EDNA DELL WOODCOCK

○ From its 8 OCT 1991 Jacqueline Linchey wrote to the Pastor of Inwood recalling her fond memories of growing up in Rhamhatti

I especially remember the music at Inwood. I loved to hear Mrs. Morris and her daughter Josephine sing duets. Then when Jo and James Jeffreys got married, I thought they were the handsomest couple I ever saw! (I'm sure they still are!) I loved to hear Marie Taylor play the piano, and Carol Medlin was a very special person to me. Elizabeth Lassiter was choir director when I was in the choir. And I loved to hear Rand Jeffries sing ~ and preach. (When Billy Graham came along, I thought he was almost as good a preacher as Rand, nearly as handsome! ~ not quite, on either count.) Did you know that you could take tobacco worms, bite their heads off and turn them inside out and go fishing with them? Or go rabbit hunting with a Coca-Cola bottle ~ not a gun ~ and just chunk that bottle, hitting ol' Brer Rabbit in the head, bring 'im home and skin 'im for supper? (Ask Rand, if you don't believe me!!) I remember when Lois delivered Bonnie; I think she was first little baby I ever knew, close up! I remember how proud grandparents Mr. Frank and Ms. Edna Upchurch were. I worked in the fields and in tobacco for Mr. Frank for years. Once he took me to Pine Drug Store and bought me a whole pint of cherry ice cream to see if I could eat the whole thing (I could . . .) He always brought me a watermelon on my birthday; he loved to tell a tale ~ he was good at that ~ that he bought me the biggest watermelon in Raleigh for my birthday, and that I ate half of it and cried 'cause couldn't hold the other half!

Re Uncle Wm - FH said he had to go to Dix Hill from Rex as Aunt Maude could not take care of him.
She had not seen Uncle Wm at Dix Hill and he seemed well cared for. However, Lena was upset when Dix Hill did an unauthorized autopsy and left his head mangled. He was laid when in Dix Hill

Order of Deaths:

It would appear Aunt Maude could not stay in the home alone after Uncle Wm went to the hospital in early 1959 - hence to Uncle Frank's.

After Maude could not get along with Aunt Edna, Bonnie took her to Kilsbrough, but after a fall she had to go to a care facility as welfare - first at Sutton and then across from Rex at Hill Haven. Lena visited (FH driving) and complained about care at better places.
