related to I & X above: Nathan U, I, Head of Clan, m. d. (?)
Mockey - -, thought to have been Mockey Johnson, possibly D/O Julia Johnson. I speculate that somehow the proposed Mockey Johnson could be related to the above families of JOHNSON, LAMBETH, & LASATER considering that she had grandchildren with given names of MARIAN, LAMBETH & LASATER More especially note that Mockey had a grandson (my great uncle) LAMBETH LASATER UPCHURCH - an unlikely combination of given names unless tied to earlier related family members.

A descendant of John Williams has recorded the fact that a young teacher and minister's daughter, Sarah Adeline Howell, was reluctant to accept his proposal of marriage because his farm was too close to the New Ruin tavern and race track, and that he sold the property and bought land farther away before they were married in 1857. WAKE COUNTY CIVIL ACTION PAPERS CONCERNING LAND - PART 1

Abstracted by Diane L. Richard PG 8

FROM: WAKE TREASURES Vol 20 No 1 WINTER/SPRING 2010

Few early deed records survive for Wake County. When combined with the cessation of land grants from 1763-1778, we find a dearth of early Wake County land records. One interesting set of records that do survive (though not in their entirety) are Civil Action Papers (CAPs) Concerning Land. These are a subset of the CAPs series at the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh. These are extant court papers where there was an issue concerning land. The originals can be found in C.R.099.325.93 (1773-1793). The surviving paperwork up to the year 1800 will eventually be abstracted and included in Wake Treasures.

You will note that the timing of many of these is in 1778. This would have been the first time that one could file for a land grant in about fifteen years. During those years, many moved to Wake County, made improvements on land, bought and sold land, and yet no land grants were issued. So, as soon as the land grant process was re-instituted by the State of NC, there were a lot of land grant entries made, and this caused a lot of caveats to also be filed.

○ From "The Unkramer Family" in Profile System
Entry 25 AUG 1983 - Page 4, 5, 6.

△+□+□ John, the son of John Robert and Lucy Utley Williams, was born Jan. 4, 1828. (Family Bible.) In 1850, when he was twenty-two, he received the slave Mary and her child named Mat from his father, along with an interest in the family land on Beaver Creek and the stock, tools, etc. The slaves of John Williams listed in the family Bible included Mary, George, Lydia, Elisha, and Catherine.

△ As a young man John Williams, though a landowner, worked for a time in a tavern by the picturesque name of New Ruin. He fell in love with Sarah Adeline Howell, the daughter of a Baptist preacher who lived a few miles away on a road known as the Jenks road or the Buttermilk Road. Sarah Adeline was a teacher. She liked John but did not like the location of his farm, which was too near the tavern and a mile of country road often used for horse races and gander pullings. Before they were married John sold the farm he had inherited and bought the land later owned by his children and then by his grandson, T. Lacy Williams. He and Sarah Adeline were married on Dec. 17, 1857, according to the Wake County marriage records; on Dec. 22, 1857, according to the entry in the family Bible.

There are two possessions in the family which belonged to John and Sarah Adeline Williams. One is the old family Bible, with many marginal notes and entries in her handwriting. She was left-handed. The other is a sideboard, which was also used later in the homes of

Charles F. Williams and T. Lacy Williams. A corner cupboard which matches the sideboard was made from a walnut tree which grew in Sarah Adeline's yard. The sideboard was in the John Williams home when two or three soldiers from Sherman's army appeared at the farm. The soldiers broke open the locked drawers with their bayonets, while a valiant negro woman servant tried to run them away with her broom. The drawers at the time held nothing more valuable than candles.

When these soldiers left the farm they jumped their horses over a rail fence and one of them was thrown from his horse and killed. The others rode away, leaving the body. It was not a safe time for a North Carolina farm family to be found with the body of one of Sherman's soldiers, so he was hastily buried in an unmarked grave. The location of his grave has long since been forgotten.

The sideboard was refinished and the broken locks repaired by a Raleigh cabinet maker named Peatch shortly before World War II. The week after he returned it, local papers carried a news article referring to him as a German spy and he left town.

The house in which John and Sarah Adeline Williams lived belonged later to their son John Robert Williams (the "Uncle Bob" referred to earlier), who lived in Clayton. A negro tenant was killed in the house and it got the reputation of being haunted. Tenants refused to live in it and Uncle Bob let it tumble down. Now there is nothing left except the old well, the trees in the yard, a pile of stones from the chimney, and some white narcissus, day lilies, and Spanish bayonet which Sarah Adeline planted.

John and Sarah Adeline Williams are buried in their family burying ground a short distance from the site of their home. The cemetery is enclosed by a fence and the graves are marked. Buried with them are their daughters Sallie and Cloey, who died young, and a boy named Jeff whom Sarah Adeline took into her home after her husband died. He had tuberculosis, which Sarah Adeline contracted from nursing him and which caused her death as well as his.

Sarah Adeline Williams is said to have been a small woman with blue eyes and light hair. She was a great talker and a devout Christian. John Williams is said to have been a tall man. He was an upright citizen, a good farmer, a hard worker, a good manager, and one of the leading citizens in his community. Like his wife, he was charitable. There was a needy widow in the neighborhood with a number of children, and John Williams and two other men assumed the burden of supporting the family. Whenever she needed meat, meal, or any other necessity, she sent one of her children to one of these three men in rotation, and always received what she asked for. John Williams did not believe in show, however, or in wasting money. His daughter Callie still complained in her old age because he never built a fine house when in her opinion he was amply able. He is said to have been stern, serious, rather stubborn--not much like his father, who enjoyed getting drunk at a corn shucking, gambling on almost anything, feasting on salt herring, or taking part in any other amusement offered. Perhaps John was like his mother, Lucy Utley Williams.

The children of John and Sarah Adeline Williams were Callie Victoria, Charles Fabius (born July 25, 1860), John Robert, Sallie, and Cloey. John Robert Williams lived to be past seventy-five but never married. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, became a teacher first and then a lawyer. He was once a member of the State Legislature. He was a trustee of the University and lived at Clayton, N. C. Sallie died as a young woman, Cloey as a child. Callie Victoria married John Luther. Her children were two daughters named Mamie and Willie, and a son named John. Mamie was a teacher at Apex and never married. Willie married a Mr. Curran at Oxford, John Grace Beckwith. Neither had any children.

The family Bible has this entry:

"Jone Williams departed this life on the 25th of April, 1884. He had the pneumonia and other diseases. He was a member of Olive Chapel Baptist Church. He was also a Confederate soldier. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh and blessed is the name. It is hard to give up those we love so well but the brightest blessings take their flight. So did he."

This entry is signed "Sarah A."

REC'D IN LTR 25 AUG THE WILLIAMS FAMILY
1983 REBEKAH WILLIAMS U

TO RPU

(A History Prepared for the Descendants of Charles F. Williams
and Annie Johnson Williams, Wake County, N. C.)

BY ANNE JACKSON WILLIAMS 25 DEC 1947 RALEIGH, NC

The first Williams in this line to come to America, according to family tradition, was born in Wales. It is said that in one section of Wales the name is so common that a Williams must be identified by at least three distinguishing characteristics. He is referred to not merely as tall John Williams, or the tall John Williams with black hair, but as the tall, black-haired John Williams who lives by the church.

This first Williams, so Uncle Bob Williams said, was a weaver by trade. One fall his cottage burned down with a year's weaving inside. This was before the age of factories and it was the practice for a weaver to buy his wool, spin and weave it in his own home, and sell his cloth either on a monthly market day or at an annual fair in the nearest town. The Williams who lost his home, his working capital, and his year's income at one blow was so overcome by the catastrophe that he enlisted in the English army and came to America with General Braddock to fight in the French and Indian War in 1755. When the war was over, the soldiers were offered free land to induce them to settle in the colonies, and the weaver stayed.

Another Williams, either the son or the grandson of this first one, came down into North Carolina and married a woman with some land of her own. (This is still family tradition, as handed down by Uncle Bob.) The couple are said to have had four sons before this Williams became dissatisfied in North Carolina and wanted to move on and take up free land in Tennessee. (Uncle Bob said he got a grant of land for his services in the Revolution, but the move to Tennessee seems to have been made too long after the Revolution for this to have been the explanation.) The wife refused to leave her home in a settled

of Wake County"; by Marshall DeJamey Haywood

In 1835 and again in 1841 the United States Government published lists of soldiers of the Revolution who were pensioned for services in that war. At the risk of being tedious, I give the Wake County lists in full. Persons desiring a statement of the war record of any veteran herein named can obtain the same free of charge by addressing a request therefore to the Commissioner of Pensions, at Washington City. Except when other wise designated, persons mentioned were privates in the service of North Carolina. Some of the names are spelled differently on the two lists, and these variations I have indicated below. The list published in 1835 was as follows: Berthett ALLEN, James ADAMS, Philip ADAMS, James AMES, John AMOS, Christopher BABB, James BROWN, Jesse BRYANT (Virginia), William BURTON (or William H. BURTON), Jacob BYRUM, Benjamin CARPENTER, James CHRISTIAN 2nd, William CLIFTON, George COLE, Robert DODD, Reuben EVANS, John GREEN, Jesse HARRIS (or HORRIS), James HUGHES (Virginia), Thomas JINKS (Corporal), Francis JONES, Vincent KING, Joshua LYNCH, David MABRY, Jesse MANUEL, John MARR, Shadrach MEDLIN, Naaman MILLS, James NANCE, senior (Virginia), Jesse OSBORN, Drury PITTIFORD (Virginia), William POLK (Major), Elisha POPE (Virginia), Frederick RIGSBY (or RIGSBEE), Thomas ROSS, John RHODES, Aaron ROBERTS, Robert SNEED (Virginia), Joseph SHAW (Pennsylvania), Isaac SMITH, Samuel STANDEFORD (Virginia), Samuel SCARBOROUGH, senior, (Virginia), Jonathan SMITH, senior (Captain), John SHERRON, John SWENNEY, William TATE, Nathan UPCHURCH, William WILDER, Burrell (or Burwell) WHITEHEAD, John WALKER, John WILLIAMS, and Jesse WALL. In addition to the above, the list of 1841 gives the following names, without indicating rank, or State in which they served: James HARWARD, Thomas HOLLAND, Richard PIPEN, William SLEDD, Rufus WILLIE, and William WOOD. Some of these veterans were dead before lists were published. Joel TERRELL, whose name also appears on the pension roll of 1835, appears to have rendered his military service in the United States Army after the Revolution - possibly in the War of 1812.

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

THE FAMILY of JOHN MARSHALL WILLIAMS & ELIZABETH UPCHURCH
Mark's Creek Township, Wendell, North Carolina

John Marshall Williams - born c. 1810-12, in Chatham, Wake or maybe even Franklin County. Parents unknown, but believed to have had a brother or nephew named Jefferson Williams (appearing on 1850 census in Wake County's Marks Creek Township) Marshall married c. 1832 to Elizabeth Upchurch, born March 1808, Chatham County to Gillium Upchurch & Sarah Smith. Marshall died between July-November 1865 and Elizabeth sometime after the 1900 census, where she is listed at 92 years old. The couple are buried in the Williams Family Cemetery in Knightdale, Wake County, NC.

Elizabeth's sister Harriett Upchurch was born c. June 1812. She never married and lived most of her life with JM & Betsy Williams until her death on January 15, 1882, and is buried beside her sister in the family cemetery.

The Known Descendants of John Marshall Williams & Elizabeth Upchurch

A. Lucian Bonaparte Williams, CSA - born November 13, 1833, born Chatham or Wake County, NC. Married Arthelia A.R. Scarborough, daughter of George W. Scarborough and his Eliza Ellis on 28 Nov 1854, Wake County, NC. Killed in Battle of Petersburg on 27 October 1864, site of burial unknown (possibly Confederate Cemetery, Blanford Church in Petersburg, VA). Arthelia married Larkin A Smith on February 4, 1866, in Wake County. Arthelia passed away on November 3, 1888, but her gravesite is not known. Both the Williams and Scarborough family cemeteries have unmarked graves, so either might hold her remains.

12:30-1:00. I inspected  $\Delta$  OAKVIEW - Old Plantations next to the Olivia Haney Library. Could not get in house - The hours are OPEN TUE-SAT 10-4; SUN 1-4; Closed MONDAY. I walked around the house, the outside Plank Kitchen, The Gin House & the Barn.

The Gin House has a nice display of cotton planters, fertilizers distribution, etc that I am used to. There are some plans left from an original 300  $\Delta$  Ace Grove. The John P. Wyatt family owned the farm 1890-1940 but did not live there. There was a JONES & a JOHNSON family involved. Need to sort them out. A plaque at the Graveyard reads:

1983 REBEKAH WILLIAMS U

TO RPU

(A History Prepared for the Descendants of Charles F. Williams
and Annie Johnson Williams, Wake County, N. C.)

BY ANNE JACKSON WILLIAMS 25 DEC 1947 RALEIGH, NC

The first Williams in this line to come to America, according to family tradition, was born in Wales. It is said that in one section of Wales the name is so common that a Williams must be identified by at least three distinguishing characteristics. He is referred to not merely as tall John Williams, or the tall John Williams with black hair, but as the tall, black-haired John Williams who lives by the church.

This first Williams, so Uncle Bob Williams said, was a weaver by trade. One fall his cottage burned down with a year's weaving inside. This was before the age of factories and it was the practice for a weaver to buy his wool, spin and weave it in his own home, and sell his cloth either on a monthly market day or at an annual fair in the nearest town. The Williams who lost his home, his working capital, and his year's income at one blow was so overcome by the catastrophe that he enlisted in the English army and came to America with General Braddock to fight in the French and Indian War in 1755. When the war was over, the soldiers were offered free land to induce them to settle in the colonies, and the weaver stayed.

Another Williams, either the son or the grandson of this first one, came down into North Carolina and married a woman with some land of her own. (This is still family tradition, as handed down by Uncle Bob.) The couple are said to have had four sons before this Williams became dissatisfied in North Carolina and wanted to move on and take up free land in Tennessee. (Uncle Bob said he got a grant of land for his services in the Revolution, but the move to Tennessee seems to have been made too long after the Revolution for this to have been the explanation.) The wife refused to leave her home in a settled country and in the end they divided what they had, even the children. The husband is supposed to have taken the two older boys and all the slaves, leaving the two younger sons and all his land. Hubert P. Williams met a descendant of the Tennessee branch of the family in Washington during the first World War. Some of that branch are said to have gone west with the Mormons.

△ John Robert Williams was one of the sons who remained in North Carolina. He was commonly known as Robin, signed his name as Robert, and sometimes referred to himself as Bill Dick. With him we come to actual records.

There are two legal papers on records which may refer to the father of this Robin Williams. One is a deed made Feb. 17, 1813, to Richard Olive by John Williams for one acre of land "lying and being on the south side of Big Bever Creek" in Wake County, for the sum of ten dollars. The other is a deed dated Aug. 31, 1829, from John Williams to Robert Williams for all his land, stock, and other personal property, including negroes, tools, etc. (Book 9, page 159, Wake County Registry.) This may have been a deed from the father who went to Tennessee to the son who stayed in North Carolina.

△ The John Robert Williams who stayed in Wake County married Lucy Utley, the daughter of Brittain Utley of Buckhorn Township, who died in 1823 and whose will is on record. (Will Book 11, page 168, Wake County.) The will is dated July 13, 1813, and gives "to my daughter Lucy Utley one negro girl named Tempy, also one bed and furniture." It refers to his wife as Polly. The marriage of Brittain Utley to Mary Buckaby on Feb. 18, 1788, is on record. At that time Polly was a common nickname for Mary.

An interesting story is told of Robin and Lucy. One day when he was not yet twenty-one he went to the mill at Holly Springs, a considerable distance from his home. While a slave did the grinding, Robin and the miller amused themselves with a gambling game called "the royal game of fox and goose," played with red and white grains of corn. According to Uncle Bob Williams, the miller was Lucy's father and he wanted Robin's fine saddle horse, so he offered to wager Lucy's hand in marriage and her dowry of six negroes against the horse. Perhaps the miller was Lucy's brother Sion Utley, who was executor of his father's will. Lucy had inherited one negro girl in 1813 when Brittain Utley died, and this was probably somewhere about 1824, so perhaps the number had increased. Anyway, Robin won the game, went up to the miller's house to take a look at the girl, liked her well enough, and began his courtship. We don't know whether she knew anything about the wager before her marriage, but she must have been teased about it the rest of her life.

Robin and Lucy Williams lived in Wake County, not far from Olive Chapel Church. A few years ago their old house was still standing, though a little off the present road. The family burying ground, in which Lucy is thought to be buried, is near the old house, but the graves are not marked and the enclosure has grown up in large cedars.

Lucy must have been an unusually strong woman. It is said she could stand in a bushel measure and shoulder a half-barrel of corn.

Robin Williams was a colorful character. He was a born trader. Uncle Bob said while Robin was still a half-grown boy he once went to muster with a deer knife in his pocket. Before the day was over he had accumulated a number of other articles and also had his deer knife back. He and Lucy prospered. He became a slave trader and sometimes made trips as far away as New Orleans. On one occasion he gave a corn shucking at which a jug was passed around. Someone became afraid he would kick over the lantern, but he said: "Old Bill Dick always knows what he's doing! He's not going to burn his own barn down." On another occasion he ate salt herring with such gusto that his cook exclaimed, "Marse Robin's et eighteen herring, feathers, guts, and all!"

In time Lucy died and John Robert Williams decided to marry again. Before making the second marriage he made a property settlement on Lucy's children (Book 18, page 505, Wake County Registry of Deeds) and then moved to a new home three miles away, to a better house than the one in which Lucy had lived. This deed was made a share in the land and a negro slave named Mary. This slave lived to be very old and was known to the children of Charles F. Williams as "Old Aunt Mary Williams." She claimed to be over a hundred before she died, about the beginning of the first World War, but the list of family slaves in the family Bible shows that she was born in 1821.

An entry in the family Bible says Amos Williams, "the son of Robert and Lucy Williams, died at the hospital at Gordonsville July 14, 1864. He got wounded at Sharpsburg 1862 and came home and then went back to his command. He belonged to the 1st North C. (an illegible word) Com. G." There is also a family tradition that Linsey Williams, John's oldest brother, was killed in the same battle in which Stonewall Jackson was killed.

John, the son of John Robert and Lucy Utley Williams, was born Jan. 4, 1828. (Family Bible.) In 1850, when he was twenty-two, he received the slave Mary and her child named Mat from his father, along with an interest in the family land on Beaver Creek and the stock, tools, etc. The slaves of John Williams listed in the family Bible included Mary, George, Lydia, Elisha, and Catherine.

As a young man John Williams, though a landowner, worked for a time in a tavern by the picturesque name of New Ruin. He fell in love with Sarah Adeline Howell, the daughter of a baptist preacher who lived a few miles away on a road known as the Jenks road or the Buttermilk Road. Sarah Adeline was a teacher. She liked John but did not like the location of his farm, which was too near the tavern and a mile of country road often used for horse races and gander pullings. Before they were married John sold the farm he had inherited and bought the land later owned by his children and then by his grandson, T. Lacy Williams. He and Sarah Adeline were married on Dec. 17, 1857, according to the Wake County marriage records; on Dec. 22, 1857, according to the entry in the family Bible.

There are two possessions in the family which belonged to John and Sarah Adeline Williams. One is the old family Bible, with many marginal notes and entries in her handwriting. She was left-handed. The other is a sideboard, which was also used later in the homes of 1995 ended with a fabulous celebration birthday party for Mrs. Cloyce Williams, who was 90 years old on December 26. It was hosted by her four children, Joyce, Tommy, Dorothy and Harold in the fellowship hall of the church on Sunday afternoon, December 31. Over 100 family, friends, former co-workers and neighbors helped make it one of her best birthdays ever.

- ① George Washington U (XID-377) b ca 1829 KY was with John William family when census was taken in Fentress Co TN in 1850. John William seems to be brother of Keeling William. His wife Lydia and Mores, father of George, were brother and sister. (29, pg 70).
- ② 'Rachel' U (XID-142) b ca 1792 m Keeling William who may be progenitor of the Williams families of Wolf River. Keeling, also called Keeton, Kelon and Keeland. Keelon William rec'd a land grant for 50 acres of land on the north fork of the LSF 1 MAY 1822, BK M p 51. The land was sold to Hiram U on 25 FEB 1843 for $100. In 1839 Keeling bought land on Beanes Creek (Bk 4-532). 'Rachel' died sometime before 1844. Keeling William m 18 MAY 1845 Dorothy McClendon. The land on Beanes Creek was sold to George U for $12.50 24 SEP 1846. Deed signed by Keelon + Dorothy William. If his first wife's name had been included on the deed when he sold their share of her father's land to Shadrach U, we would know her first name. John William on the 1850 Census of Fentress Co seems to be the brother of Keeling William. John William, b ca 1794 m 20 MAR 1817 Fannia Bertram dau of Jacob Bertram. Keeling was born ca 1792. In 1850 George U was making his home with John and Fannia William. George was son of Mores U who was a brother of 'Rachel'.

Diligent search has not found sons of Keeling William, although there is a listing for Keeling on the Census of Overton Co TN in 1820 of two males < 10 yrs. There is also an 1820 Wayne Co KY census on which he lists 3 females 10-16 yrs. The 1830 Fentress Co TN Census: Keeland William 1 male 30-40; 1f 30-40; 2f 10-15; 3f 5-10; 2f < 5. So it seems that 'Rachel' and Keeland had at least 7 daughters only 2 of them identified. (29, pg 66, 67). [Margaret Book UPLHURCH STORY pgs 66, 67.]
