Several educational institutions were established in Chatham Co, NC including the following:

By a legislative act ratified February 14, 1855, New Hope Academy in Chatham County was incorporated. The trustees named in the act were: E. P. Farrington, Joseph Stone, Joseph Jenkins, John Castleberry, M. D. Williams,[^] Simms Upchurch, Kimbro Council, Henry Williams, G. J. Williams, and George Wynn. This act also stated that "the officers and students of said academy are hereby exempt from military duty, and working upon the public roads." This school was located on the public road leading from Farrington to Martha's Chapel, about one mile west of Martha's Chapel. The school operated until 1868. Among the teachers were John Holt and Major R. W. York.

Green Level landowners against incorporation

By ROBBIE ROBERTSON
Editor

At the heart of the debate over incorporating the area of Green Level is individual property owners' rights.

Some owners of large tracts of land say they'll be left with property that is not developable if Green Level becomes a town. They say Green Level will not be able to provide water and sewer as quickly or efficiently as Apex or Cary.

"If they make Green Level a town we'll never get water and sewer here," said Barbara Beckwith, who is the administrator of a 130-acre estate.

"I've got this land that nobody can do anything with without water and sewer," she added.

Like many landowners, Beckwith said the land isn't slated for development, but would like the opportunity if the need arose.

Beckwith said she had considered trying to develop the property herself, but has not looked into it seriously.

"It takes money to develop land," Beckwith said. "I would like to have some say-so as to how many houses to put on the land."

Beckwith said she had considered a golf course with nice houses around the borders.

Beckwith said she lives on 4.5 acres with a well and septic tank.

She is also served by county fire and rescue units.

Bill Upchurch, who lives on Carpenter-Upchurch Road between Cary and Morrisville, is another landowner who wants to keep his development options open.

Upchurch has 275 acres spread throughout Morrisville and Green Level, most of which consists of tobacco farms. Land development is his last option if the tobacco market collapses.

"We raise tobacco, and we're in kind of a perilous situation with this tobacco, now," Upchurch said, referring to increasing government control over the crop.

"We farm it," he added. "We don't want to sell it."

Upchurch said his property on Carpenter-Upchurch Road is bordered on two sides by Cary and Morrisville. His house is within 100 yards of the new high school.

"I could sell it tomorrow,"

Upchurch said. The 70-year old said he fields at least one call per week from developers hoping to buy his land.

Being in the midst of such prime real estate, Upchurch said annexation was inevitable.

"Someday they'll take us," he said. "Someday we won't raise tobacco."

Upchurch said he hope to pass on his property to his children.

Because of county regulations concerning land perking, Upchurch has not been able to develop any of his land.

Upchurch said one of his children worked all summer trying to get a lot approved.

Upchurch said he prefers water and sewer services (and the taxes they bring) over the uncertainty of getting county approval for land development.

And Upchurch said he prefers an Apex or Cary to a Green Level for cost reasons.

"I don't think (Green Level) could buy water, it's too expensive," Upchurch said. "You can't build those mini systems anymore."

Jim Tate and Chris Smith, the prime organizers of the Green Level Incorporation Movement, have pledged to install water and sewer, if it is the public will.

Many large landowners in Green Level doubt the fledgling town would have enough money to provide such services.

"The law of economics is the strongest law in the world," Upchurch said.

Estimates from Apex's Director of Public Works, Tim Donnelly, put the figure for equipping a "compact town" with water and sewer into the millions of dollars.

A small community of 1,000, starting from scratch, would need to install approximately four miles of water and sewer lines, Donnelly said.

To install the collection system and buy the appropriate capacity would cost $4 million, Donnelly added.

Two employees and equipment would cost $150,000 per year, he said.

Houses in Green Level are often hundreds of yards apart.

Until water and sewer lines are run into the area, landowners are at the mercy of the state and its perking laws.

Wayne Roberts is another Green Level landowner who is battling to have houses on some of his property.

"Ten years ago when I built my house I didn't have any problems with the land perking," Roberts said.

Roberts said his son, Mike, was looking at building on some of his father's land, which will not perk.

Mike has consulted soil scientists and engineers to no avail.

"I just don't see where incorporation is going to do us any good, especially people who down the road may have some place they want to develop," Roberts said.

Roberts said his land has been passed down through the generations, and his father, Hubert, still has a garden, cows and hay on the land.

Wayne Roberts retired after 30 years with IBM in 1995. He currently works with Quality Cable in Fuquay-Varina.

Billy Council, a 63-year-old retired well driller, describes the incorporation movement as a battle between small landowner and large landowner.

"I have not talked to a single person who owns more than 10 acres who is for it," Council said.

Council said one of his neighbor, a recent arrival to the area, was in favor of incorporating.

"She wants to have more input on what to do with my property," Council said.

Council also said that incorporation would be costly, to the new town and to him.

"My property wouldn't be worth nothing," he said.

The town also couldn't afford police protection and water service, he added.

Council described his property as a nest egg, an easy way to convert land into money.

"It's been in my family for years and it's not for sale," Council said. "But I may need to (sell it).

"I want that option to do with it what I want to."

If the time ever came to decide, Council said he would choose annexation over incorporation.

"If I had my druthers, I'd rather be in Cary ten-to-one than Green Level," he said.

Al Beckwith, who owns 145 acres in the area, also described the incorporation movement as large landowner versus small.

"We hate to see somebody come in and say 'You do this' and 'You do that,'" Mr. Beckwith said.

"I'm not for developing Green Level," Mr. Beckwith said. "I want it to stay just like it is."

Mr. Beckwith said he, too, needs water and sewer to develop any of his property.

Mr. Beckwith expressed doubts to whether or not the incorporated town could handle the demand efficiently.

"I'm afraid it'll be years and years before we get anything," he said. "Where are they going to get the money from?"

Eliza Williams, who owns more than 100 acres of land with her husband, Macon, on Green Level Road West, said they're not looking to sell but still oppose incorporation.

"If you're going to pay taxes you might as well get the benefits," Mrs. Williams said.

Even with water and sewer, Mrs. Williams said the land was not on the block.

"I don't think we're looking to sell," she added. "I'd like to keep it in the family."

The Williamses are the fourth generation to live on their land. Their farmhouse was built between 1905 and 1907, and is surrounded by woods and tobacco fields.

Macon Williams farms tobacco and logs trees.

"A lot of people around here build up around their parents," she said.

A farm family who cares

By Teresa Hice
Guest Columnist

Are you tired of hearing unhappy news about the environment? Here is good news about one local farm family that cares and is doing something.

The Wake Soil and Water Conservation District is proud that the James Macon Williams family was chosen as its Conservation Farm Family for 1994. Through their hard work and stewardship of the land, they have made dramatic improvements in how their farming operation affects the environment.

The Williams' have farmed in Green Level, N.C., for almost a century since Macon Williams' grandfather, James Madison Williams, bought the farm in 1903. His father, Jeter James Williams, farmed, cruised timber, and ran a sawmill in the area.

Macon didn't originally intend to be a farmer. With a business and economics degree from Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, he worked for one year at IIT. With his father's health declining, he came home to help on the farm. Since Jeter Williams' death in 1987, Macon has had the help of his sister, Mackie Lambert, and now his children, Dawn and Jimmy. Even with a full-time job, Eliza, Macon's wife, helps on weekends and when timing is critical.

When asked how he got started in conservation, Macon replied, "My father taught me about conservation practices that didn't cost much and could be done with the resources available on the farm -- rotations, grassed waterways, dikes, etc."

Macon Williams has a concern for all the natural resources. His farming operation provides wildlife cover and food, forest management and conservation of the soil and water resources. His chemical management program uses pesticides and fertilizers only when necessary, and only at recommended rates.

His conservation practices have a strong effect on water quality by keeping soil and chemicals from leaving the fields:

- Grassed waterways use permanent vegetation in low spots in the field to filter the sediment from water runoff.

- Field borders perform the same function on the field edges.

- Terraces are used to guide the farmer's planting direction across the slope rather than up and down to slow rainfall runoff and to increase water infiltration into the soil.

- Diversions are similar to terraces but may not be parallel to the row direction.

- Sod-based rotation increases water infiltration and reduces soil erosion by increasing the organic matter in the soil.

- Soil tests guide the fertilization program.

Farmers with a history of working the land are making a difference in the battle to save their natural resources for the future. Wake Soil and Water Conservation District is proud and happy to be helping farmers like Macon Williams protect the environment in this way.

Teresa Hice works with the Wake County Extension office.

Holleman's open Holly Springs restaurant

A dollar bill is framed and mounted behind the cash register, and Holleman's Family Restaurant on NC 55 in Holly Springs is open for business.

Rev. Joe Fiegler of the United Methodist Church in Holly Springs was Gerald and Shirley Holleman's first customer, giving them their first dollar for the business, and word is spreading fast that breakfast, lunch and dinner six days a week is being cooked up for fast service in the restaurant.

Holleman's is open from 6 to 10 a.m. for breakfast when early customers can have eggs, a meat, grits or hashbrowns, toast or biscuits and coffee for $2.75.

Lunch specials offering a meat entree, two vegetables, bread, dessert and tea or coffee are served from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. when the restaurant closes for two hours.

Holleman's reopens from 4:30 to 8 p.m. when a dinner special is served. Both lunch and dinner specials are $4 per plate.

Shirley, who serves as head dessert cook and chips in for the other daily chores says, "We're just having a good time."

Ruth Adams is cook and is assisted by Rosalie Lanier. The front of the shop is manned by Shirley Strickland and Marion Williams. At night, Doris Allen and Beverly Johnson man the kitchen.

Holleman's Family Restaurant is not marked by signs yet, but both the restaurant and the laundry facility next door are open.

A convenience store, located in the same mini shopping center, is owned by Ed Stephenson and also is open.

A grand opening is being planned for all three businesses later in the year.

EXCERPT FROM: HISTORICAL RALEIGH (NC) FROM 1792
 BY: MOSES M. AMIL 1902 - RPU - 3 SEP 2014 Pgs 85, 86, 88

RE: EARLY CHURCHES IN RALEIGH

The Baptists were next to organize a congregation. This was in 1812, and a church building of an humble character was erected on Moore Square, or in what was then known as the Baptist Grove. The bell was of the size and sound of those generally in use by tobacco factories. In this Grove the founders of the First Baptist church worshipped. There is high authority for the statement that the members were accustomed each to take a tallow candle to this humble building in order to produce a "dim, religious light" (so conducive to spirituality, it was thought) for services at night. The membership of the church, says Mr. W. C. Upchurch, was never more than eighteen—seven males and eleven females. Of the former there were Madison Royster, Jas. Nunn, J. D. Briggs, Mark Williams, and W. C. Upchurch; the late Mrs. Alfred Williams was among the female members.

About 1835, owing to differences of opinion among the members, dissension arose, and a new and better edifice was accordingly erected at the southeast corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. The pastors of this church, in the order named, were Revs. Amos J. Battle, Louis Dupree, T. W. Toby, J. J. Finch, G. W. Johnston, T. E. Skinner.

In 1858 the present imposing First Baptist Church was erected. Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, one of our most distinguished theologians (who is yet living and much beloved by all) was the first pastor. The late Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard was another of the early pastors.

Among the members of this church in the old days were, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Miss Lucinda Briggs, P. F. Pescud, J. J. Biggs, Miss Sallie Towles, M. B. Royster, Jas. D. Royster, Lynn Adams, W. D. Williams, Caswell Lee, Jas. D. Nunn, Jordan Womble, Jr., Robert Jones, Miss Selina Jenkins.

A prominent feature of the Sunday School of this church is the Infant Class, which numbers one hundred and sixty-five. The class was organized in 1865, with but twelve pupils. Dr. W. I. Royster was the first teacher in charge. It is now conducted by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dodd and Miss Elizabeth Briggs.

In 1874 a few members of this church, led by Messrs. N. B. Broughton and J. S. Allen, organized a new congregation, and purchased on Swain street a house of worship and denominated it the Second Baptist Church. The congregation assumed in a year or two such proportions that it became necessary to secure a more commodious structure, and a site was accordingly purchased on the corner of Hargett and Person streets, upon which was erected the present edifice, known as the Tabernacle Baptist Church. Its seating capacity is about one thousand. The Sunday School is the largest in the city and its fame in this department of religious work extends throughout the country, due, in a great measure, to the zeal and popularity of Mr. N. B. Broughton, known throughout the State as foremost in all that makes for the advancement—moral and material—of the people.

He lived next door to my cousin Anne Lydia Ollice. She said he wasn't very nice to Eleanor or the three sons. Eleanor was from Mississippi and sang or was choir director at the Episcopal Church. There were three sons but I am not sure which wife was the mother. There were as Anne Lydia recalls Donny, Bill, and a son who was a hippie in California.

○ From St 28 SEP 1999 June Carter to R.P.U. (6)
June expressed much interest in material I sent to her which mentions NATHANIEL CARTER. She reports:

He first appears on the road orders of Brunswick County, Va in 1736. He is in minor court cases in the court order books with John Vinson as his security. He is in in the Parish Book of St Andrews, Va where he is paid for keeping his mother who is unnamed, 1745 to 1752. (It's possible that she was Frances, widow of Thomas Carter who died about 1748 or before). He receives two patents, one in 1746 and one in 1756. He and Elendor sell these two patent in 1761 to Willian Renn and they moves to North Carolina. He has land in Granville County which probably became Bute County. (Some notes I have I am including). On Ratcliff's tax list 2 in 1766 in Bute County is Nathaniel Carter and Abraham Carter.

Nathaniel and Nelly Carter buy 120 acres of land from John Nall in Cumberlan Count in 1767 which they sell to Drury Smith in 1779 and move on to Chatham County. Samuel Northington, a relative of mine, is a witness to this deed. Nathaniel dies in Chatham County in 1782. He leaves a wife unnamed, a son Vinson and two daughters Molly and Lusey. I would like to think he is father to Abraham Carter of Cumberland County but I can't prove that.

I would be interested in the Medlin material. One of Mark Williams's daughters, Arabella Caroline Williams married a W.Q. Rayl in 1865, who was probably from outside of Raleigh. She was back in the City in 1871 when she testified on Mark's claim for property seized in 1865.

(1) Up to now, all that I know of George Washington Atkinson is that his parents were Mose and Mary Atkinson of Isle of Wight, VA and they were both parents were deceased at the time of his second marriage in according to the marriage bond and certificate for his second marriage in G.W., daughter from his first marriage, Elizabeth Georgiana Atkinson, married Sion David Williams, the brother of G.W.'s second wife, Alie M. (Williams) Stephenson. So that G.W. was both brother-in-law and father-in-law to his daughter's husband. Sion David and Eliz.G. (Atkinson) Williams were my great-grandparents. Their daughter, Martha Jane Williams, married Alfred Myatt Smith (my grandparents) and lived most of their lives at Williams Cross Roads in Wake County, NC.

→ SIMON McCLELLAN WILLIAMS

Sion David Williams' father was one of the early grantees of property around the Crossroads area, on both sides of the Old Stage Road up past Swift Creek. I remember the Upchurch name well, and as a matter of fact, sometime in the 1950's to early 60's, after the death of my Grandmother's brother George Williams, Uncle George's children sold their homestead and surrounding farm to a "Rommie" Upchurch who replaced the old frame farmhouse with a lovely brick home on the top of the knoll. That property was on the northeast corner of Williams Cross Roads, kitty-cornered from the Williams Cross Roads Store on the southeast corner that my grandparents lived in and ran for many years.

I remember "Rommie" as a frequent visitor at "the Store". He was one of the neighbors who would stop by to pick up a jug of molasses or some bread or a Coca-Cola and then wander on back to sit by the pot-bellied store and chat for a while with "Mr. Myatt and Ms. Martha". My family only lived in that area intermittently and I never got to know folks in the neighborhood really well, but Rommie Upchurch is one of the many neighbors who I remember pretty well. And I know that Upchurches had been in that area as far back as my mother could remember, though I don't think I knew just what part of the cross roads area they were from.

Hi Cousin Shelly----

Thanks for your inputs which I have now incorporated into my records manually kept. You belong to the Elizabeth U. Line (Your 3rd Gr GM) in the George U/Joseph U. SubClan. I had her son Fleming Williams b June 1859 but nothing more. I have added your inputs and will mail you a copy of the Elizabeth U. Line Master Outline if you will provide a mailing address. We can work together to improve this outline if you so desire.

On my website you will find huge amounts about the George U. Clan including several videos dealing with George and his ancestors;

Now I introduce you to our second website www.alliedfamilies.com password 2014allied#. Here we are doing family history in a more powerful way. Note that we have enrolled the George Upchurch Family. To keep this going we need help from descendants----time/expertise/data/money. I hope you will support this effort. A membership form is enclosed.

I have visited Fentress County, TN where Joseph lived and have given an Upchurch Seminar there. Are you acquainted with the area?

Looking forward to collaboration~

Hello Phil, thank you for the information and link to your research, it is very much appreciated. I have not visited Fentress County yet, but certainly plan to. Many of my ancestors are from Fentress and Pickett Counties in Tennessee.

I have some additional information for you on Fleming Williams.

B. June 1859 In Tennessee
D. 1900 in Pickett County, TN
He married Mary Clementine Huff Crockett. (She was previously married to Marion Crockett (related to the infamous Davy Crockett).

Mary brought one son to her marriage to Fleming named Moses Porter Crockett. Marion Crockett was murdered by a man named Baylor Crabtree, but I am uncertain why.

Hi Shelly----

Thanks for your added inputs which I have now incorporated into my records. I have encountered some conflicting information which is not unusual. You may or may not be able to offer advice. For William Hardin Williams I also have him as Hardin William Williams. Do you have strong evidence for one version or the other? For Jane Crouch b 1806 I note that you carry her as Sarah Jane Crouch. Do have strong evidence for adding the Sarah?

I am prepared now to send you a small packet of information on your part of the Upchurch family. I hope you have been able to study our two websites. If you are in a position to join Allied Families as a 2016 Member it will allow me to be more interactive with you on our shared family history interests.

With appreciation for your cooperation~

Hello Phil, In the 1920 census it lists William as William H. Williams (age 78). In the 1850 census he is listed as Will Williams. I am under the impression he was named William Hardin Williams and went by the nickname of Hardy.

As far as Jane Crouch goes. I am gauging her name to be Sarah based on several Ancestry trees on Ancestry.com that list her as Sarah Jane. She also had a daughter that she named Sarah which could be a namesake. It seems like many people in those days went by there middle names (if they were given one). I assume because there were so many children named after family members. It would get confusing to have dozens of Sarah's or Williams in a family.

I have no concrete proof of Jane's name being Sarah though.

md (2nd) Jane Caroline Crady - 9 children (see elsewhere)
including Annera O. (Ray) & Alfonso Columbus Ray

Buckner Ray (father of Von Ray) was born on May 1, 1818 in Wake County, North Carolina. He was named after his great grandfather on his mother's side, Buckner Pace. Buckner's father, Wormley Rose Ray, drowned in the Neuse River on or about the first of January 1822 when Buckner was only three and a half years old. Buckner's grandfather, Jesse Gill, was appointed guardian of Buckner and his brother, Henry. At the age of 19, Buckner Ray married Midda Lee Lowry on October 14, 1837. A copy of their marriage bond is reproduced on the following page. The Lowry family was among the early settlers of the area that became Wake County. They arrived prior to 1760. Buckner and Midda Lee had three children:

1. Charles W. Ray was born in 1838. On May 1, 1861 at the age of 22, Charles enlisted as a private in the Confederate Army (Company E, 14th North Carolina Regiment). This was his father's 43rd birthday and less than three weeks after cannons fired on Fort Sumter in South Carolina signaling the beginning of the Civil War. When he enlisted, Charles was issued a blanket and a pair of shoes. Pay vouchers reveal Charles was paid thirty three cents per day for his service on behalf of southern causes. He was promoted to corporal on November 13, 1861 after six and one half months of service. Military records commend Charles for his conduct in battle. Charles was 25 when he was killed on November 27, 1863 in the Battle of Silver Run near Payne's Farm in the Mine Run Campaign near Culpeper, Virginia. Charles never married.

2. Zadoc Daniel Ray was born August 10, 1840 and died at age 37 on March 8, 1878. Zadoc volunteered on his twenty-first birthday and served as a 2nd Sergeant in Company D, 30th North Carolina Infantry Regiment, Confederate States of America. Zadoc was wounded at the Battle of Cold Harbor on May 1, 1862 east of Richmond, Virginia and was captured at Kelly's Ford on the Rappahannock River near Culpeper, VA on November 7, 1863. He was imprisoned at Point Lookout, Maryland until after the conclusion of the war (June 17, 1865). Zadoc married Artelia Frances Nipper in 1868 and they had four children:

Zadoc Daniel Ray (1840-1878)

A. Tessie Lee Ray (1871-1939)

Married Wilmer Conrad Betts.

B. Charles Maude Ray (1877-)

Named in honor of her uncle who was killed in the Civil War. Maude married Jesse Thomas Burke. She lived until after 1963.

C. Patrick Ray (- 1951). Married (first) Walena Atkinson and (second) Mina Williams.

D. Hattie Ray (1875 - 1956).

3. Lee Hawkins Ray (1844 - 1878). Lee married John Allen and they had two sons, Charlie and George.

Buckner's first wife, Midda Lee Lowry Ray, and all three of their children, Charles, Zadoc, and Lee Hawkins, died prior to Buckner. Writing in the 5th Century B.C., the Greek historian Herodotus, "The Father of History" observed that "In peace sons bury their fathers and in war fathers bury their sons." This was certainly true of the impact of the Civil War on Buckner Ray's family.

James Theophilus Adams served in Company D, North Carolina 26th Regiment, Confederate States of America, rising from the rank of lieutenant to lieutenant colonel. His picture and an account of his service appear in Chief Justice Walter Clark's History of North Carolina Regiments, Vol. II; in George C. Underwood's History of the Twenty-Sixth Regiment of the North Carolina Troops in the Great War 1861-65; and in Richard B. McCaslin's Portraits of Conflict, a Photographic History of North Carolina in the Civil War. He was in command of the regiment when General Robert E. Lee surrendered at Appomatox, VA; and he signed the paroles of the men. For a period he also commanded General James Johnston Pettigrew's Brigade, during its retreat from Petersburg, VA. His name appears on the Confederate monument in Holly Springs, NC; and a picture of him is on display in the Holly Springs Masonic Lodge.

Following the war he returned to his home in Wake County to farm and become engaged in the lumber business. He and other members of the Adams family bought the timber rights to tracts of land, then set up sawmills to cut and dress the lumber. His home, located near Holly Springs, is still (August 2000) standing. It is pictured on page 364 of Kelly A. Lally's book, The Historic Architecture of Wake County, North Carolina, and is incorrectly identified as the home of "Col. David Adams" (his brother).

His birth, marriage and death dates are given in a family Bible, and photostats of those pages are included in these papers. He was named as Lucy Ann Beckwith's husband in Green Beckwith's will, Wake County, NC, Record of Wills, Book A, 1878-1884.

The Moneyhams were early settlers of Wake County. Thomas acquired 136 acres of land on the East side of Reedy Branch, off Marks Creek in 1779. He died a few years later, leaving three children. By 1784, his estate had been settled. Robert Traywick was granted custody of William, then 10 years old, to be taught to be a blacksmith-planter; and James, then eight years old, to be taught to be a sadler; and Nancy, six years old, was apprenticed to George Traywick until she reached the age of 18. Jacob Mooneyham acquired 150 acres of land on the South side of Indian Branch (Marks Creek) in 1778.

The 1850 census of Wake County, St. Matthews District, lists Matthew, farmer, and his wife Martha. Their children are Gaston, Paschal, Catherine, John and Addison.

Gaston Haywood Mooneyham married Nancy Campbell Williams June 22, 1858. Their children were Albert Henry, who married Ellie Louise Harrison; Fannie, who married Tom Brown; Annie, who married Sam Daniels; Martha, who married Vee Winfree; Jennie, who married Rosis Winfree, and Millie, who married John Carter.

On February 27, 1862, Gaston enlisted in Company E. 47th Regiment, Wake County, of the Confederate Army. He fought at Gettysburg in July 1863. The forty-seventh was captured on April 2, 1865 about five miles west of Petersburg, Virginia. J. Rowan Rogers wrote on April 9, 1901, "The enemy was never able to break through my skirmish line, but it was completely surrounded and we were captured by the enemy coming from the rear. Gaston H. Mooneyham, who is now living in Barton's Creek Township, this county, was with me when I was captured and stood manfully by me in this fight, the last fight we made for the Confederacy." This was copied from page 112, "Histories of the Several Regiments and Battalions from North Carolina in the Great War 1861-1865, Vol. III. These men were imprisoned in New York before returning home.

My brother Bill tells how Great-grandfather Gaston let him touch and move a bullet, that lodged in his shoulder during a Civil War battle. The bullet was never removed, but it apparently caused no problem.

Nancy Williams Mooneyham died May 30, 1915, and she is buried in the Millbrook United Methodist Church Cemetery, Wake County. Gaston lived his last years with his son Albert in Raleigh, and he died October 25, 1920. He is buried in the cemetery of the old Mt. Vernon Baptist Church.

MRS FREDDIE UPCHURCH
ROUTE 3, BOX 352
ROBBINS, NC 27325

Dear Mrs Upchurch

Thank you for taking time on August 16, 1987, to talk with me by phone about the Upchurch Family. The information you provided is most useful and has now been incorporated in my master files and outlines. All of this is useful in publishing the Upchurch Bulletin on which details are enclosed.

My records on the George Mack Upchurch family are still incomplete and need attention. I have written to Vergena Hill as you suggested and hope she will answer some of the questions I have posed.

There are some questions on your immediate family which I failed to ask. Let me list them now in hope that you will be willing to respond. They are

- 1) For Frederick Able Upchurch
 - a) when born?
 - b) when born?
 - c) when married?
 - d) where married?

2) For yourself

a) when were you born?

b) where born

c) who was your father?

d) Are you kin to Carter Mullen who married Pat Upchurch?

3) Do you and Eddie Upchurch have children and grand children? If so could you please provide their full names and full names of spouses, if any, along with dates & place of birth and marriage?

If you can provide any or all of the above it will be very helpful to me in pulling the Upchurch Family records together. So far I have identified and published over 19,000 members of the family and have a life-time goal of 50,000.

If you so desire let me send you a sketch of your husbands line and mine back to Michael Upchurch, I showing how we are related. Michael came to America from England in 1649. I have visited the very spot in England where he lived.

Hope to hear from you

Sincerely yours
Paul Upchurch
