Williams plays in the key of love

By Sandra Freeman
CORRESPONDENT

Ronnie Williams of Pilot performs on many different musical devices, but he accompanies them all with the same instrument: acoustic love.

Using a harmonious blend of skill and passion, the husband, father and maestro shares this gift of sound with his close-knit world. It all starts with a hear and ends with heart.

"I play music by ear," he said. These days, he mostly tickles the piano ivories despite equal abilities on the fiddle, guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, harmonica, steel guitar and the jew's-harp.

"I don't get a chance to play any instrument but the piano," he said recently. "Most of the guys I play with play those instruments also, but I am the only piano player in the crowd."

His stylistic range covers country, gospel, hymns and bluegrass.

Ronnie jams with a group of friends each Thursday night at Willie's barn. Before he was married to wife Marie — who he professes "makes my music better" — he joined a band called The Invictors. That group took the stage at Ed's Hut and Jim Thornton's near Raleigh. The group also gave good shows at Silver Lake in Raleigh.

Ronnie Williams taught himself to play the piano by ear.

But that gig and going solo have been over for 32 years, since he walked down the aisle to the song of forever. "We are still in love after all these years," he said, Marie beside him nodding her head in agreement. Together for three decades, they have a son, Scotty, and a daughter, Lisa.

The minstrel in the head of this local family emerged early for Ronnie, who enjoys plenty of reasons to trumpet his talents.

"I began playing when I was 5 or 6," he said. "Mama said that one day as Daddy (Oliver 'Little G' Williams) was leaving for work, he showed me his steel guitar and said, 'Learn to play this, and I will give it to you.' Upon returning home, I showed him I could play the guitar, and he gave to me."

And he hasn't stopped strumming those strings since.

That inherited ax being his earliest introduction to music, the fiddle was the last. "If I knew then what I know now, I probably would not have picked it up," Ronnie said. "It has been a challenge to get a nice shine?"

For Ronnie, the aura comes from more of a personal glow.

After leaving the Department of Transportation in 1996 and having Marie join him in a retirement duet in 1997, life has stayed busy. He builds gas and charcoal grills, tinkers with boats, tunes pianos and even hammers out carpentry work.

Anything goes for the couple continually on the go. It's really an ideal relationship they created. He is her great entertainer. She is his greatest inspiration.

So clearly tuned in to each other's feelings, they already realize just how this symphony ends — on a happy note.

Ronnie Williams shows off a refinished fiddle.

- 214 Merrill Olive b. June 23, 1816 d. Oct. 21, 1883 (his death date on his tombstone is July 21, 1883). This is the Merrill Olive said to be a first cousin to Cader Olive which would make Cader's father, James Olive, a brother to William, Jr. Merrell's wife was Martha Jane Upchurch b. 10-28-1820, d. 1-12-1892. Both are buried in Olive Chapel Cemetery in Wake County. Also buried here is Martha, dau. of above, wife of I. S. Barbee, b. 11-8-1860, d. 8-27-1914.
- 1829 and 1831 Howell paid taxes for Merrell on 200 acres in White Oak District.
- 1832 Merrell is listed as orphan of Wm. Olive along with Polly and Betsey. Merrell was only 16 years old then.
- 1837 Merrell paid his own taxes on 200 acres in White Oak.
- 1839 and 1840 Merrell paid his taxes on 200 acres and also paid taxes for Elizabeth Olive on 276 acres in same dist. These were evidently his mother's taxes.
- 1841 Merrell paid taxes on 396 acres in White Oak.
- 1850 Census lists Merrell as 34, farming and living with him are Elizabeth Olive 65 and Clarinda Olive 21. We do not place Clarinda unless the census age is wrong because his sister, Clary was married in 1820. Of course, census ages are often wrong and this could be his sister, perhaps a widow. Her married name was Wilson but the census taker could have misunderstood that.
- 1860 Census for Wake Co. lists Maril 44, farming, Jane 39, William 4, James 2, Tabitha 1 and Elizabeth 75.

 The writer says the broken stone for PAWA includes the phrase "wife of Bartley U". This stone is broken where "OF" is written and previous inspections led to the reading of "of" as "J". This was incorrectly entered in the Cemetery Book. William C. Daniel reports "I am now convinced there is no 'J'" [in the name of Bartley U]. This upon reinspection of the stone.

○ EXCERPTS from Notes of RPU NC Trip 9-23 OCT 2007 Pg 307
 Recollection of Julian Herman Buffalo re the HWY 401 Area
 - 22 OCT 2007

The 2-story House where my father went to dance on the SW corner of 401 & Tryon Rd was owned by △RANSOM HINTON who never mt. He was a "Court-House" Man. Julian thought his name was on a stone marker but later Mark & I looked & found the same marker but it was for Ramsgate. Peter Williams later lived in the Ransom Hinton House

△ Julian says my father's good friend had a he Kennedy Raynor Myatt who ran a Dairy on the east side of 401 at the Airport. The Cotton Gin was on the west side of the road. The land hereabouts was △MYATT land south of here was △WILLIAMS land

There is a △Cemetery near the Runtan fld.

Cotton was the main crop in the area until Bell weed became serious then tobacco came in.

 There was a school at △McCullers

○ NOTES OF RPH CALL 30 MAR 2007 TO FRANCES NOLT TILLE-1

We discussed "INWOOD SCHOOL". FH<sup>g</sup> thought it had a different name but could not surface same. Mrs Harriett Shearon was the first teacher. FH<sup>g</sup> was not aware of the <sup>Δ</sup>J. Y. JOYNER school but said her Aunt/Under walked or rode through the woods to attend <sup>Δ</sup>Myrtle Chapel as there was not a regular minister at Inwood. Both her Uncle <sup>Δ</sup>ALTON & <sup>Δ</sup>PERCY married ladies from the US 401 Area.

FH<sup>g</sup> feels her mother, <sup>Δ</sup>LENA, stayed at Grandfather's Lynchville home until Uncle Rex came back from WWI. FH says <sup>Δ</sup>Lena attended a 2 room Inwood School and that her siblings, who were older, also went to Inwood School as <sup>Δ</sup>Lena told FH of her siblings' experiences at Inwood. They went to Inwood School until they were ready to go to Cary Academy driving a T Model Ford. Frances boarded her last year at Cary Academy as she had no one to drive her.

There was a road that allowed the Miley Perry family to have easy access to 401. FH thinks south of the Miley Perry home - I think north. Miley's Southern tract (now owned by <sup>Δ</sup>Edward Tadd) was land locked until the road was extended curricular offerings of Chowan College with those of Wake Forest. As envisioned, the arrangement would have eliminated some of Chowan's financial burden; more importantly, it would have aligned Chowan's degree programs with an institution already accredited by the Southern Association. In 1931 males were admitted as full-time students to the previously all-female college, a course clearly designed to produce additional revenue. In the same year, efforts were projected to engage one hundred friends of the college who would provide scholarships of $100 each to meet operating costs for the following year. By May 1932, however, Edwards had to report that the college owed over $40,000 to its creditors, including back pay due the faculty and staff. The problem of meeting financial obligations to Chowan's creditors remained a pressing concern throughout the last years of Edwards's administration, despite various schemes to reduce operating costs and to obtain additional revenue from alumnae and friends of the institution.

Edwards was a Democrat, a Mason, and a Baptist. He married Cinderella Stanley of Northampton County on 26 July 1916. They had no children.

Originally interred in the Cedarwood Cemetery at Weldon, Edwards's remains were later moved to Riverside Cemetery, Murfreesboro, to be buried beside his wife who died in 1942. A portrait commissioned by the Chowan College Alumnae Association, and painted by Francis Speight, was presented to the college in 1936.

R. HARGUS TAYLOR

Edwards, Weldon Nathaniel (25 Jan. 1788-18 Dec. 1873), planter, state senator, and congressman, was born near Gaston in Northampton County, son of Priscilla Williamson and Benjamin Edwards. He attended Warrenton Academy, read law, and in 1810 began to practice in Warrenton. Here he became an associate of his kinsman, Nathaniel Macon, and a powerful group of Roanoke area politicians sometimes called the Warren Junto. He represented Warren in the House of Commons of the General Assembly in 1814 and 1815.

Edwards was elected to fill Macon's seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in 1815, when Macon resigned to become a U.S. senator. He was reelected to five succeeding terms, but declined to be a candidate again in 1827; in that year he supported Daniel Turner, son of the former governor and U.S. senator, as his replacement. While in Washington Edwards lived at Alfred Dowson's Rooming House on Capitol Hill with H. G. Burton, Thomas H. Hall, Nathaniel Macon, and John Randolph, all representatives of the Roanoke area in Congress. At different times he served on the Judiciary, Roads and Canals, Elections, Public Expenditures, and Revolutionary Pensions committees. He was chairman of the latter two committees. He followed the members of his group in supporting the presidential candidacy of William H. Crawford in 1824, voting for Crawford in the House vote of 9 Feb. 1825. When the House made John Quincy Adams president, he joined the opposition. An advocate of strict construction of the federal constitution, he consistently voted against protective tariffs, internal improvements, and other extensions of federal power.

After leaving Congress, Edwards never lost interest in politics; however, his consuming passion was Poplar Mount, his plantation near Ridgeway, about twelve miles from Warrenton. Here he experimented with scientific agriculture, giving up the cultivation of cotton and concentrating on growing food crops and tobacco as well as breeding improved stock and game chickens. He often entertained important politicians passing through Warren County, including President James Buchanan when he visited the state in 1859.

Ten times between 1833 and 1852 Edwards was elected to represent Warren in the state senate, serving as president during his last two terms. In 1835, Edwards and Macon represented Warren in the state constitutional convention. Edwards opposed religious qualifications for office, direct election of governor, and submitting the constitutional changes to a vote of the people. In 1836, he was a member of the Central Committee of the North Carolina Democratic party supporting Van Buren and Richard M. Johnson. When the Whigs dominated the state, Edwards was a leader of the Democrats. He was often suggested as a candidate for governor but never ran. He was a delegate to the national convention of his party more than once, and in 1848 was chairman of the state convention.

By 1852, Edwards was beginning to sour on the direction democracy was taking in the nation as the South lost the leadership of the Democratic party. He was a steadfast supporter of southern rights and felt the times to be increasingly out of joint. With the election of Lincoln in 1860, he became a leader of the forces for secession. In March 1861, as president of a Southern Rights Convention in Goldsboro, he called for North Carolina to leave the Union. Two months later he was elected over William A. Graham of Orange to be presiding officer of his state's secession convention. This group was to hold four sessions before its final adjournment in May 1862. Edwards was frequently at odds with Governor Zebulon Baird Vance on the conduct of the war but defeat finally brought them together. On 6 Feb. 1868 he attended the Constitutional Union Party Convention, which saw many of North Carolina's old Democrats and Whigs unite in the face of the trials of Reconstruction. During the latter part of 1862, after the secession convention adjourned the final time, Edwards wrote his Memoir of Nathaniel Macon of North Carolina. It was a memoir of better days.

Notwithstanding the disastrous defeat that the end of the war represented for the ideals of Edwards, his last years were spent in relative comfort. He was almost eighty-six when he died; he was buried in the private cemetery at Poplar Mount. In June 1823 Edwards married Lucy Norfleet, of Halifax, who survived him.

Killian, Sutton exchange wedding vows

Kelly D. Killian of Holly Springs and Don Scott Sutton Jr. of Apex were united in marriage Saturday, Oct. 14, at Salem Baptist Church in Apex. The Rev. Grady Long officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Linda P. Killian of Wilmington and the late Jerry R. Killian of Rockingham.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Sutton of Apex.

The groom's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs Ray Williams of Apex and Leon Sutton of Clinton. The bride's are Mae Propst of Hickory and Floyd Killian of Conover.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Todd J. Killian.

She wore a formal gown of ivory satin. The basque bodice was embellished with heavily beaded handmade Alencon lace, forming a sabrina neckline, flowing into a deep back detailed by covered buttons. It had Gibson girl sleeves, featuring cameo motifs of matching Alencon tapered to lace points on the hand. A beaded pyramid of the cutout lace accented the front of the softly gathered skirt. A trellis and motifs of beaded cutout lace adorned the cathedral train, which was bordered in a deep hem lace encrusted with pearls and sequins.

The matron of honor was Donna Kincaid of Apex, and bridesmaids were Michelle Blackley, Laura Sutton, Lisa Thanhauser, Susan Murray Huffman and Michelle White.

The bridesmaids wore black gowns of cross-dyed schiffli lace and taffeta. They featured sabrina necklines and long Renaissance sleeves of lace. The fitted bodices, which were overlaid in lace, had a dropped asymmetrical waist with a lace-edged taffeta bow on one hip. Bubble skirts of taffeta flowed to a knee length.

The mother of the groom wore a tea-length ivory silk brocade with

Music was provided by pianist Linda Terry.

A little further along Penny Rd - before old south you come to the Lynn Stratton Home on the right and to the Old Stratton Home on the left (FAT & George, Lynn, etc.). This later place bought by Milton Dixon (subs and Marie Taylor) who developed the land between Penny Rd & Lake Wheeler.

From Old South to Lake Wheeler was Hunter Land. The Hunters are connected to the Stephens Family.

The Stephenson Place was developed by Lucy Buffalo s/o John & Betty Buffalo.

From Penny Rd going N on old south cut to right to pass Albin Home sitting back on North side. Alton dated Abie Albin - her MOTHER = A Daniel.

Proceeding east on the cut through Farmer Lane (SR7527) comes up from the south. On the North (just to the east) lies the Penny Home right on the road - This Penny related to Harold Nelson. PENNY =

Next to the Penny Home on the west is a house Mark & Bryan bought for $137,000 in 1987 for Percy in exchange for her 12 1/2 A share in Clyde 50 A con. Percy's dad lives there now. East of Percy's house lies the Carl Penny Homestead (House now gone).

At Farmer Lane we met

Alton tells a story on Beatrix - she attended Inwood school with Alton. She climbed a tree & had an accident - water came down. Not to be outdone she claimed that the sap was rainy.

IN LTR 19 MAR 1996 WILLA MAE BOLTON TO RPA

As you can see, my data regarding William Massey is very limited. For what it may be worth, I have sketched below the "map" of some of the Massey holdings in Wake and Franklin Counties as compiled by T. Smith. I have had a bit of trouble with this reference as I believe he listed Richard's holdings incorrectly, and I am still having problems with his references to Hezekiah Massey, the younger son of Hezekiah (0022).

(<sup>Δ</sup> Holly Springs, Wake Co, NC). Lived at Apex, NC near the BRIGHT HOLLAND
place which Union Soldiers ransacked in the Civil War. Was Col in War 1812

b 1782 ( ) d 25 AUG 1867 (Wake Co, NC) (at home of DAU LUCINTHA &
SIL GREEN BECKWITH - FROM THE BIBLICAL RECORDER 4 SEP 1867

<sup>Δ</sup> Irma Ragan Holland's book includes an extensive amount of information about the Holland family. Mrs. Holland's step-son, <sup>Δ</sup> Darrell Holland lives in Charlotte and has copies of the book.

Most of the records we have refer to David Henry Holland as "colonel," a rank he apparently held in the War of 1812. The Biblical Recorder, a Baptist paper published in Wake County, carried a resolution in its March 25, 1874, edition, extending sympathy to the family of David Holland (the paper was on file at Wake Forest College in the 1950's) An obituary in The Biblical Recorder dated September 4, 1867, included a notice about the death of Mrs. Mabel Holland. The notice reads: "Died, at the residence of her son-in-law Green Beckwith, Esq., on Sunday night the 25th inst., aged 86 years, Mrs. Mabel Holland, widow of the late Col. David Holland, of Wake County (full text on #39)." There is a discrepancy in these dates for David Holland's death: If Mabel, his wife, died in 1867 and was referred to as the widow of Col. David Holland, he could not have died in 1874. NOTE: CHECK THE BIBLICAL RECORDER -- DO WE HAVE THE WRONG DATE FOR ONE OF THESE ISSUES?

According to Irma Ragan Holland's book, THE HOLLANDS...FROM VIRGINIA TO NORTH CAROLINA...THE JOSEPH HOLLAND LINE...THE JIMMY HOLLAND LINE, David Henry Holland died March 1, 1874, and the death is listed in the Wake County Death Notices, volume 1856 - 1893. This book says Holland lived in Apex, NC, near the Bright Holland Place. Northern soldiers ransacked the place when they came through during the Civil War.

Herbert Benoy cites this source of information: "The Hollands from Virginia to North Carolina" by Irma Ragan Holland, pages 6, 7, 8, and 10. Also, "Death Notices" Vol. 1836-1893, Wake County, North Carolina. Included in Herbert's papers are pictures of Lucintha Holland and her husband Green Beckwith. In correspondence with Mrs. C. F. Oakley of Siler City, NC, October 30, 1955, she says "the site of David Holland's home was around 3 miles from my old home...I've seen it lots of times." She mentions that she helped "Cousin S. W. Williams, a druggist in Raleigh, write a family history." She says Williams has died and she doesn't know who has the history...."You could write to Mrs. S. W. Williams, Hillsboro St., Raleigh, NC, and ask her if she has the history"

David Holland is mentioned twice in Elizabeth Reid Murray's book, Wake: Capital County of North Carolina. In her account of Wake County's involvement in the War of 1812 she says: "Late in 1812, after the war was in progress, the General Assembly divided the Wake County militia regiment into two regiments. So many Wake men had volunteered at a June muster that it was necessary to hold a draft to determine those to be accepted. Officers of the first regiment were Col. Allen Rogers, with John T. C. Wiatt and Daniel L. Barringer as first and second majors. Col. Simpson Shaw commanded the second, with William Daniel and Thomas Ferrill, majors. The 24 Wake companies were made part of a new Seventh Division of state militia, and Dr. Calvin Jones of Raleigh, adjutant general since 1808, was named major general in command of the new Seventh. Robert Williams of Raleigh succeeded Jones as adjutant general." She then lists the captains of the two regiments. Included in one regiment are the names of the following men: Dempsey Blake, James Speight, David Holland, Thomas Ferrill, Reuben Jackson, John Green, Solomon Jones, William Jones, Benjamin Dunn, John Arnold, William M'Cullers, and Asa Bacon.

In her account of banking in Wake County during the 1800s, Mrs. Reid says the county's early banks came into being primarily for the purpose of issuing notes to retire the old post-Revolutionary paper currency of the state. Three of these banks survived the financial panic and depression of 1819, but in the 1820s local investors speculated heavily in bank stocks, and dividends began to decline. "Between 1832 and 1835...two (banks) passed all their dividends, and ...three were forced into liquidation in 1835. One of the reasons for their failure was the demand of the Second Bank of the United States that they meet in specie all their obligations to pay. Several groups of Wake citizens gathered in May and June of 1834 and forwarded to Congress resolutions protesting the bank's actions and opposing its rechartering....In June at Holly Spring, those taking...action were Woodson Clements, Col. David Holland, John B. Owen, John A. Brown, Needham and <sup>Δ</sup> Samuel Norris."

Hi Bobbi---

I was able to download the Chart ok. We are getting close. I know that you are of the Harmon Upchurch Clan and of the Allen U Subclan and of the John Dudley U Line in that Subclan plus I know a lot more. I assume you are nee Roberta Grubaugh. Can you confirm?

I have much of your family outlined but there is always more that can be added. The Upchurch Family has a rich history in America and I have spent over 30 years collecting and organizing it. We need to figure out just what part interests you and your daughter and what you might be able to supply to me that is new. Perhaps you daughter might want to give me a call and we could sort some things out that way. The Outline you sent is basically correct but there are a couple of points that might need attention. It is a great coincidence that your ancestor Robert Jefferson Upchurch has the exact name as my father born 1880.

My records are all kept manually.

Hi Phil,

I was really hoping to call you this weekend because we were in St. Louis but we had a fun filled weekend of soccer, volleyball practice, birthday party, meet the teacher, etc. Not much time to talk to anyone. I'm not sure when I will be back up but hopefully I will go when everyone is at work and school so I will have some time to talk or have coffee if you are open to that. I was by The Barry Upchurch Real Estate office several times this weekend. Is Barry a relative of yours?

I'm glad you were able to receive the chart. All I could think of to do was scan it in then email it to you. It is interesting that you keep all your information manually. I thought about doing that and putting it in an organizational chart form but this seemed to work at the time. I tried to find just a tree that I could record on and then print it out in one piece but have not found that yet.

How do you know I am part of the Harmon Upchurch Clan? I am Roberta Fay Williams Austin-not a relative at all of Howard Grubaugh. He was my Mother's crazy last husband. My Mother had one child and that would be me.

I think my daughter would like to know what all these people did during their lives and why they died but I would just like to know who they were and when and where and why they came into this country. Pretty basic stuff. They probably all died of heart attacks and strokes since I'm sure they were big meat eaters. No Lipitor for them.

What did you find that you think is in error. I have used peoplesearch.com and ancestry.com for most of my information and I have found some dates that did not agree. What types of places have you found family information?

Having just gotten back home I am trying to clear out the paper that has accumulated in my house this last week. I had my 65th birthday recently and now insurance companies want to flood me with paper and phone calls. I just want them to insure me and leave me alone.

Hi Bobbi---

With your email of today in hand it looks like we are properly linked. I had all of your line except you in my records. I had to guess your name and got it wrong. Thanks for getting me straight. Now we still have some complete names, dates, places, etc to get straight but we can do that over time.

It was nice to have had you in our neighborhood. Wish we could have had a chat. We'll do that next time. Barry Upchurch is my son. The building his outfit is in belongs to us. We live about five minute away.

You asked about my sources. Over the last 30 years I have had several thousand cooperators who have provided me with various amounts of data. I have a complete set of census records for all the decades for all the States for all the Upchurches. For years I have pored over these records and have in the process constructed my Master Outlines. Sometimes I have not yet figured out a line or sometimes I get one wrong but after 30+ years concentrating on the Upchurch Family I have got 90+ % of it locked into place. In recent years I have used Ancestry.com to good effect.

The only way you can be sure of your line is to look at the data which supports linking one generation to another. As I cooperate with individuals this usually unfolds in good order. I keep Biofiles on probably a million people and enter into each one any information collected showing the source. I tend to share incrementally trusting that people will share with me. If not I quit playing. The kind of data your daughter want on cause of death sometimes appears but I do not concentrate on that. There are good reasons for people to do so.

For new cooperators I offer for $40 to go over the 100+ issues of the Upchurch Bulletin and pick out 8 issues that I think might mos interest them. You can let me know if this interests you . We can cooperate whether you do this or not. I can ask a series of questions if you so desire. If you have more organized material on the family you can send I would be happy to have it. As we go along I will plan to send you some increments.

You have had a look at my website. If you want to know more about me just google Robert Phillip Upchurch. The first 10 entries or so are about me. The one which mentions George Ware gives my oral history.

Cheers!

Hi Phil.

Just found out I will be in St. Louis tomorrow around noon and back here to Blue Springs by noon Friday. This is pretty short notice I realize, but would love to make contact at some point. My daughter works until she picks up my grand daughter at school so I have some time tomorrow, all day Wednesday and then Thursday afternoon probably after two. Do any of those times work for you.

I printed your story from the internet but have not had time to finish it. I have a meeting at Church tonight but am going to try after I get home. My grandfather Robert Jefferson picked cotton too at their farm in Lamar, OK. My Mother did not want to ever do that again.

Hope you are in town and can't wait to meet a distant relative, very distant that is.

Hi Bobbi---

Glad to know you are coming to town. I have a Doctor's appointment at noon tomorrow but after that I am flexible for the rest of the week. We leave for New England on Saturday morning but you will already be gone. Give me a call on my land line (636) 530-6022 and we can decide when and where to get together. I assume we could meet somewhere in the Chesterfield area as your daughter is out this way.

Phil.

Didn't get out of town as soon as I wanted to today but made it this afternoon. Was sort of attacked by a swarm of bees and had a bunch of stings so I was swollen. Still am some. My head still hurts, my finer is sore and my face under my eye looks not good but I have high hopes for tomorrow. also make up does wonders. Had to stick around and see if I needed to call 911. Didn't know if I was allergic since I had not been stung since I was probably five years old. Fun morning. Hope your doctors appt. went well. I will call you in the morning and we can set up a time to visit. Yes Chesterfield works just fine for me. Talk to you later, Bobbi

- (15) 23 SEP 2009 - WED Notes of RPH meeting 10:00 AM - NOON at Waldie's Coffee House Chesterfield, MO. She drove from her home in Blue Springs MO (just east of Kansas City, MO) to see her daughter who lives in Waldenwood. The daughter is Chancellor of the local Catholic Shrine & has one child. Bobbi's son is unmarried and lives in Miami, FL. Bobbi's husband is a retired stock broker. Bobbi's parents were living in the Springfield, MO area when Bobbi was born in WWII. Her father went off to war and her mother went home to Waldenwood, OK for Bobbi to be born. Her parents divorced when she was 2 yrs old. Both parents proceeded to marry several times. Bobbi was back & forth with her two parents and with her grandparents in Waldenwood. Along the way she converted to Catholicism & spent 2 years in a Catholic college in MI. Her interest in family history is casual. She downloaded my oral history. I gave her the continuation section (1 sheet) for her family.

FROM: DISPATCH JAN 2008 P 5 & 6 NEWSLETTER OF APEX, NC HIST. SOC

HISTORY OF WHITE OAK GRADED SCHOOL

Written by Mammie Luther when she was principal at White Oak School.

[Editor's Note: This is exactly how Ms. Luther typed it.]

△△△ The history of this school begins a good many years before the Civil War. It was then a private school, some of the teachers being Sidney Holloman, Johnson Olive and Robin Williams (the latter being the great-grand father of the present principal of the school) The attendance was large until the school at Olive Chapel claimed a large number of its pupils.

△ After the war this school was changed into a public school and a new house was built. The school was then called "Rocky Springs". It remained here for several years. About 70 to 80 pupils attended school here while Mrs. S. C. Perry and daughter were teachers.

△△ The district was made larger and the school house in 1878 was moved about one mile west to center of district. It was then known as the "Jenks School" taking its name from Hinton Jenks who served faithfully many years as a committee of this school.

During the following years there were many faithful teachers, much progress was made and the school had great influence for good on the community at large, as well as training many of the boys and girls, who have since become the patrons of the present school, for higher citizenship and nobler aims in life.

△△ From this school have gone out teachers, preachers, soldiers, successful farmers, men successful in other votations of life. Mr. L. J. Sears, Chairman of Wake County Board of Education and J. H. Sears, Sheriff of Wake County received early training in the school,

In 1905 the district was changed. The school voted. local tax, 35 & 90 giving the school the honor of being the first school in Wake County to vote a special tax. The school was moved to the present site, a new building was erected, costing $1250.00. The school has been known since then as the White Oak Graded School.

Perhaps the greatest progress in the history of the school has been made since local tax was voted. The school has been fortunate in securing well-trained teachers and each year there has been marked progress. In 1908 a Betterment Association was organized. This association has done much good in helping to beautify school house and grounds, lengthening the school term, working school farm, etc,

This history would not be complete without mentioning the faithful work done by our present principal who has done four years of her best work in our school. It is quite a coincidence that she should make the eighth member of her family who has taught in this school (Great-grand-father, three great-ants, grand-mother, an aunt and one cousin.

△ [Per an e-mail from Molly Weston: "Miss Mamie Luther was a fixture in Apex. She lived on Salem Street in a house that was torn down many years ago. It was either beside Holland's Jewelers or one house down. Miss Mamie walked everywhere, but all the kids said she stomped!"]

Per RPK call 6 FEB 2008 At Ann Tol who reports white oak school was in New Hill on 7 acre acquired from the BRIGHT family - later the school was consolidated into Apex school and the bricks were used in the Apex school. Bright descendants got the land back.

Williams plays in the key of love

By Sandra Freeman
CORRESPONDENT

Ronnie Williams of Pilot performs on many different musical devices, but he accompanies them all with the same instrument: acoustic love.

Using a harmonious blend of skill and passion, the husband, father and maestro shares this gift of sound with his close-knit world. It all starts with a hear and ends with heart.

"I play music by ear," he said. These days, he mostly tickles the piano ivories despite equal abilities on the fiddle, guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, harmonica, steel guitar and the jew's-harp.

"I don't get a chance to play any instrument but the piano," he said recently. "Most of the guys I play with play those instruments also, but I am the only piano player in the crowd."

His stylistic range covers country, gospel, hymns and bluegrass.

Ronnie jams with a group of friends each Thursday night at Willie's barn. Before he was married to wife Marie — who he professes "makes my music better" — he joined a band called The Invictors. That group took the stage at Ed's Hut and Jim Thornton's near Raleigh. The group also gave good shows at Silver Lake in Raleigh.

Ronnie Williams taught himself to play the piano by ear.

But that gig and going solo have been over for 32 years, since he walked down the aisle to the song of forever. "We are still in love after all these years," he said, Marie beside him nodding her head in agreement. Together for three decades, they have a son, Scotty, and a daughter, Lisa.

The minstrel in the head of this local family emerged early for Ronnie, who enjoys plenty of reasons to trumpet his talents.

"I began playing when I was 5 or 6," he said. "Mama said that one day as Daddy (Oliver 'Little G' Williams) was leaving for work, he showed me his steel guitar and said, 'Learn to play this, and I will give it to you.' Upon returning home, I showed him I could play the guitar, and he gave to me." And he hasn't stopped strumming those strings since. That inherited ax being his earliest introduction to music, the fiddle was the last. "If I knew then what I know now, I probably would not have picked it up," Ronnie said. "It has been a challenge to get it to have a nice shine?"

For Ronnie, the aura comes from more of a personal glow.

After leaving the Department of Transportation in 1996 and having Marie join him in a retirement duet in 1997, life has stayed busy. He builds gas and charcoal grills, tinkers with boats, tunes pianos and even hammers out carpentry work.

Anything goes for the couple continually on the go. It's really an ideal relationship they created. He is her great entertainer. She is his greatest inspiration.

So clearly tuned in to each other's feelings, they already realize just how this symphony ends — on a happy note.

Lisa Marie Williams of Pilot and David Wayne Bryant of Samaria were united in marriage April 17 at Rocky Cross Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ronnie Snead and the Rev. Ronnie Williams, father of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Ronnie Fritz Williams of Pilot. The father of the bridegroom is Weldon Harold Bryant Jr. of Samaria.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Williams of Spring Hope, and Helen Sledge of Louisburg and the late Clarence Sledge. Grandparents of the bridegroom are Jane Bryant of Samaria and the late Sonny Bryant, and Mr. and Mrs. N.D. Bromley of South Carolina.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white romance satin with a high neckline accented with trellis lace. The bodice and basque waistline were adorned with hand-beaded embroidered lace. The back featured a bow which extended to the full circle, semi-cathedral-length train. The long, puffed sleeves featured a fluted inset.

Her headpiece featured pearls and satin flowers at the back, with a cabbage-edged pouf which led to a double-tiered, elbow-length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, roses, gardenias and trailing ivy with pearl sprays.

She was attended by Crystal Mitchell of Wake Forest as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kim Richards of Kenly and Angel Etheridge of Zebulon. Junior bridesmaid was Jessica Hucks, cousin of the bridegroom.

The attendants each wore a teal, iridescent taffeta dress with a high-low hemline, sweetheart neckline, and heart-shaped key-hole back accented with a bow.

The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of peach gerber daisies, snapdragons, lilies, baby's breath and ivy. The bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of peach gerber daisies, lilies, snapdragons and baby's breath with matching satin ribbons.

Other attendants were Christopher Sledge, cousin of the bride, ring bearer; and Abby Hucks, cousin of the bridegroom, flower girl.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Nick Bryant of Samaria, brother of the bridegroom; Keith Bryant of Samaria, brother of the bridegroom; and Lee Perry of Samaria.

The bridegroom wore a black notch tuxedo with pleated trousers, a white wing collar shirt, and black tie and cummerbund.

The church was decorated with a 13-branch brass candelabrum with white cathedral candles, flanked by palms and ferns, and centered with an all-white arrangement of mixed flowers. A double-profile kneeling bench was used in the ceremony. An arrangement featuring a burning candle was placed on the piano in memory of the bride's best friend, Elizabeth Love Hayes.

Wedding music was presented by Sandra Hough, organist; Dara Edwards, pianist; and Suzanne Whitford, soloist.

Guest register and program attendants were Melodie Smith of Wendell and Debbie Carlyle of Zebulon, aunt of the bride. Christy Norton of Wendell directed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Bunn High School. She is an assembler for Chrysler at Fawn Industries. Her husband is a graduate of Southern Nash High School and is an assistant manager at Quick 10.

After a wedding trip to Pigeon Forge, Tenn., the couple will make their home in Samaria.

salad with assorted crackers. Strawberry punch was served by Debbie Carlyle.

A birdseed basket was attended by Steve Hinnant.

After the reception, the couple left in a 1925 Model T driven and owned by Joe Griffin of Pilot.

A reception was held at the church fellowship hall immediately after the ceremony.

The hall was decorated with white wicker furniture, ferns, and ficus trees with miniature clear lights. A portrait of the bride was displayed.

The three-tiered, all-white wedding cake was accented with white

On April 4, a bridesmaids' brunch was given by Melodie Smith at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Decorations were in mauve and off-white. A fresh flower arrangement was provided by Bessie Steller, aunt of the bride-elect.

Guests were served broccoli and cheese quiche, croissants, blueberry muffins, sausage and bacon, fruit, hash browns, coffee, orange-pineapple juice, coconut cake, and Boston cream pie.

The bride-elect presented the bridesmaids matching earrings to be worn in the wedding.

TWO KILLED

ONE MISSING.

Last Saturday night while Sam Abbott and his brother, Otto, were eating supper at the home of George Jennings in Helm's Hollow, three miles below Sunnybrook, Obie Upchurch and Spencer Jennings came up and a battle ensued in which Sam Abbott was killed on the spot and Obie Upchurch went a short ways from the house and lay down with his overall jumper under his head and died some time during the night. Spencer Jennings was also shot up but left and has not been located, and it is thought he also is dead or mortally wounded. Abbott was a son of Dock Abbott, of Tennessee. He was accused of ambushing and killing Roscoe Williams near the Jennings home a few years ago, and had never been arrested for the crime. Obie Upchurch was a son of Floyd Upchurch and Spencer Jennings a son of Frank Jennings, all living in Tennessee.

Parties who are familiar with conditions down there say that the killing of about a dozen more of the bad actors in that neighborhood would help conditions.
