert Voyles, (brother of Willard) also had lived in Bronson, on the same property as their brother, Charles Everett "Bud" Miller, (Herb. died 8 May 1988 in Danville, Ill.) Marge didn't like Florida and the children did not want their father so far from them. And luckily this turned out best, as brother Bud moved back to Hoopston, Il. with his wife Ruby. Sister Marlene married again 15 July 1997 in Pennsylvania to Forrie Romig, who she had met in Florida, they were great golfers. Forrie soon became ill and died in Feb. 1998 from cancer. Marlene still lives in Florida and her son Dennis Voyles, lives on property near where Bud, Marlene and Marge and Bill lived. He is an Ag teacher at High school there. His wife Karen is a reporter for local newspaper and weather reporter for local TV station. They have a daughter Annie named for her grandmother Anna Clementine Bell-Miller-Trent. Marge and Bill's son Randy is an Ag teacher and Coach at High School in Royalton, Minn.

His wife Becky is a nurse and now is employed in a Radiology Clinic in Royalton. Their son Aaron is in College in Minneapolis as a Business Major. His sister Ellen (named for great grandmother, Georgia Ellen Upchurch) is in college in North Dakota, where she is studying to be an Ag teacher, she has always loved animals and is following in her father's footsteps. Susan Voyles, dau. of Marge and Bill, was a school teacher and her husband John Romine was a College Professor, they both retired early and have traveled the Country, extensively, being in the North in summer and in the South in winters. I proudly take credit for getting John interested in genealogy and he has done a great job on his family, and he loves it! We spent several hours this winter discussing our research. Karen, dau. of Marge and Bill, was married first to John Weymouth, who she met while in the United States Air Force, they had a son Lance Weymouth, who lives in Texas and I hear he is getting married this year. Karen's second marriage to Harold Rottschafer, 24 December 1979, no children. Harold is a Dist. Manager of sales for an Auto Parts Co. and he does a lot of traveling in his business He also has a "Stable" of restored and they are beautiful! Karen's current job is in the banking field. She is a computer expert who travels to other banks to solve their problems. She was also caretaker for her mother, Marge, after Bill died, Marge had medical problems that meant she couldn't be alone so Sue and Karen decided she would be better off near Karen, Sue and John were there often.
