 [Prepared by June for M<sup>c</sup>Dowell Co, WV Heritage Book]

My maternal grandparents, Cicero and Docia Wagner† were North Carolina natives who lived most of their lives in McDowell County, moving into the area from Sparta NC about 1902-3. They lived first in Buchanan County, but soon purchased their home on Brushy Fork Ridge in McDowell County. They were "peddlers", raising and selling fruit and vegetables from a horse-drawn wagon.

Grandpa† left his first family of children in North Carolina when he† and Grandma brought their first-born son and followed her parents, Leander and Nancy Wyatt, to West Virginia. His† first wife, Sarah Billings, bore him eight children and died when their youngest child was about 13 years old. He† was 49 years old and Grandma was 21 when they married on October 10, 1900. I can barely remember Grandpa† he† died in June 1939 when I was nearly five years old, but I have many sweet memories of my Grandma who lived with us until she died in August 1942. Grandma was soft spoken, gentle, and kind. She loved to work in the garden and with her flowers and she liked to wear soft colors. I remember that my mother picked a tiger lily from the yard (Grandma had brought these lilies from North Carolina) and put it in Grandma's hand before she was buried.

Grandma and Grandpa† had eight children: Henry Monroe born 30 August 1901 in NC; Grace Elizabeth born 21 September 1902 in VA (married Dewey Horn); Della Mae born 26 April 1904 (married W. P. "Bill" Horn); Garfield Lushion born 5 Oct 1906; Dewey Admiral born 5 October 1907; Virgie Ellen born 18 Mar 1909 (married Clarence Payne); Floy Veala born 24 July 1915 (married Johnny Horn) and Maggie Lee born 8 Jul 1918 (married Luther Horn). All the Horn men were cousins so the Horns and Wagners became forever entwined. Only Aunt Floy and my mother, Maggie, are living now and none of the spouses are living. Forty-four of the fifty-one grandchildren are still living.

The log house where the Wagners lived in the hollow on Brushy Ridge was still standing when I was a youngster, but it's been gone a long time now. There were apple, cherry, peach and pear trees there at one time, also, and the cellar was still there, cool and quiet. A small stream meandered down in front of what had once been the yard and there was still water in it when my brother, Huey, fell out of the pear tree when he was about ten years old. We carried fruit from those trees and from the gooseberry bushes for a lot of years. I used to sit under the "horse" apple tree and try to imagine Grandma picking up apples to make apple butter like my mother told me she did.

Grandma's tiger lilies still grow in my flower garden and the descendants of the two families of Cicero are now united in a family re-union each September.

And the name was spelled Wagoner in NC, probably Waggoner in the beginning. When Grandpa came to VA/WV, he dropped the "o" - I don't know why. His descendants from his first marriage (there are a great many of them, lots in NC) still use the "o" and one of them was married to an Upchurch - I just remembered that - they are divorced (have been for a long time) and I've tried to get some info on Shelda Jean's ex-husband's family from her - so far, have had no success.

Article she wrote for McDowell Co, WV Heritage Book

Garfield Leander Wyatt and Nancy Elizabeth Upchurch were married 22 Jul 1877 in Alleghany County NC. My grandmother, Docia Wyatt Wagner, was their oldest daughter and remained in NC when they came to Buchanan County VA about 1899 in a covered wagon. My Uncle Tom said he was about five years old and could remember the trip. Grandpa Wyatt died before I was born; I can barely remember Grandma who died when I was six. They were called "Uncle Lee and Aunt Nan" and I'm told Grandma was a very outspoken lady while Grandpa was content to let her be. My mother remembers going to visit her grandparents on the Estep Ridge and that Grandma Wyatt made the best cornbread she ever tasted. They were active members in the Primitive Baptist Church.

I'm not sure when the Wyatts moved to the top of Bradshaw Mountain, but it was in the early 1900s. They came from NC to find work; Grandpa worked in timber and was a builder. A log church on which he worked still stands at Hale Creek in Buchanan County.

Grandma and Grandpa Wyatt had nine children, all born in NC; most of them reared their families in McDowell County. Fred married Elizabeth "Bug" Vance and after she died, married her sister, Oma; my grandmother, Docia, married Cicero Wagner in NC and followed her parents to WV in about 1902; Cicero married Orley Atwood in NC; Rozzie married Gordon Riffe in VA; Mattie married William W Vance; Thomas married Millie Horn (my dad's sister); and I don't have any further information on John Wesley or Sarah.

Grandma and Grandpa Wyatt are buried in the Vance Cemetery at Paynesville along with at least two of their children.

LUTHER NMN HORN

On 14 June 1933, on the "walk" in front of her parents' home, a timid 14 year old became the bride of a 23 year old logger. Preacher Newt Horn performed the ceremony; my mother wore a $3.00 dress purchased for her by my dad who was working for $1.00 a day. Daddy stood 6' tall and mother is about 5'11" - I wish we had a picture of them on their wedding day.

Maggie Lee Wagner, daughter of Cicero and Docia Wyatt, turned fifteen on July 8 after she married Luther Horn, son of Cammil and Mary Elizabeth Lester. This marriage lasted almost 61 years until Daddy died on 22 April 1994. Granny Horn delivered seven children to mother and daddy: I'm the oldest: June Victoria, born 29 June 1934, married James R Brown; Huey Lushion, born 10 Dec 1935, married Dorothy Bishop; Jewell, born 7 June 1938, married George Cook; Lowell Roger, born 4 May 1940, married June Baker; Violet, born 13 May 1943, married James A Mills and Roger Boothe; Randall, born 24 November 1946, married Jacqueline Barnhart and Deborah Sue Davis; Steve, born 26 April 1949, married Judy Burroughs. There were twenty grandchildren; nineteen survive and there are presently twenty great grandchildren.

Mother and Daddy went to live in the upstairs part of Granny and Grandpap Horn's house after they were married until Daddy finished their house in November. Mother says it wasn't really finished when they moved in, but it was "livable." There were four rooms originally and Daddy kept building as the family increased. Mother still lives in the house, which has changed considerably since it's beginning.

Daddy was a master carpenter - he retired from Olga Coal Company in 1972. He used to build coffins for people and Mother lined them with white satin. Granny's sister, Aunt "T", insisted that Daddy build her coffin so she could see it before she died. I can remember some absolutely beautiful work and watching Daddy sand the wood lovingly until it was just like he wanted it. I can also remember getting punished for driving Daddy's nails into the ground in a pattern and loving to play with the wood shavings from his work. Lots of Daddy's work remains to be enjoyed, including his own house and the remodeling of mine. Two of his four sons became carpenter/cabinet maker/builders. Daddy served in World War II in Europe. He was 33 years old when he left mother and five children at home to do what he considered his duty. Daddy had a great deal of respect for his country's flag and would always stand at attention when it was displayed. He was extremely patriotic; a generous neighbor; a diehard Republican; a convinced Primitive Baptist; and a much loved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Mother has always been the most tender, touching, loving person! She sewed dresses for me from the sleeves of her own dresses when I was tiny and she continued to sew for us until we were grown. This was in addition to helping raise a vegetable garden to feed us all and working in the fields along with Daddy, as well as milking the cow, churning the butter, canning the vegetables and preserving the butchered meat. Mother let me "help" her with the canning when I had to stand on a chair. She and Daddy both loved to read and instilled that love in every one of their children. Mother also taught us nursery rhymes and folk songs; she loves music and still likes to hear any of us try to sing. Even with arthritic fingers, she makes grapevine wreaths and other "crafty" items for her family and she has made treasured family photograph albums for all her children. Her "green thumb" is legend; flowers will grow for her anytime and anywhere. Mother still makes her own herbal cough medicine - she was taught by her mother and her mother-in-law. She shared Daddy's religious and political views and frequently writes or phones county, state, and national officials to voice her opinions on various subjects. Until recently Mother was a dedicated poll worker at election times. She enjoys neighbors and friends and is a particularly caring mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. "Her children shall rise up and call her blessed."

McDowell County can boast of no finer or more loyal citizens than my parents!

Dear Marilee,

It is with a heavy heart that I take up my pen to acknowledge your letter of January 17, and the message that Jim has left us. As I read the eulogy to him I was overcome with emotion. I know you must be proud of the great respect with which he was regarded by his peers. I have never met Jim in person but came to know him through his letters. He had a keen interest in his heritage and I like to think that our exchanges made his last few years more interesting.

I will send the 1986 epshuch Bulletin to you or to whatever address you may provide. I plan to mention his passing in the next issue. If at any time you have details on the family you would like to send along they would be most welcome. If you happen to identify another member of the family who would be willing to correspond this would be welcome also.

I am aware that you married Jim only a few years ago. You must have been a great comfort to him as he faced life's battles and complexities. Let me thank you for serving as partner Jim. On behalf of all the members of the extended Upchurch family I can say that we are proud of the role that Jim played in life.

Perhaps someday we shall meet. I will be giving a talk on the Upchurch Family when I visit Raleigh, NC later this month. If this works out well I may give talks in other parts of the country in the years ahead. Eventually, we hope to move back to the St Louis, MO area. We have two children who have settled there and just last month we bought a small farm west of St Louis.

May you have peace and good fortune.

Sincerely yours
 Phil Upchurch

Wagoner has a multitude of friends, as L.D. Wagoner has befriended many. He is known throughout for his kindness and consideration for others."

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, January 1, 2002, at 11:00 a.m. in First Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. Jeff Porter will officiate. Burial will be in the Hillsborough Town Cemetery.
