NOTE: If all these fits upon remain I need to capture dates for my master outline - RPH

John Carpenter (15712) and Elizabeth Upchurch Carpenter (15111) were the parents/adoptive parents of Simeon Upchurch Carpenter as known by the 1803 legislative action regarding the change in surnames of the five Upchurch children and the 25APR1836 Green Co., AL Orphan's Court record [Orphans Ct., Bk D, p205] naming Simeon as a heir of John Carpenter (15712). The age of Simeon Carpenter can be extrapolated by him being a witness to a 24OCT1809 Franklin Co., NC deed from Benjamin Upchurch (163) to John Carpenter (15712) [Deed Bk 15, p73]. Simeon being at least of legal age of 21 in 1809 would have him born circa 1788.

Buried in Sardis Cemetery in Greene Co., AL is a Simeon Carpenter [22MAY1800/5AUG1860] and his wife Mary M. Carpenter [20OCT1808/20AUG1881]. Recorded in Greene Co., AL is a marriage record between Simeon Carpenter and Polly M. Cherry on 1827. Other court records demonstrate that she was the daughter of Samuel T. Cherry, also buried at the Sardis Cemetery. Based on the dates from the tombstone, it can be shown that the Simeon Carpenter enumerated on the 1830, 1840, 1850, and 1860 censuses is in fact this Simeon Carpenter and not Simeon Upchurch Carpenter. On page 784/394B of the 1830 census he is enumerated on line #5, which is within several lines of other Carpenter associated families, namely Lawrence Williams (line #2) and James B. Tutt (line #6), both husbands of two of John Carpenter's (15712) daughters. Although this would suggest a family association with John Carpenter, I have not found him noted on other records with any known John Carpenter direct family or associated family members. This Simeon Carpenter is also not named as a heir of Simeon Upchurch Carpenter in the 9APR1838 settlement of John Carpenter's (15712) estate [Greene Co., AL Orphan's Ct, Bk D, p390].

Elizabeth Pierce Carpenter is buried at Pleasant Hill Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery in Green Co., AL. Her tombstone notes: "In Memory of Elizabeth wife of Simeon Carpenter Sen. who was born Jan 29, 1789, departed this life March 21, 1855 aged about 66 years. She was an affectionate mother leaving six children to mourn her loss." The "Simeon Carpenter Sen. [Senior]" from the tombstone is an interesting reference, but not to the Simeon Carpenter born in 1800, as Elizabeth would have been only 11 years old and Simeon Upchurch Carpenter only 12 years old (assuming the age extrapolation) when this Simeon Carpenter was born. A biological possibility, but highly unlikely from a social and cultural standpoint. This "Senior" reference could have been made only to differentiate the deceased Simeon Upchurch Carpenter from the other Simeon Upchurch still living at the time of Elizabeth Pierce Carpenter's death. It also could mean that one of Simeon Upchurch Carpenter's sons was a Simeon, although no record has been demonstrated to have used this name in association with one of the sons. Furney Lee Carpenter, son of Simeon Upchurch Carpenter, is documented with two proper names, whereas the other sons seem to only be documented with one proper name. The possibility exists and will require further research. Trying to sort this out and who this other Simeon Carpenter is and his connection to the John Carpenter (15712) family is not the focus of your Upchurch family research, but I just wanted to point him out.

Williams plays in the key of love

By Sandra Freeman
CORRESPONDENT

Ronnie Williams of Pilot performs on many different musical devices, but he accompanies them all with the same instrument: acoustic love.

Using a harmonious blend of skill and passion, the husband, father and maestro shares this gift of sound with his close-knit world. It all starts with a hear and ends with heart.

"I play music by ear," he said. These days, he mostly tickles the piano ivories despite equal abilities on the fiddle, guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, harmonica, steel guitar and the jew's-harp.

"I don't get a chance to play any instrument but the piano," he said recently. "Most of the guys I play with play those instruments also, but I am the only piano player in the crowd."

His stylistic range covers country, gospel, hymns and bluegrass.

Ronnie jams with a group of friends each Thursday night at Willie's barn. Before he was married to wife Marie — who he professes "makes my music better" — he joined a band called The Invictors. That group took the stage at Ed's Hut and Jim Thornton's near Raleigh. The group also gave good shows at Silver Lake in Raleigh.

Ronnie Williams taught himself to play the piano by ear.

But that gig and going solo have been over for 32 years, since he walked down the aisle to the song of forever. "We are still in love after all these years," he said, Marie beside him nodding her head in agreement. Together for three decades, they have a son, Scotty, and a daughter, Lisa.

The minstrel in the head of this local family emerged early for Ronnie, who enjoys plenty of reasons to trumpet his talents.

"I began playing when I was 5 or 6," he said. "Mama said that one day as Daddy (Oliver 'Little G' Williams) was leaving for work, he showed me his steel guitar and said, 'Learn to play this, and I will give it to you.' Upon returning home, I showed him I could play the guitar, and he gave to me."

And he hasn't stopped strumming those strings since.

That inherited ax being his earliest introduction to music, the fiddle was the last. "If I knew then what I know now, I probably would not have picked it up," Marie said. "It has been a challenge to get a nice shine?"

For Ronnie, the glow comes from more of a personal glow.

After leaving the Department of Transportation in 1996 and having Marie join him in a retirement duet in 1997, life has stayed busy. He builds gas and charcoal grills, tinkers with boats, tunes pianos and even hammers out carpentry work.

Anything goes for the couple continually on the go. It's really an ideal relationship they created. He is her great entertainer. She is his greatest inspiration.

So clearly tuned in to each other's feelings, they already realize just how this symphony ends — on a happy note.

Ronnie Williams shows off a refinished fiddle.

The only headstones that I could read at the High House Family Plot west of Cary, NC were those of J. B. & Mary Delany (Alford) Stedman. Around the turn of the century there was a Williams family living in the house who descended from J. B. & M. D. Stedman. I have a photo showing a teenage daughter named Lovie Williams. She later mtd Will Uphurch.
