Apex

Historical Raleigh (enlarged and revised edition)
With Sketches of Wake County (from 1771)
And Its Important Towns
Descriptive, Biographical, Educational, Industrial, Religious, Illustrated
By Moses N. Amis - 1913

△ The town of Apex had its beginning with the close of the Civil War. Among its first settlers were J. McC. Ellington, H. C. Olive, Q. I. Hudson, W. F. Utley, W. H. Harward, Brinkley Olive, A. N. Betts and others, △△△ who contributed to its life in the beginning and afterwards. It was incorporated by the Legislature of 1871-'72, with the late Hon. H. C. Olive as its first mayor. It derived its name from being the highest point on the survey of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad.

Until 1905 it was but a small town, where the standard of virtue, intelligence and patriotism was high, but where little progress in material things had been made. In that year, beginning with the organization of a bank and the establishment of a tobacco market, began a new life for the town and surrounding community. Fire later destroying a number of unsightly frame buildings, the first brick structure was soon erected. Again, in June, 1911, nearly all the remaining old frame buildings in the business section were also consumed by fire. Now the principal street of the town (Salem) is lined with handsome pressed-brick-front stores. Business houses have continued to increase in number, until now nearly everything to complete a small city is here represented. This metropolis of western Wake is one of the busiest, most attractive and substantially built towns of its size in North Carolina. Its streets are well laid out and splendidly shaded in the residential sections, while the business part of the town is marked with buildings of beautiful architectural designs and substantial construction.

Apex has a population of about one thousand, and, being located in the centre of one of the best agricultural sections of the State, has a large rural territory from which to draw life and sustenance. It is in the limited "Old Belt" tobacco¹ lands of North Carolina and Virginia, which produce the finest yellow-wrapper tobacco. The tobacco market at Apex is one of its chief industries. It is equipped with two splendid warehouses, three large prizehouses², markets about two million pounds of tobacco annually, and enjoys the distinction of making the highest average price per pound of any market in the State. It is the centre of a fine cotton-production section, the receipts of this staple being from three to five thousand bales of cotton per year.

Public education in Wake County has always found some of its most potent advocates and influences at Apex. Notable among those who have wielded an influence throughout the county in this respect are the late Hon. H. C. Olive, State Senator and for many years chairman of the Wake County Board of Education; Hon. L. J. Sears, at present, and for many years past, chairman of the same board, and Hon. Percy J. Olive, an ex-representative and a public man who has taken an especial interest in the schools. That these gentlemen are and were but the exponents of the sentiment around them is witnessed by the fact that Apex has one of the finest and best-equipped schools in the county, and that every school in White Oak Township levies a local tax to supplement the general education fund.

Few communities in the State have had more additions to their population within the past five years than has that of which Apex is the centre. Those seeking desirable homes have found here a happy combination of advantages—fine lands, intelligent, virtuous and hospitable neighbors, good markets, good roads, good schools and good churches. No fictitious values have been placed upon the lands; for, with the true idea of progress, the efforts of those who have done most for the community's upbuilding have been directed to keeping the real estate at its true value. Contributing mostly to this and at present forming the most valuable of its citizenship, without disparagement to others, may be mentioned Messrs. W. F. Utley, W. H. Harward, A. B. Hunter, L. S. Olive, Percy J. Olive, Dr. W. Wade Olive, S. W. Stone, J. B. Mason, J. W. Lassiter, W. B. Upchurch, J. H. Sears, A. V. Baucom, A. C. Hughes, C. P. Sellars, W. B. Johnson, A. D. Upchurch, Samuel Watkins, Jr., A. T. Seymour, C. R. Weaver, S. T. Bennett, B. H. Pate, J. R. Cunningham, S. V. Hudson, S. S. Rogers, J. R. Norris, G. C. Norris, R. J. Bolling, Dr. R. W. Stephens, Dr. R. W. Johnson, Dr. C. B. Wilkerson, J. F. Mills, S. A. Branch, W. H. F. Branch, L. J. Sears, M. G. Upchurch, G. E. Upchurch, H. B. Harward, J. R. Harward, R. L. Bagley, J. C. Burns, Q. I. Hudson and others.

A. → ANNIE STOCKTON, born August 5, 1900, died May 5, 1977, married November 23, 1918, William Jennings Bryan

Bass, born September 14, 1899, at Jones Prairie in Milam County, Texas, died February 8, 1989, Jacksonville, Texas. He was the son of Giles Washington Bass and Lillie Wilkerson Bass. Annie and William Jennings Bryan Bass are buried in Gossett's Chapel Cemetery of Cherokee County.

Annie Stockton Bass was an accomplished seamstress. However her preference in handiwork was tatting and making pillow cases. She shared many pairs of her beautiful pillow cases as gifts to her relatives and friends. She also made and sold the pillow cases to people who had seen and admired her work. Annie often commented that her handiwork was her nerve medicine.

William Jennings Bryan Bass was called "Bill" or "Will" by his friends and kinfolks. His preference of initials were "W.J."

Annie and W. J. Bass lived in the Enterprise Community of Cherokee County, and they were farmers. Bill was also a trucker, who hauled many loads of fresh produce from the Jacksonville area to Markets in Dallas and Houston during the 1930's, 1940's and 1950's.

Annie and W. J. Bass were married fifty-eight years.

Annie's deep devotion for her family and her fairness in dealing with family matters highlight the memories of her children.

Annie & W. J. Bass had 9 children, all born in Cherokee Co, TX

○ EXTRACT OF TWO LETTERS WRITTEN IN THE SPRING OF 1922 BY "FESTUS" [FESTUS BEAUREGARD PHILLIPS] RE THE DEATH OF HIS "PA" [LITTLE BERRY PHILLIPS] see Profile of "Festus" for letters

Letter One - Dated 12 APR 1922 Los Angeles, CA - signed Festus - 3 Pages written to Brothers & Sisters

Pa had apparently been visiting Festus in Los Angeles for about three years but not in good health. Walter [Walter Aderson Phillips] [Brother of Festus] was in LA also and took Pa to the train. Festus called wife Nina [Nina Elizabeth Wickerson] from work to ask her to take pictures of Pa before he left. Pa apparently went back to Raleigh, NC where his health deteriorated. So Festus was not surprised when Little Webster [Webster Clay Phillips s/o Festus] took the telegram which announced the death of Pa

Festus recalls Pa missed "Mammy" [Rosa Anna Caroline Baker], his wife who died 1889 and also his dear old mother [Elizabeth Thaneey U]. Also refers to Pa's late Uncle Anton [Alexander Anton Phillips], James [John Henry James Phillips] and the little baby [William Belle Phillips]

Festus reports Pa wrote a 1914 will with James & Festus as Exec.

Festus asks for peace in the family

Letter Two - To "Brother" [Could be Walter or Fletcher Hatley Phillips - APD] Not dated - but after Letter one - 1 Page

Refers to nervous condition of Rosa [Rosa William Phillips] and to his BIL "Bob" [Robert Warner Warner, Sr].

Requests certain clothes Festus & Pa "used together in our work" as Festus says he would enjoy wearing them

Letter one presents a conflict on death of Pa - see details L. B. Phillips

NOTE: Circumstances dictate that the Upchurches named above include only William U, II and his two sons John U, IV and William U, III. Entries A, B, C certainly include William U, II and not his son William U, III. Entries D & E are safely assigned to John U, IV. For Entry F the reference could be to William U, II or William U, III. Question - did William U, II live until age 66 (4 MAY 1801) - if not then Entry F applies to William U, III, a most likely outcome - RFD 31 JAN 2002
