SILAS UPCHURCH.

Silas Upchurch, a successful representative of mercantile interests in Nowata county, has for the past sixteen years been actively engaged in the conduct of a general store at Glenoak, on the Bartlesville-Nowata road. He comes to Oklahoma from Illinois, his birth having occurred near Mount Sterling, in Brown county of the latter state, on the 26th of November, 1857. His parents, Sion and Phoebe (Briggs) Upchurch, were both natives of North Carolina and are now deceased. The father devoted his attention to general agricultural pursuits throughout his active business career.

Silas Upchurch obtained his education in Illinois schools and after putting aside his textbooks turned his attention to the work of the fields. It was about 1889, when a young man of thirty-two years, that he made his way to Oklahoma, locating ten miles north-east of Nowata, where he cultivated a farm of three hundred acres for ten years. On the expiration of that period he took up his abode near Independence, Kansas, where he followed agricultural pursuits for two years and then returned to Oklahoma, settling in Washington county. Through the succeeding six years he devoted his attention to the operation of a farm on Hogshooter creek, after which he disposed of the property and removed to his present location at Glenoak, on the Bartlesville-Nowata road, where he has conducted a general merchandise establishment during the past sixteen years, the oil men and farmers of the vicinity according him an extensive trade. He erected and owns the store in which the business is carried on and has a stock valued at about fourteen thousand dollars. The prosperity which has come to him in this connection is well merited, for in the conduct of his interests he displays the utmost integrity and reliability and does everything in his power to please his patrons.

In 1879, in Joplin, Missouri, Mr. Upchurch was joined in wedlock to Miss Mary E. Walker, a native of Indiana, and they are the parents of two sons and one daughter. William Anderson, who is forty-one years of age, married Miss Lucy Mallix, a native of Illinois, and has one child, Gilda Bell. John Richard, thirty-eight years of age, wedded Miss May Anderson, a native of Kansas, and they have a daughter, Mildred. Cynthia Belle is the wife of William Earl Rector and the mother of one child. Mr. Upchurch is well known and highly esteemed throughout the community in which he makes his home, having long ranked with the successful merchants and representative citizens of northeastern Oklahoma.

MS NORA ALICE WALKER
481 BROOK AVE
TOOLE, UT 84074

Dear Ms Walker,

As you can see from the enclosed flyer I am keenly interested in the Upchurch family. A correspondent of mine, Donald Eugene Upchurch, has given me your name and address. It indicates that you are related to his branch of the family but he does not say how. Donald belongs to a branch of the Upchurch family which traces back to David Philip Upchurch born about 1811. We have not been able to get connection to earlier generations.

Could you drop me a line to show how you are connected to the Upchurch family. Also I would welcome any suggestions you might have on David Philip Upchurch born about 1811. I now extensive files on all Upchurch generations in America starting with Michael Upchurch the original immigrant. Sooner or later we hope to find connections for David Philip Upchurch.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

Eighth annual Christmas homes tour set Dec. 4 in downtown Apex historic district

The Apex Historical Society proudly presents its eighth annual Christmas Homes Tour, and invites everyone to attend on Sunday, Dec. 4 from 1 to 5 p.m. to experience the wonderful ambience of Historic Apex. Tickets are $5 each, available at the door of any of the tour homes or at Victorian Seasons (221 N. Salem Street) where refreshments will be served. For additional information, call Pat Shankle at 362-1072 or Mary Bondos at 362-5066.

The A.G. Bell-Bryant house at 207 South Salem Street in downtown Apex was constructed in 1890 for Adolphus George Bell by his foster mother, Partenia Tarwick. His descendants resided in this home until 1977. It was later occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bell's youngest son, Alexander Graham Bell, and his wife, Ruby Walker Bell. Alexander Graham Bell was better known to Apex residents as "Preacher."

The original floor plans of the house have been maintained with a few exceptions, which include the addition of a family room in the back portion of the house and the replacement of the front porch. It is one of several Apex homes listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

The current owners, Ralph and Sandy Bryant and their children, Samantha and Jordan, are committed to maintaining the historical integrity of the A.G. Bell home. Traditional holiday decorations are a highlight of this featured home; and showcasing them offers the Bryants an opportunity to entertain friends during the holiday season. Seasonal gatherings, such as those at Christmas, represent one of the many times the Bryants open their home to guests and friends throughout the year.

A.G. Bell-Bryant house dates to 1890.

WALKER

Western Wake Herald WED 12 AUG 1972 Apex, NC

Before going back to N.C. State this fall, Troy Walker spent several days at Ocean Drive, S. C. with his mother, Vernell Walker, his grandmother, Ruby Sexton and friend, Natalie. While there they saw friends that they had not seen 1963. The Atkinsons from the Bells community were staying next door, and this was not planned.

VALMA

WALKER

FROM: JARVIS WESLEY PERRY SR 2007 BOOK BY:
NED KLAPP PERRY, SR - PG 22, 23

- △ 17. EMMA LASTER "LAS"⁹ PERRY (WESLEY B.⁸, WILLIS⁷, JOHN "SPECK"³⁶, JEREMIAH¹⁵, PHILLIP⁴, PHILLIP³, PHILLIP², RICHARD¹) was born 22 Nov 1858 in Franklin Co, N C, and died 23 Aug 1933 in Franklin Co, N C. He married MATTIE FLORENCE PEARCE 03 Feb 1891 in Franklin Co, N C, daughter of MOSE PEARCE and FRANCES. She was born 24 Aug 1875 in Franklin Co, N C, and died 13 Mar 1940 in Franklin Co, N C.

Notes for EMMA LASTER "LAS" PERRY:

Emma Laster Perry, nicknamed "Las" inherited the family homestead and remained there until his death. "Las" was 32 years old and Mattie was 15 1/2 or 16 years old when they got married. Las and Mattie raised five foster children, and three of their own children.

- △ 1-Lillie Pearce (Mattie's sister),
- △ 2-Willie Pearce (Mattie's brother),
- △ 3-Lonie Pearce (Mattie's brother) (Lonie was called "Loanie"),
- △△ 4-Valma Walker (was her real name, but she was known as Valma Perry throughout her lifetime)

(Valma[↑] was Mattie's niece, Valma[↑] was the daughter of Bertie Pearce Walker.

(Bertie, Valma's mother died at Valma's[↑] birth or very soon thereafter), and

- △ 5-Joe Collis no relationship to the family. He was from the state of Conn.

Joe left a very bad home environment and came to NC to live when he was a young man.

As the years passed Las added much to his estate and at the time of his death was among the highest tax payers in Dunn's Township, Franklin County, North Carolina. He also had approximately 300 acres in Wake County.

Las and Mattie are buried in the Perry Family Cemetery, located on the homestead, Route 2, Zebulon, N.C.

"Las" Perry and "Brake" Perry had a government license to make Brandy before prohibition. "Las" and "Brake" built and operated the Laster "Las" Perry's Apple Cider Mill Circa 1900 (one of a kind). 20 bushels of apples were required to fill the circular trough. A horse or mule would pull the large stone to crush the apples. The crushed apples were then placed in a press. Good apples would produce a 50 gallon oak barrel full of sweet cider. 3 weeks later that cider would become hard cider. If you drank a glass full of the hard cider it would make you have a little better feeling. Some weeks later the hard cider would turn into vinegar. If the sweet cider was taken down to the branch or creek and distilled in a copper still it would make 5 to 8 gallons of very good 120 proof Apple Brandy.

"Las" had 4 large apple orchards. Later Luther "Bud" Perry took over the orchards and Apple Cider Mill and cared for them.

J.B. "Brake" Perry also had 4 large orchards. Later Clifton "Jack" Perry took over those orchards and cared for them. Most of these orchards were destroyed in October 1954 by hurricane Hazel. Hurricane Fran came thru our area beginning in the night of September 5, 1996 and continued throughout the night and early morning of September 6, 1996. Hurricane Fran did a lot of damage over a large area of our State, but the Apple Cider Mill WAS NOT destroyed by Hurricane Fran.

The old "Las" Perry Cider Mill House was destroyed by a wind storm a week or two after Hurricane Fran came thru.
