"His sun went down in the morning
 While all was fair and bright,
 But it was not an eclipse of darkness
 That hid him from our sight;
 For the valley of death was brighter
 Than the hills of life he trod,
 And the peace that fell on his spirit,
 Was the calm deep peace of God.
 His sun went down in the morning,
 While all was fair and bright,
 It shines today, on hills far away,
 In the Land that knows no night!"

MRS C. B. BAGWELL
1500 WAKE FOREST RD
RALEIGH, NC 27604

Dear Cousin Eldora,

I really enjoyed our phone visit last night. It was almost like making a visit to Raleigh. All the details you provided help greatly in improving the Wasted Outline for my Marguerite Upchurch. It is now 9:30 AM and I have been up since 5:00 AM recording the details you provided. Certain of those details are published in the Upchurch Bulletin or include same information as enclosed.

From our conversation it appears that you and I share a common interest in Upchurch Family Heritage. I now dig out huge amounts of information on the Polk's Upchurch, I class to which you and I both belong. of course there is still much to be learned. The Upchurches played a major role in the history of Raleigh and Wake County and this is not generally recognized. I hope we can bring more of these details to light in the Upchurch Bulletin

I hope you will be willing to help provide additional details on the family of Ruby Marguerite Upchurch. We may have to exchange letters several times. Here are my questions for you:

1) For Ruby Marguerite U

- a) when and where did she marry the first time?
- b) when and where did she marry the second time?
- c) when and where was George Hinds Whitaker born, when and where did he die and where is he buried?
- d) who was the father and grandfather of George Hinds Whitaker?
- e) what does the "A" in Patrick A. Taylor stand for, when and where was he born, when and where did he die and where buried?

2) For yourself

- a) when and where were you first married?
- b) when and where was John Wesley Cargie, Sr born? Is he still living?
- c) when in 1946 did you marry?
- d) what is the date and place of birth for your six children? All still living?

3) For Lillian Wright Whitaker

- a) when did she die?
- b) where is she buried?
- c) when and where did she marry?
- d) what was her husband's full name and when and where was he born? Is he still living?
- e) what is the full name of her son Buddy Davis and when and where was he born?

4) For Ruth Marie Whitaker

- a) when and where was she born?
- b) when in 1938 did she die, where did she die and where is she buried?
- c) when and where did she marry?
- d) what is the full name of J. R. Ferriter and when & where was he born? Is he still living?
- e) when and where was Joan Marie Ferriter born? Is she still single?

5) For Ruby Carlyne Whitaker

- a) when and where was she born?
- b) when and where was she married?
- c) what is the full name of Frank M. Kolombadovsky and when and where was he born? Is he still living?
- d) what are the full names of her three children and when and where were each of them born?

I know the above is a lot. Anything you have or can get will be appreciated.

I'll be glad to try to answer any questions you have about the Uphurch Family. If you so desire I'll be glad to send you a sketch of your line and mine back to Michael Uphurch, I showing how we are related.

Tell Betty I think it is great that he is encouraging you to recover from your stroke.

Sincerely yours
Phil Uphurch

"Edward's Mill, upstream about two miles from Laniter's was brought about 1866 by J. Thomas Edwards and his son, Demetrius M. Edwards, from the estate of Scott Tucker who had bought it from Hines Whitaker. ↑ The title, at that time, was searched back for a hundred years, dating the original dam about 1786, and seeming to place it, strangely enough, ten years earlier than the other two. [Laniter's - 1776, Whitaker 1777].

But it was not an eclipse of darkness
That hid him from our sight;
For the valley of death was brighter
Than the hills of life he trod,
And the peace that fell on his spirit,
Was the calm deep peace of God.
His sun went down in the morning,

It shines today, on hills far away,

PRE HISTORY THROUGH CENTENNIAL - ELIZABETH REID MURRAY
1983

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 re representation at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL PEARSON

According to the DAR Blue Book, which gives the lineage of members, Samuel Pearson was a Captain in the North Carolina Line in the American Revolution and was born 1721 in Maryland and died 1802 in Wake County, N. C. He married Mary Simons who was born 1734 and died 1822.

He settled (1740-1750?) in the part of Johnston County which became Wake County, about six or eight miles south of Raleigh on Steephill Creek. He reared a large family and owned a great deal of land. He had a mill on Steephill Creek (mentioned in his Will as his "old mill") which is still standing and is one of the landmarks of the area. The Pearsons lost the mill in 1822 and it has changed hands many times since then and is what we now call the mill at Yates Pond.

CHILDREN OF SAMUEL AND MARY SIMONS PEARSON
(From his Will)

1. PARIS PEARSON
2. SIMON PEARSON - He is the one who got in debt and lost the mill - about 1820-22. He was a Justice of the Peace before and after this time, which was a responsible position, so he must have been a worthwhile man - I think he bought up too much land and got over-extended financially and had to get rid of the mill and his land.
- * 3. ASA PEARSON - Married Elizabeth Utley - Bond dated 17 April 1798, Bondsman, E(lick) Sanders; Witness, J. Rice. Da age 69 on 12 APR 1844 WAKE CO, NC - HOME OF STEEP HILL PEARSON
4. PRESTON PEARSON
5. ESTER PEARSON
6. CHARITY PEARSON
7. PATIENCE PEARSON - Married JOHN NORRIS, Jr.
8. RACHEL PEARSON - Married John Moore, Bond dated 18 July 1780, Bondsman, Thomas Rice; witness, J. Rice.
9. FEREBY PEARSON - Married Jno. Whitaker. Bond dated 17 April 1786, Bondsman, Joel Lane; Witness, J. Rice.
10. PEACE PEARSON - Married William Pope. Bond dated 28 Dec. 1797; Bondsman, John Harrison; Witness, J. Rice

A lot of research has been done by different family members to find and document information about Issac Beckwith. We have □ Δ every reason to believe he was the father of our Green Beckwith, and this has been documented by Herbert Benoy of Hamlet.

□ Δ □ Δ According to Herbert's records, Issac Beckwith bought a tract of 100 acres on Little White Oak Creek in Western Wake County on June 30, 1798, from William Barker, Sr. The land was adjacent to that owned by Issac's father, Bolling Beckwith. By 1820

Issac owned 350 acres. The 1800 census for Wake County lists Issac Beckwith as a male under 26, along with a female under 26, along with male under 10; it also lists Bolling Beckwith as a male under 26, along with a female under 26. Wake County deeds of 1798 show land owned by James Holland and Issack Beckwith, alongside land owned by Boles Beckwith and Sampson

Holland. In the 1850 census for Wake County Isaac Beckwith is listed, age 75, born in North Carolina; the 1860 census lists

Isaac Beckwith, age 80, born in North Carolina. In the 1880 census it shows that Green Beckwith is 80 and that his father and mother were born in North Carolina.

□ Δ Isaac Beckwith is mentioned on page 139 of "The Beckwiths" by Paul Beckwith, published in 1891. The book is located in the

NC State Library, Genealogy Section, Raleigh, NC (was this Isaac born in Watertown, NY?).

In the 1863 Wake County Wills, Book 32, page 620, Issack Beckwith leaves land to Tilda, Gilly Ann, and Ancil.

- △ Daily News. Democratic Party leaders convinced Jordan Stone, editor of the Roanoke News in Weldon, to relocate his paper to Raleigh in 1872, and he joined
- △ local printer William H. Uzzell in publishing the paper under the name Daily
- △ News beginning in March. William A. Hearne's new paper, the Carolinian, was soon combined with the News, and the paper attracted a number of experienced
- △△ journalists to Raleigh. Samuel T. Williams was editor-in-chief, and Capt. E. C. Woodson came from Warrenton to work as "city editor." Rev. R. H. Whitaker remembered that when the News announced there would be a reporter of local news, "our city could not help smiling at the idea; for reconstruction had been accomplished, the Yankees had gone, and everything had gotten so quiet it was thought that news had played out." Woodson's news-gathering prowess soon made it evident that the position of city editor was becoming essential to the success of any local paper.⁴³

- △△ The first News office was on the third floor of a building near Market Square shared by attorney B. F. Moore and wholesale grocer (and prankster) George Stronach. Stronach became one of Woodson's closest friends and often kept him company after closing his store at night while Woodson took dispatches and prepared copy for the midnight press run. By about 1875 the paper's proprietors constructed a new building near the corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets.⁴⁴

43. Whitaker, Reminiscences, 446-448.

- △△ William A. Hearne's Carolinian, a daily, ran from about October 1871 to February 1872. From January to March 1874 Hearne put out another short-lived paper, the Daily Examiner, which he sold to William M. Brown's Weekly Era. Col. Fred A. Olds later recalled that Major Hearne's financial struggles with the paper left him in arrears with his printers when the paper ceased. He later paid "every dollar he owed," however, after being appointed superintendent of construction of the post office. Olds, "Old-Time Printer," 7.

△ 44. Whitaker, Reminiscences, 448; News and Observer, Mar. 11, 1962. Machinists W. T. Adams and Son built the elevator for the News building. Their shop was at the corner of Davie and McDowell streets. Raleigh City Directory, 1875-1876, 41, 60.

 "His sun went down in the morning
 While all was fair and bright,
 But it was not an eclipse of darkness
 That hid him from our sight;
 For the valley of death was brighter
 Than the hills of life he trod,
 And the peace that fell on his spirit,
 Was the calm deep peace of God.
 His sun went down in the morning,

 It shines today, on hills far away,

○ THE FAMOUS 1889 TRIAL OF EUGENE GRISSOM, SR - As Presented in Chapter 41 (Pg 417-431) of THE TAR HEEL EDITOR By JOSEPHUS DANIELS "J.D." - 1939. This Chapter is extracted here especially to record important Wake Co, NC names and because S. OTHO WILSON a resident of RAMCAT is referenced.

JD takes much credit for the downfall of Dr. Grissom. That at his trial.

THE EVENT of 1889 which stood out conspicuously was the trial of Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, on charges preferred by John W. Thompson, Steward, and Dr. Sion Rogers, one of the physicians of the Institution. They charged Dr. Grissom with immorality with patients and female attendants, with cruelty to patients, and with graft. The publication of these charges shocked and surprised the bulk of the people who believed that Dr. Grissom was both a great alienist and a man of high character. He had received all the honors of the State Medical Association. He had delivered addresses before Medical Associations all over the country. A year or two before the charges were brought against him, Dr. Grissom connected himself with the Methodist Church. When the charges were made, he called upon the leaders of that church to stand by him. The editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, Rev. Dr. Frank L. Reid, believed in his innocence and came to his aid in his paper and denounced as slanderers those who had used what he called gossip to put a stain upon the reputation of a great man. In Raleigh Dr. Grissom had many friends. Every doctor in Raleigh except one or two were his partisans. He was a member of a leading drug firm of the city, and incidentally he had purchased most of the medicine and liquor used by the Asylum from that firm. It was charged that this made him guilty of graft.

PG 425:

At that time the Farmers' Alliance was holding meetings all over the State. The day after the meeting in the Metropolitan Hall, they were to hold a big meeting at Auburn. S. Otho Wilson, a leader of the Alliance, came to me that morning and said he wanted to introduce resolutions denouncing the Board and Grissom and asked me to write them for him. I did so and they were unanimously adopted by 2,000 Wake farmers. This was followed by like meetings in other parts of the State.

After the Civil War Dr. Grissom came to the State Senate as a Republican of the Reconstruction Party. The Spoils System allowed GOV. W. W. HOLDEN to give a Democrat and to name DR. GRISSOM as Superintendent of the N. C. Hospital for the Insane (DEX HILL). He was politically astute and survived through subsequent Democratic administrations of Gov. Zebulon Vance, T. J. JARVIS & ALFRED M. SCALES. In 1884 he supported Scales, Democrat, for GOV over Dr. Tye York. Daniels was against Grissom because he saw him slap an older Senator. John W. THOMPSON was steward of the Asylum & a member of the Watauga Club. He was unhappy with Grissom & said Dr. FRANK FULLER, Chief Asst. Physician, was responsible for all good work, Grissom being corrupt in Administration and in life.

JWT said Dr. Sion Rogers, Asst. Physician, agreed with him. SPIER WHITAKER & A. M. WADELL presided Grissom with the Board of the Asylum sitting in judgement. Dr. E. B. Haywood was Board Chairman. Grissom's Council included: THOMAS G. FULLER, ex GOV THOMAS J. JARVIS, CHARLES M. COOKE of Franklin (County?), two sons of Dr. E. B. Haywood [A.W.H &], ARMISTEAD JONES & T. P. DEVEREAUX. The trial, incidentally, revealed severe faults of DR. SION ROGERS. The Board acquitted Dr. Grissom on a split vote. There was an uproar over the acquittal as illustrated by the Farmers Alliance. Ex GOV HOLDEN came out of retirement to speak in favor of Grissom during the uproar but did him more harm than good. GOV DANIEL GOULD FOWLE, with advice of JD, reconstituted the Board adding OCTAVIUS COKE & JOHN B. BROADFOOT of Fayetteville. Grissom got some of the new Board members drunk but they were rescued by JOHN W. THOMPSON & A. D. JONES. Grissom blamed RICHARD H. SMITH. ALFRED D. JONES, a friend of JD heard Grissom trash JD on a Raleigh Street. JD also encountered ROBERT GIULIO GRISSOM, a S/O Dr. Grissom and also EUGENE GRISSOM, JR. when JR was an employer of U.S. DEPT. of INTERIOR when JD was Chief Clerk in 1893 & still there in WWI when JD was SEC USN in WWI at which time EUGENE GRISSOM, III came to see JD. Dr. Grissom moved to CO & was better but soon died. Years later JD was in CO & was escorted by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce whose wife was D/O Dr. Grissom. She was very cordial.

School's ties to Lizard Lick in tact

I was appointed in 1973 to promote our community and crossroads, because the newly built U.S. 64 bypassed us, and our address changed.

I was born in Lizard Lick on Jan. 5, 1931, and have only missed two State Fairs in 55 years. For 22 years, I have written a column for the Gold Leaf Farmer as a way of keeping our crossroads alive and well-remembered as the great building boom headed our way. I knew asphalt roads and country do not mix, and things would change.

I was asked to research and write about the Lizard Lick School House, so here goes:

The first State Fair was beginning to take shape in 1853. This wasn't the only event that would make history in later years.

A small, 16-foot by 20-foot building was being constructed about that time. It would soon become Public School District No. 5 of Wake County and later would be called the Old Rhodes School after the landowner. To our community and family, it's known as the Lizard Lick School.

The schoolhouse was located 16 miles east of Raleigh on U.S. 64 near a crossroads called Lizard Lick. In 1948, I lived in this building as a tenant farmer. A room had been added to the side for a kitchen and used as a tenant house for as long as I could remember. My parents, P.W. and Pearl Carter Wood, had seven children to help farm the land belonging to Miss Pattie Lee.

Later, Willard Gay developed this property now called Gaylee Village, a residential subdivision. Gay promised his mother, Stancy

By Charles Wood

Gay, that he would not destroy this old building because of the family history. Gay's grandmother, Fannie Ferrell, and his father, Ivan Gay, attended the school.

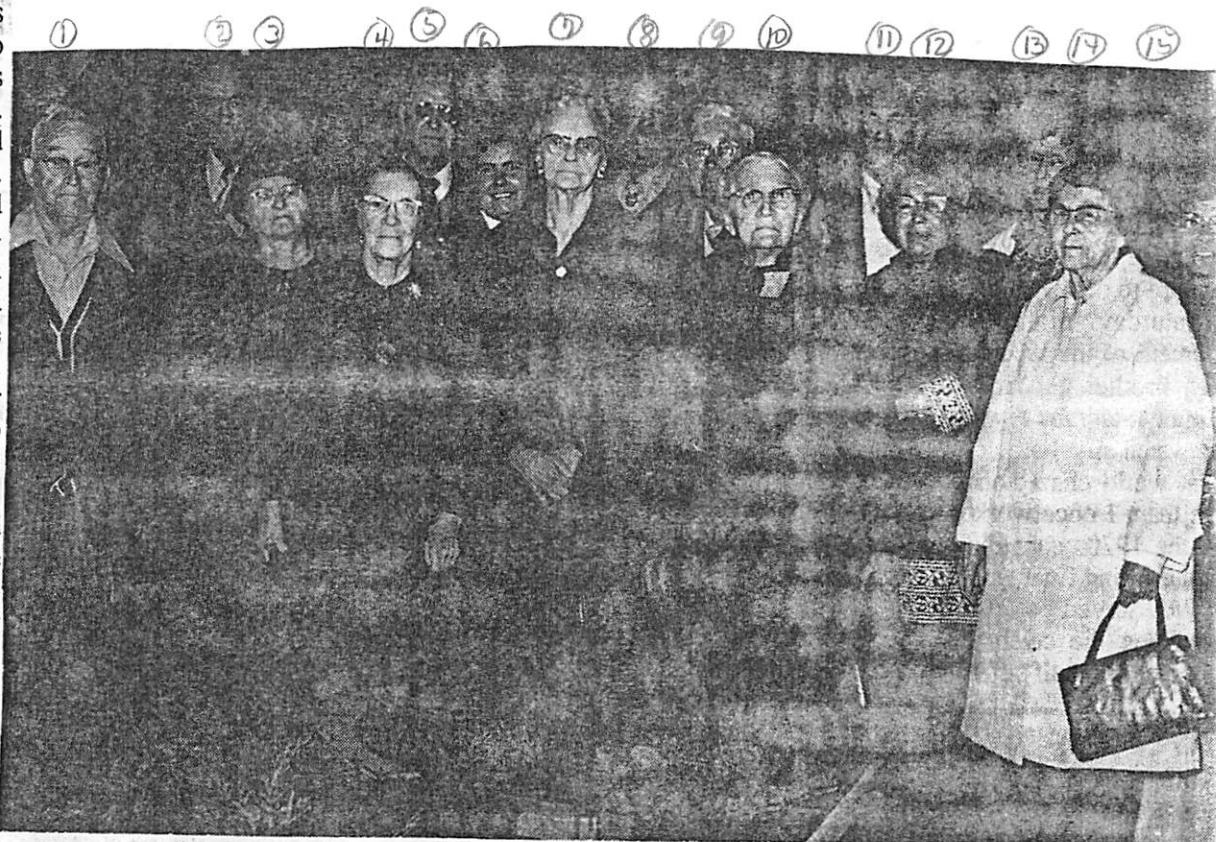

Gay donated the school to the State Fair's Village of Yesteryear. Fair Manager Art Pitzer and Dick Ellis of the Archives Department were delighted with the gift and started to restore it immediately. Restoration was finished in 1975.

According to records available, the school started its first class on July 12, 1886, only operating for a two-month term. The first teacher, R.P. Chamblee, received a salary of $24 per month. Students attending were from the families of Todd, Lee, Horton, Ferrell, Whitaker, Temple, Hardesty, Underhill, Gay and Rhodes. Other teachers included Riley Privette, A. Griffin, J.M. Ferrell, S.F.

Garner, W.C. Horton and W.A. Liles, each with a salary of $30 per month. There were 21 male and six female students enrolled ranging in age from 7 to 19.

This information was made available from the records in possession of Billy S. Liles, a member of the Wendell School Citizens Committee. He farmed and lived in Lizard Lick. The textbooks used were listed as "Swinton's Word Book," "Holmes Teacher," "Reed and Kellogg's Grammar" and "Monteith's Geography." The last recorded school classes were in 1896. It is not known if the school continued after that date.

A special thanks to Agriculture Commissioner Jim Graham and James Devine for accepting a rare photo of some students who attended the old school. My grandparents, Bertie Carter and Rosa Gay Carter, are two students who appear in the photo. It was taken inside the school at a formal dedication service on Oct. 18, 1976.

Community to honor generous proprietor

By CHARLES P. WOOD
Record Columnist

Born Sept. 18, 1916, in the community of Lizard Lick, Miley T. Whitaker is 75 and still living in the same house just north of our crossroads.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Whitaker, and worked on the farm until he joined the Navy. He was on the USS Honolulu in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, when Japan bombed it Dec. 7, 1941.

The ship was tied up at the dock and had a 30-foot hole blown in her side by a torpedo. He watched history unfold as thousands died that day.

He returned to Lizard Lick unharmed and worked for Martin Mill Works for 12 years. He ran the "Save on Gas" station in Lizard Lick for 25 years.

During this time, he helped every kid in the community including me and mine. When he closed the station in the mid-1970s, his unpaid receipts reflected the help he had given to this community over the past 25 years. It was in the thousands.

Lick
News

Miley said he did not regret any of it and would do it again if he could.

He has retired to the rank of chief grass-cutter and yardman of Lizard Lick.

Saturday night starting at 7, we will host a hot-dog roast as we toast Miley Whitaker as the outstanding man of our community. We will have music from the 1950s and '60s, a sock hop, and a square dance as we present Saturday night country-style in honor of Miley. Tony Denton will help emcee the program.

If you know Miley or would like to join us for this celebration of music and fun, be here Saturday and bring the kids, too. It's free.

If you would like to pick or sing, call me at 365-6648 for more information. The event will be held outside if possible; inside in case of bad weather at the Lizard Lick town hall.

WHITAKER

ZEBULON RECORD THUR 8 OCT 1992 ZEBULON, NC

George and Whitaker wed

Traci Lynn Whitaker of Zebulon and Jerry Morton George of Zebulon were united in marriage Sept. 12 at St. James Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eric Carson.

The bride is the daughter of William D. Whitaker of Zebulon and Sharon B. Whitaker of Raleigh. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis George III of Wendell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and sposabella lace. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline, Juliet sleeves and a basque waist. Sposabella lace motifs, etched with pearls and sequins, outlined the neckline and adorned the bodice and sleeves in a floral design.

The sleeves were also enhanced by crystal pleats featuring a sposabella lace medallion motif with pearl and crystal dangles tapering to sposabella lace-edged illusion with pearl etching.

The floor-length skirt extended into a cathedral-length train. Sposabella lace motifs with scattered pearls edged an illusion panel in a pyramid design on the front of the skirt and on the train. Scattered sposabella lace cutout motifs in a floral design extended upward from the hemline. A garland of sposabella lace bordered the skirt and train.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a layered fingertip-length veil of illusion with hand-rolled edges and pouf flowing from a wreath of silk flowers and floral spray of pearls and sequins, accented with a cascade of lily-of-the-valley and pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and fuchsia dendrobium orchids enhanced with English ivy.

She was attended by Jenny Garis as matron of honor and Aimee Whitaker as maid of honor. Julie Parrish served as bridesmaid.

The attendants each wore a ruby taffeta tea-length dress with pouf sleeves. The U-back was adorned with pearls draped from ruby taffeta rosettes at the shoulders.

Deanna George was the flower girl.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Jeremie George, son of the bridegroom; David George, brother of the bridegroom; and Mike Clark.

The bridegroom wore a black tropical wool coat which was inset with a blended stripe lapel. His pleated trousers matched the lapel inset, with the vest matching the coat and the ascot in a gray pin dot.

The altar of the church was decorated with two baskets of fuchsia and white gladiolas. It was also draped with white snowdrifts and tuber roses. A matching altar vase was placed at the back of the sanctuary.

Spiral candelabra were adorned with wedding greenery. A double kneeling bench and unity candle, decorated with a satin bow and greenery, were used by the couple.

Wedding music was presented by Sue King, organist, and Susanne Whitford, soloist.

The bride is a graduate of East Wake High School. She is a distribution clerk with the U.S. Postal Service. Her husband is a graduate of Wayne Community College and is employed by Residential & Commercial Heat & A/C.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

 "His sun went down in the morning
 While all was fair and bright,
 But it was not an eclipse of darkness
 That hid him from our sight;
 For the valley of death was brighter
 Than the hills of life he trod,
 And the peace that fell on his spirit,
 Was the calm deep peace of God.
 His sun went down in the morning,
 While all was fair and bright,
 It shines today, on hills far away,
 In the Land that knows no night"

○ N. C. MARRIAGE RECORD - RPU INTERPRETION

7 FEB 2014

North Carolina, Marriage Bonds, 1

This Ann Eliza Warren is a sister of
Sarah Warren "SALLY"
"MU" - a GGM of
RPU. It is tempting to presume that the Weldon N. Edwards
who was bondsman
for this marriage was in fact the
Weldon Edwards

△ Name: Isaiah Blake
Gender: Male
△ Spouse: Ann Eliza Warren
Spouse Gender: Female
Bond date: 13 Mar 1858
Bond #: 000151607
Marriage Date: 18 Mar 1858
Level Info: North Carolina Marriage Bonds, 1741-1868
ImageNum: 008362
County: Wake
Record #: 01 046
△ Bondsman: Weldon N Edward
△ Witness: Jas A Moore
△ Performed By: Wilson W Whitaker, Justice of the Peace

{William Weldon Edwards}

who named Sarah, the sister of Ann Eliza. However, there was a well known Weldon N. Edwards and I presume the bondsman is the well known WNE and not the WWE, my ancestor - RPA
