CROSSFILE: HADLEY FAMILY

Thomas Hadley, the youngest son of Thomas and Mary (Thompson) Hadley, married Margaret Parker, the daughter of John and Mary Weeks Parker of Cumberland County. They both died in 1805 and left their children to the care of relatives. There were six children, Sarah, Mary, Weeks Parker, Thomas, Harriet and James. All were distributed among their mother's relatives and were reared by them in the best social and religious atmosphere. The Parker family was one of the most substantial and respected in eastern Carolina. Sarah Hadley married Captain John Parker; Mary married Colonel Robert Joyner of Warren County, North Carolina. Their descendants moved South. The two daughters of Captain and Sarah Hadley Parker married two brothers, Dr. John T. and Dr. James Webb, who moved to Texas. Their descendants reside in Bryan and Terrill, Texas. They have intermarried with the Calhoun family and one has married the son of John Sharp Williams, United States Senator from Mississippi.

The Parker family moved to Edgecombe County, North Carolina, where their descendants chiefly reside and but few members remained in Cumberland County after 1824.

Thomas the third, the second son of Thomas and Margaret (Parker) Hadley, was reared by his uncle, Theophilus Parker and his wife, Mary Irwin Toole, the niece of Lieutenant Henry Irwin, a hero who fell at the battle of Germantown. Thomas Hadley the third, married Millicent Richardson, only daughter of Joseph and Martha Cobb Richardson of Johnson County, North Carolina. They moved to Edgecombe County and settled in what is now a part of Wilson County, North Carolina. They had a family of seven children, all but one of whom lived to be grown and married. The eldest, Margaret, married Captain Albert Upchurch; Mary married Dr. Stephen Woodward and Martha married Wiley D. Rountree; Sarah married, first, Lamb Moye, second, Dr. C. Peacock; Captain Thomas Hadley married Sarah Saunders; John C. married Mary Moore. All resided in Wilson and Wilson County, North Carolina. Wiley D. Rountree, when twenty-two years of age,

RPU NOTES:

#1. There seems to be no reason to connect the Upchurch listing on the 1930 Census for Covington Co, AL with the George Demayne U who was born in this County in 1944

#2 As of 18 SEP 2008 I am unable to locate the father of William S. U b 1874 (NC)

#3 Geneva & Covington Counties in GA adjoin and are on the FL border. Neither County has much UPCHURCH activity.
