EXCERPT FROM: HISTORICAL RALEIGH (NC) FROM 1792BY: MOSES M. AMEL 1902 - RPA - 3 SEP 2014 PGS 85, 86, 88RE: EARLY CHURCHES IN RALEIGH

The Baptists were next to organize a congregation. This was in 1812, and a church building of an humble character was erected on Moore Square, or in what was then known as the Baptist Grove. The bell was of the size and sound of those generally in use by tobacco factories. In this Grove the founders of the First Baptist church worshipped. There is high authority for the statement that the members were accustomed each to take a tallow candle to this humble building in order to produce a "dim, religious light" (so conducive to spirituality, it was thought) for services at night. The membership of the church, says Mr. W. C. Upchurch, was never more than eighteen—seven males and eleven females. Of the former there were Madison Royster, Jas. Nunn, J. D. Briggs, Mark Williams, and W. C. Upchurch; the late Mrs. Alfred Williams was among the female members.

About 1835, owing to differences of opinion among the members, dissension arose, and a new and better edifice was accordingly erected at the southeast corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. The pastors of this church, in the order named, were Revs. Amos J. Battle, Louis Dupree, T. W. Toby, J. J. Finch, G. W. Johnston, T. E. Skinner.

In 1858 the present imposing First Baptist Church was erected. Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, one of our most distinguished theologians (who is yet living and much beloved by all) was the first pastor. The late Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard was another of the early pastors.

Among the members of this church in the old days were, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Miss Lucinda Briggs, P. F. Pescud, J. J. Biggs, Miss Sallie Towles, M. B. Royster, Jas. D. Royster, Lynn Adams, W. D. Williams, Caswell Lee, Jas. D. Nunn, Jordan Womble, Jr., Robert Jones, Miss Selina Jenkins.

A prominent feature of the Sunday School of this church is the Infant Class, which numbers one hundred and sixty-five. The class was organized in 1865, with but twelve pupils. Dr. W. I. Royster was the first teacher in charge. It is now conducted by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dodd and Miss Elizabeth Briggs.

In 1874 a few members of this church, led by Messrs. N. B. Broughton and J. S. Allen, organized a new congregation, and purchased on Swain street a house of worship and denominated it the Second Baptist Church. The congregation assumed in a year or two such proportions that it became necessary to secure a more commodious structure, and a site was accordingly purchased on the corner of Hargett and Person streets, upon which was erected the present edifice, known as the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Its seating capacity is about one thousand. The Sunday School is the largest in the city and its fame in this department of religious work extends throughout the country, due, in a great measure, to the zeal and popularity of Mr. N. B. Broughton, known throughout the State as foremost in all that makes for the advancement—moral and material—of the people.

CONCLUSION

This 16 Pg
article written by Anne Jackson
Williams
in 1947

Summing up the little that is now remembered about these distant ancestors of the Williams family, it is clear that they belonged for the most part to the home-owning, hard-working, church-going, book-loving sort of people who were the making of our country. The Williamses have a superstition that it is bad luck to sell ancestral land and each of them held on to his inheritance. Uncle Bob Williams said during the 1920's that old John Robin Williams received 640 acres from the father who went to Tennessee and at that time every acre of it was still owned by some direct descendant, though this is not still true. All the John Williams and Charles Williams land are still in the family, however. Apparently the only Williams ancestor in any direction who ever lost any of his patrimony was Thomas L. Johnson, who had the excuse of ill health.

Most of these ancestors lived to a great age. Both men and women seem to have been sound, healthy stock. Both men and women were hard workers, good managers, and people who loved their homes and farms. They were thrifty for the most part, but they were also charitable. Like John Williams, who assumed a third of the burden of supporting a large family not related to him, and Dempsey Johnson, who cared for an insane cousin in his own home, and Sarah Adeline who nursed the orphan boy with tuberculosis, they did their full duty by the needy. They brought up their children in the fear of the Lord and made great sacrifices to give them a good education. To offset these more sober traits, there come from several directions a great fondness for social gatherings, good clothes, fine horses, and comfortable living. Some of them were quite witty, and both Wilsons and Howells were lively talkers. John Robert Williams had a remarkable gift for trading. In the whole family connection there is no record of anyone who was not an honest, law-abiding citizen, at peace with his neighbors and in good standing with his church. They make a group of ancestors in whom their descendants may well take great pride.

○ From Hs 28 SEP 1999 June Carter to R.P.U.

June expressed much interest in material I sent to her which mentions NATHANIEL CARTER. She reports:

He first appears on the road orders of Brunswick County, Va in 1736. He is in minor court cases in the court order books with John Vinson as his security. He is in in the Parish Book of St Andrews, Va where he is paid for keeping his mother who is unnamed, 1745 to 1752. (It's possible that she was Frances, widow of Thomas Carter who died about 1748 or before). He receives two patents, one in 1746 and one in 1756. He and Elendor sell these two patent in 1761 to William Renn and they moves to North Carolina. He has land in Granville County which probably became Bute County. (Some notes I have I am including). On Ratcliff's tax list 2 in 1766 in Bute County is Nathaniel Carter and Abraham Carter.

Nathaniel and Nelly Carter buy 120 acres of land from John Nall in Cumberland Count in 1767 which they sell to Drury Smith in 1779 and move on to Chatham County. Samuel Northington, a relative of mine, is a witness to this deed. Nathaniel dies in Chatham County in 1782. He leaves a wife unnamed, a son Vinson and two daughters Molly and Lusey. I would like to think he is father to Abraham Carter of Cumberland County but I can't prove that.

I would be interested in the Medlin material. One of Mark Williams daughters, Arabella Caroline Williams married a W.Q. Rayl in 1865, who was probably from outside of Raleigh. She was back in the City in 1871 when she testified on Mark's claim for property seized in 1865.

DB-5, page 315. 3 April 1773. RICHARD UPCHURCH, Planter, of Wake Co., to JOS. REDDICK, Mercht., of Bute Co. 60 Pds. Procl. money (& Quitrents to become due) for 200 A. in Bute Co. on NS Crooked Creek, adj. FLOYD WILLIAMS. Wit: JNO. ALFORD, GREEN HILL. Proved by GREEN HILL, Bute November Court 1775, BENJ. McCULLOCH, C.C. Reg: 13 February 1776, by JAS. JOHNSON, P.R.

R.P.U Commentary: (13 NOV 2013)

1. This is a more complete description of what is already in my files. It is tempting to say that Richard U, II, now on 3 APR 1773 located in the High Ground Triangle (It was in Wake Co, NC 1771-1787) is selling the 200 acres he bought in 1769 from Lodowick Alford - However the 1769 tract was said to be on the SS of Crooked Creek whereas the 1773 sale reports the 200 A on the NS of Crooked Creek. To be sorted out is that Richard U, II bought & sold other tracts in Bute County.

2. Re the people cited on the 1773 sale:

a. Joseph Reddick - Adjoring to only connected to Richard U, II

b. John Alford - Relationship - just a witness - In case more to be learned

c. Green Hill - There are several by this name In case more to be learned

d. FLOYD WILLIAMS: - I label with FW I - need proof

② From Email 23JUL2008 Billie Rita Adams to RPA
 Rita makes reference to her 1st cousin nee Barbara Burns Williams as will be clear from the following excerpt from the email.

Thank you so much, Phil, for the latest information. I studied this last night and will respond more in detail as soon as I can. My vision problems make it difficult for me to work on these records, but I continue to chip at it when I can. I'm fascinated with the census info and have written my cousin Barbara to ask her about the name of the 3rd girl in Nancy Upchurch Hobbie's family. She may know, for she remembers a lot of what her mother told her about our grandmother's family.

I hope my cousin Barbara will get interested in all of this. I've tried for years to get her involved in family research but have not succeeded. She is brilliant...is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of University of S.C. and is talented in music and other fields of interest. Her husband was a physics professor...in N.J., N.Y., AR, MI, England, etc., and they had 9 children, all of whom have succeeded in their professions. One's an architect in charge of a large firm in London, one retired as a VP with United Airlines, one's a lawyer with Old Dominion Power of VA, etc., etc. Barbara lives alone in Phoenix and is inclined to go overboard in her interest in politics. I thought I had finally gotten her hooked on family research a few years back when we met in NYC for an Elderhostel study of the ethnic neighborhoods. We spent a morning at Ellis Island and she found her husband's Polish parents on the records there (his name is Thaddeus Regulinski)...after we got home she researched all of this thoroughly, but it never bridged over into an interest in researching her own family lines. She is my only surviving first cousin on my father's side of the family, thus the only one who is descended from Nancy Upchurch Hobbie.

Hi Barbara---

This is to introduce myself -sort of- and to provide for a proper interface with Rita. You have, no doubt, learned from Rita that I am a serious student of Upchurch history. Thus I was overjoyed when Rita and I were able to work together to establish that your ancestor Nancy Upchurch was the long sought daughter of Whitney U son of Moses U, He is head of one of the 22 Upchurch Clans in America. Moses and his brother Nathan Upchurch I, my Great Great Grandfather, were closely associated. Both served in the Revolution and both married and started their families in the Upchurch enclave in Dunn's Township in southern Franklin County N. C. About 1802 both moved their families to the boundary of Chatham and Wake Counties of N. C. Moses settled just across the line in Chatham and Nathan settled just inside Wake only a mile or so apart. From these two families a ton of history has unfolded much of which remains to be unearthed.

So much for a little Upchurch history. Rita and I are pleased that you have some interest in our passion for our heritage. I asked Rita how we should proceed and she recommended that I proceed to work with both of you and that I send copies of communications to both of you. I had offered this as one option.

Rita has sent me copies of emails in which you raised certain questions. I will try to address these but first I wanted to establish contact with you.

It would be a pleasure to hear from you.

Dear Phil.

It was so nice to hear from you and I would really appreciate receiving copies of your correspondence with Rita. I am Barbara Burns Williams, the daughter of Nina Burns Adams Williams and Robert Hoke Williams. Rita and I are first cousins since her father and my mother were brother and sister. My parents were both born in Wake County. I was born in Hamlet, NC, and lived in the two Carolinas until I married at the age of 20. Since then I have lived in NYC, New Jersey, Ohio and now Phoenix, AZ. So I have depended very much on Rita to do all of the work in researching our family history. I am very interested in both sides of our common family history, but particularly interested in my mother's since she told me many stories of her growing up years. I am very sorry that I did not make notes of all she told me, but I did not realize how important it would become after my life as a wife and mother came to an end. After Aunt Net became a widow she lived with my mother's parents at some time. I remember my mother telling me of the three sisters but I can only remember the names of Araminta and Antoinette. I think the third sister had a similar name that also sounded French to me. I do wish I could remember it.

I am very glad that Rita and you have joined together in this research. Thank you for including me. I look forward to receiving copies of the results you have learned.

Sincerely,

Barbara Regulinski

Hi Barbara---

I am remiss in not getting back to you and Rita sooner. It seems a requirement that I rotate from one part of the family to another-hence the lapse of time. Also, perhaps you will forgive me if I report that we have been heavily engaged in arranging for our entire family to assemble from far and near over Thanksgiving to celebrate our 60th anniversary. The actual date was August 21 but a later gathering is more feasible.

I have just reread all of the correspondence/emails I have from you and Rita. I am anxious to respond to questions but am not quite sure where we stand. If you will send me your regular Postal address I will send you a packet which we can use as a base to move forward. It will also provide a setting for my questions. I keep my records manually. Also, if you want to lift up one or more questions now that will be fine.

Since you are an Arizona resident I will mention that Sallaine and I lived in Tucson from 1975 to 1995. Upon retirement from The University of Arizona we moved to Missouri. If you want to learn more about my life it is covered in an interview conducted by George Ware. Just Google "Robert Phillip Upchurch" and you will find it.

I think the notes on the Census Records you mentioned were made by me. Census records are valuable but often require a lot of interpretation which is facilitated by comparing the same family over several census takings. It seems a miracle that the females seemed not to age ten years between the decade intervals for Census Records.

With All Best Wishes!

Dear Phil,

Thank you for your letter. My home address is:

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving reunion. I may be at my son Michael's home in Richmond for that holiday and hope to see Rita while I am there.

I look forward to the mailing of records you are sending, but don't rush anything at this busy time.

⑩ sent BBW a copy of 29 SEP 2008 for to Billie Rita Adams referred as Nancy A. N.

It me give you a very abbreviated sketch of our shared Lynchburg heritage. With rare exceptions all white American Lynchburgers and their descendants trace back to a single individual - Matthew I, I.

He came to Virginia from England on an indentured servant at about age 14 in about <sup>1638</sup>~~1838~~ and lived in sunny VA. We have much history in English heritage. over time the next 2-5 generations gradually moved south and west in VA. In the 1700's they formed an ill defined Lynchburg enclave in Brunswick

Co, VA which is on the NC line. Our own Lynchburg ancestor Richard II, II married in Brunswick Co, VA and the great of his 11 children were born there. By the early 1950's he had moved his family to the mountain top of Robert's Ridge Franklin Co, NC - now called the mountain creek area on Dennis Farming.

Then the 11 children of Richard II, II grew up and married

- some stayed - some moved. Collectively they are the ancestors of about 50% of all present day American Lynchburgers & descendants. Other descendants on the Lynchburg enclave in Dennis Farming.

The 11 children of Richard II, II were members of the 5th generation of the family in America and I unfortunately believe each of the 5th generation to be part of a team of which there are 22.

Of the 11 children of Richard U, II your ancestor Moses U and his brother, Nathan U, I. were very close. Both served in the Revolution. Both married in Sunn's township and there your ancestor Whitney U and his first cousin Gilbert U, my ancestor were born in 1793 and 1792 respectively.

About 1802 Moses & Nathan moved their young families to the border of Wake County and Cratham County, North Carolina. Moses settled just across the line in Cratham and Nathan settled just inside Wake at Green Level. The Lynchburg Enclave these two brothers created is still heavily populated with Lynchburgers and their descendants and I have studied it intensively and continue to do so. Your ancestor Nancy A. U and her 2nd cousin, my grandfather, Bartley Jefferson U <sup>born 1841</sup> were both born and grew to adulthood. Bartley served in the Civil War and subsequently moved to Northern Wake County and then about 1870 to Smyth Creek Township south of Raleigh where my father was born in 1880 and I was born in 1928.

Hope I haven't overloaded you.

I offer a partial commentary on the enclosed census extract sheet. The census records are coded [A] → [K]

Four of them [C] [D] [E] & [F] are for different 1870 households

[A] is a little hard to read but I feel it includes

William Hobby age 34

Nancy Hobby age 35 [NANCY A. W.]

Baxter Hobby age 4

Araminta Hobby age 1

[B] Nancy now seems to be head of the household with husband William not present. In the home are what appear to be her five children. In spite of lack of exact correspondence I propose that E.B. in 1860 is Baxter in 1850 and that L.V.R. in 1860 is Araminta in 1850. J.A., A.M., and L.D. are now at the home in 1860. We must interpret L.D. to be J.D. as he later shows up as Jason Dexter.

[E] In 1870 William Hobby is no longer married to Nancy but is married to Leahy. Note that their oldest child was born about 1857 whereas the youngest child in [B] was born in 1855. One might speculate that William & Nancy separated between these two dates. This is not a certainty - just one line of reasoning.

I speculate that [E] represents the same property as [B] in that a Benjamin Yelverton link next door in both cases - see highlight. My further study of this matter convinced me that the name Benjamin was incorrectly derived from "BEN" which actually stood for BENNETT A. UPDEVAULT, a brother of Nancy.

In 1870 there is the unusual, but not unheard of situation, in which a person appears in two households on the same census - In this case note Dexter in [D] and [F]

I will not carry this review further at this time but will await your comments. Census records are valuable but often have inconsistencies that need to be resolved. It is helpful to bring other data to bear whenever possible.

I most likely have gone astray in some manner in what I have presented and am anxious to have the insight of others in order that we may ever move to a more correct presentation of our heritage.

It would appear that amount of land, amount of purchase price, and adjoining property owners are the same as the deed above. By a sequence of land sales, Richard Massey systematically disposed of some 750 acres between 1803 and 1807 & by deed of gift, the plantation on which he made his home, containing 515 acres, in 1813. Comment: additional research is required for ownership of land in Wake/Franklin Counties for Richard.

Page 10 On September 22, 1779, Timothy Ryal Medlin was issued a land grant by the State of North Carolina for 200 acres on Buck Branch in Franklin County.

On October 29, 1779, Timothy Ryal Medlin sold to John Gay 100 acres in Franklin County adjoining land that had been previously owned by Edward Haithcock, Frances Bradley, and Nathaniel Carter.

In 1779, William Owen Medlin (Jr.) was included on a tax list in Wilkes County.

Page 11 In 1780, Bryan(t) Medlin, Sr., Bryan(t) Medlin, Jr., Benjamin Medlin, Nicholas Medlin, and William (Owen) Medlin, Sr. were listed as taxpayers in Dobbs County. Bryant Medlin, Sr., Bryant Medlin, Jr., and Benjamin Medlin were living in 1780 in Captain John Granger's district of Dobbs County, which included the townships of Contentnea Neck, Vance, and Sandhill, on the north side of the Neuse River, above Kinston, in what became Lenoir County in 1791.

As best as can be determined from inconsistent census data, Bryant Medlin, Jr. must have been born around 1764, probably in Bute (Franklin) County, North Carolina.

In 1781, Timothy Ryal Medlin purchased land from Abraham Rogers in Franklin County.

On September 13, 1782 in Franklin County, Martin Hall sold to Alexius Mador Foster 340 acres on Crooked Creek joining Shadrach Medlin, William Taunt, John Dent, Jesse Horn, and Giles Driver.

On December 25, 1782, Timothy Ryal Medlin sold to Frances Bradley the 100 acres in Franklin County previously owned by Edward Haithcock.

In 1782, William Owen Medlin (Jr.) was included in a tax list in Wilkes County.

On March 30, 1784, Bryant Medlin (Jr.) bought 150 acres of land from Benjamin Sellers on the north side of Bawdy Swamp in Johnston County, adjacent to Colonel Williams, John Whitley, Joseph Edwards, and Richard Warren, the sale of which was witnessed by Benjamin Medlin and Benjamin Williams, Jr. ↑

On September 14, 1784, Bryant Medlin sold 150 acres on the north side of Bawdy Swamp in Johnston County to Richard Warren, witnessed by Benjamin Medlin. Both of these deeds were admitted into Johnston County Court records on December 2, 1784, with Needham Bryant, William Avera, and Richard Warren present as justices.

In 1784, Bryan(t) Medlin (Jr.) and Nicholas Medlin were listed as taxpayers in Johnston County in Captain Joseph Boon's Company.

On September 9, 1784, in Moore County, Joel Medlin entered 100 acres on south side of Lower Little River bordering Robert Smith.

Between 1785 and 1787 in Moore County, Thomas Woods and Fereby Medlin were issued a marriage license, with John Medlin posting security.

On May 31, 1785, Bryan(t) Medlin is listed in Johnston County Court as insolvent.

In 1786, William (Owen) Medlin (Sr.) appears on a Johnston County tax list.

BENJAMIN M. WILLIAMS was born in Raleigh, N. C., August 21, 1820, and brought under religious influences. In 1838 he professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Church, under Rev. Edward Wadsworth, D. He was steadfast in his profession, consistent in his life, devout in his religion. He had a general academic education, and was admitted on to the North Carolina Conference in 1842, ordained deacon by Bishop Soule in 1844, and elder by Bishop Capers in 1846. He was a preacher of considerable ability; highly esteemed by his brethren; popular and useful wherever he labored. By the transfer of Danville District to the Virginia Conference in 1858 he was made a member of that body. Before this he had been subject to epileptic fits of great severity, which disqualified him from itinerant work. After his transfer he was able to serve the Church on account of his affliction, and was known only as a supernumerary preacher. In 1845 he was happily married to Miss Caroline Van Hook, of Person County, N. C., a most estimable lady, who was indeed a helpmeet for him in his work and in his affliction. She, with seven children, survives him, weighed down with infirmity and sorrow. In 1859, seeing no hope of regaining his health, he removed to Texas. At the time of his death he had his home in Grayson County, where he died November 28, 1886. He was employed one or two years as a supply in Texas, but being partially paralyzed, he was compelled to remain at home. One who knew him in Texas says: "He was a man of great moral influence. Meet him when you might, there was always sunshine about him. He was very much respected and loved by his neighbors. He was a good man who has passed from earth to heaven leaving many warm friends to mourn his loss." It should be added he was refined in manners, simple and childlike in spirit, pure speech, magnetic in conversation. Great is our loss in the death of such a man, but another is added to the redeemed host.

EDGAR HERNDON PRITCHETT was born at Danardsville, in Orange (now Greene) County, Va., September 4, 1823, and was the son of Mr. Robert Pritchett. His mother was the daughter of Captain Alexander Hunton, of Madison County. Brother Pritchett made a profession of religion in his native place in 1856, and connected himself with the Methodist Church, South, under the ministry of the Rev. D. J. C. Laughter, then in charge of Madison Circuit. Realizing that it was his duty to declare the glad tidings of salvation, he applied for a license as a local preacher, which was granted him by the Quarterly Conference at Madison Court-house October 1, 1857. He was received on trial as a traveling preacher by the Virginia Annual Conference, at Lynchburg, November 17, 1859, with a class of twenty others. Though not thrown with him to a great extent, yet, we being classmates, the writer was permitted to know him quite well. After commencing his ministerial career he was harassed by doubts as to his call to the sacred office. In furnishing data for Dr. Lafferty's "Sketches of the Virginia Conference," in 1880, he explains how his doubts were removed in his first year: "This was a blessed year to me. All my fears in regard to my call to the ministry by the great Head of the Church happily vanished before the spiritual experience it was my blessed privilege richly to enjoy; and the large number of converts during the year confirmed me in the conviction that the Lord God called me to the work." In 1861, having been received into membership by the Conference, he was elected deacon, to which office he was ordained by Bishop James O. Andrew; and in 1863 he was graduated to the office of elder, receiving ordination at the hands of Bishop George F. Pierce. From his first appointment as junior preacher on Nelson Circuit through the succeeding years, including his last charge, the signs of an apostle were seen in him. Great success attended his ministry. In every charge extensive revivals attested his commission; and the material interests of the Church were also faithfully attended to by him. In 1867, after having served Culpepper Circuit efficiently for four years, his health became so feeble as to require a change. He received the appointment of agent for the Virginia Bible Society for the North-eastern District of the State. At the end of a year, however, his health was sufficiently restored to justify his return to the itinerant ranks, and at the next session he went again into the regular work, and was sent to Bedford Circuit, where, during his four years' service, churches were built and repaired, and there were about five hundred and twenty-five converts. After this, in Campbell, Louisa, and other charges, the Lord continued to bless his labors abundantly. In the fall of 1885, when he was appointed to Eastville Circuit, he was in rather feeble health, seemingly suffering

'Battle of Bulge' vet sought

To the Editor:

I need the help of your readers to locate a resident of the Zebulon area who served with honor in World War II.

Specifically, I am trying to locate Bennie B. Williams, who fought for his country in Belgium and Germany during the "Battle of the Bulge" and beyond. He served in the U.S. Army, 395th Infantry Regiment, 99th Infantry Division. His last known address was Zebulon.

If information pertaining to Bennie is located, please contact: William "Frank" Kyser, 3226 Cawein Way, Louisville, Ky. 40220-1934; phone, (502) 458-5931. Your help in locating this North Carolina native will be deeply appreciated.

The great state of North Carolina should be very proud of her sons, like Bennie, who served and fought with the

99th Infantry Division, which made history in the "Battle of the Bulge."

Also, all veterans, no matter what outfit, who fought in that ungodly battle of the winter of 1944-45 should never, ever worry about not going to heaven: They have already served their time in hell. Amen.

The "Battle of the Bulge" was the biggest and greatest land battle ever fought by U.S. Armed Forces, then and now, with over 1,100,000 troops, total, from both sides committed to the battle on an 80-mile front.

I have exhausted all avenues that I know of to locate Bennie. You are my last hope. Have a good day.

James Theophilus Adams served in Company D, North Carolina 26th Regiment, Confederate States of America, rising from the rank of lieutenant to lieutenant colonel. His picture and an account of his service appear in Chief Justice Walter Clark's History of North Carolina Regiments, Vol. II; in George C. Underwood's History of the Twenty-Sixth Regiment of the North Carolina Troops in the Great War 1861-65; and in Richard B. McCaslin's Portraits of Conflict, a Photographic History of North Carolina in the Civil War. He was in command of the regiment when General Robert E. Lee surrendered at Appomatox, VA; and he signed the paroles of the men. For a period he also commanded General James Johnston Pettigrew's Brigade, during its retreat from Petersburg, VA. His name appears on the Confederate monument in Holly Springs, NC; and a picture of him is on display in the Holly Springs Masonic Lodge.

Following the war he returned to his home in Wake County to farm and become engaged in the lumber business. He and other members of the Adams family bought the timber rights to tracts of land, then set up sawmills to cut and dress the lumber. His home, located near Holly Springs, is still (August 2000) standing. It is pictured on page 364 of Kelly A. Lally's book, The Historic Architecture of Wake County, North Carolina, and is incorrectly identified as the home of "Col. David Adams" (his brother).

His birth, marriage and death dates are given in a family Bible, and photostats of those pages are included in these papers. He was named as Lucy Ann Beckwith's husband in Green Beckwith's will, Wake County, NC, Record of Wills, Book A, 1878-1884.

BUD

WILLIAMS

The Zebulon Record THUR 5 DEC 1991 Zebulon, NC

Fire creates loss

It was about 13 years ago that Bud and Bea Williams retired from the rat race of working for the public.

They decided to open a small tavern just west of Lizard Lick. During these 13 years, they encountered only a few problems and a few break-ins.

This past month, the tavern was broken into several times, so Bud installed an alarm system. It was about 5:30 a.m. when I received a call that Bea's Place was on fire.

I grabbed my camera and took off. By the time I got there, the roof was falling in. The door had been broken open and the alarm went off, but the thieves set fire to the place as they fled the building. There were three places burned that night.

I spoke to Bud. He said he had no insurance at all and this was going to hurt them financially because they had most of their retirement in this small business.

They were enjoying life in their late 60s, just meeting the people that stopped in.

"We are friendly to everyone in the community, and I can't understand why anyone would do a thing like this," said Bud. Their grandson, Scott, said with the help of friends he would rebuild the store so his grandparents would be able to enjoy life as in the last years.

Knowing Bud and Bea, they won't ask for a handout. But if you want to lend a hand, call me at the town hall in Lizard Lick, 365-6648.

NOTES

12:30-1:00. I inspected  $\Delta$  OAKVIEW - old plantation next to the Olivia Haney Library. Could not get in house - The hours are OPEN TUE-SAT 10-4; SUN 1-4; Closed MONDAY. I walked around the house, the outside Plank Kitchen, The Gin House & the Barn. The Gin House has a nice display of cotton planters, fertilizer distributors, etc. that I am interested in.

There are some plans left from an original 300  $\Delta$  Acre Grove. The John P. Wyatt family owned the farm 1890-1940 but did not live there. There was a JONES & a JOHNSON family involved. Need to sort them out. A plaque at the Graveyard reads:

WILLIAMS FAMILY BURIALS

- $\Delta$  1. BENTON S. WILLIAMS 1799-1870
- $\Delta$  2. BURCHET P. WILLIAMS 1807-1886
- $\Delta$  3. JOHN Q. WILLIAMS 1831-APT 1866
- $\Delta$  4. LOLA V. RIGGAN 1880-1884
- $\Delta$  5. MICHAEL H. RIGGAN, JR 1882-1886
- $\Delta$  6. JOSEPH H. RIGGAN 1885-1886

Inside the Chancel Cemetery there are 2 stones

- Reference #1 there is the added marker erected by BETSY J. SHAW (The stone inscription actually reads 28 JAN 1800 - 17 JUL 1870)
- $\Delta$  Reference #2 added marker: erected by MARY VIRGINIA JOHNSON.

O Descendants of William Utley, Sr & Elizabeth
 Turner of Wake Co, NC
 (50, Pg 14-16)

I. William Utley, Sr

A. John Utley

1. William Utley

25. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> UTLEY (JOHN<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>)<sup>69</sup>. Born, circa 1782, in Wake County, North Carolina. Died, circa 1828, in Wake County, North Carolina. Occupation: FARMER. Reference: TEXT. Some records list William's marriage to Fanny Williams as taking place in 1807, however it must have been prior to 1800 as their daughter Temperance was born in 1801. Tradition states that there was an older daughter who died at birth and Temperance was named after this infant girl. Probate records list the division of Negroes among William's widow and children as follows:

Negro Value Fanny (widow) Squire 400.00 Temperance (wife of W. Utley) Green 335.00 Thomas Brinkley 375.00 Nancy Amy Anakah & Toby 300.00 Caroline Chainy & Willis 325.00 Mary Wilson 250.00 Elizabeth Daniel 275.00 Sanders Dilcey & Sarah 285.00 Young William Rachel & Henderson 300.00 Martha Phyllis & Clarkey 325.00

William's year of birth has also been listed as 1790.

He married<sup>70</sup> FRANCES WILLIAMS <FANNY><sup>71</sup>, daughter of BURWELL WILLIAMS and MARY PICKNEY, 1807, in Chatham County, North Carolina, <approx>. Born, 17 Jan 1790, in Chatham County, North Carolina. Died, 28 Jun 1853, in Wake County, North Carolina. In later years Frances lost her eyesight. Children:

- + 112 i. TEMPERANCE W.<sup>4</sup> UTLEY.
- 113 ii. THOMAS C. UTLEY<sup>72</sup>. Born, circa 1803, in Wake County, North Carolina. He married<sup>15</sup> EMELINE ATKINS<sup>73</sup>, daughter of C. ATKINS in Wake County, North Carolina. Reference: TEXT. The 1870 Census shows Thomas and Emeline living in Swift Creek Township. The personal estate was valued at $300.00 and the land was valued at $1500.00. They had no children.
- 114 iii. CAROLINE UTLEY<sup>74</sup>. Born, circa 1805, in Wake County, North Carolina.
- + 115 iv. ALEXANDER SANDERS UTLEY.
- + 116 v. TURNER C. UTLEY.

- 111 vii. TEMPERANCE W. UTLEY. Died in Infancy. Temperance apparently died shortly after birth.
- 117 viii. MARY UTLEY<sup>75</sup>. Born, circa 1813, in Wake County, North Carolina. She married<sup>15</sup> EDWIN G. WOOD<sup>15</sup>, 5 Jan 1833, in Wake County, North Carolina.
- 118 ix. ELIZABETH UTLEY<sup>76</sup>. Born, circa 1815, in Wake County, North Carolina. She married TROY G. WILSON, 3 Feb 1840, in Wake County, North Carolina. Reference: TEXT. Elizabeth died sometime in the 1860's.
- 119 x. YOUNG WILLIAM UTLEY<sup>77</sup>. Born, circa 1821, in Wake County, North Carolina. Died, Jun 1860, in Wake County, North Carolina. Reference: TEXT. In the probate records of William Utley, Turner C. Utley was appointed guardian of his younger siblings. In Feb 1844, Young William was nearing 21 years of age. At that time a petition was placed in Wake County Superior Court to appoint a guardian for Young William as he was "an idiot, completely incapable of caring for himself or his estate". On 24 Feb 1844, Turner C. Utley was reappointed guardian of his brother Young William and remained so until Young's death in 1860. In 1856, the estate of Young William was valued at $2,288.34. Probate of William Utley 1808, Film # 1651072, Mormon Genealogical Library
