91st birthday party

Thelma (Mrs. George W.) Edwards Wrenn of Chatham Street celebrated her 91st birthday on January 30.

Mrs. Wrenn, who has lived in or near Apex all her life, is still active in her home, which she shares with her granddaughter, Ginger Nichols, Ginger's husband Ed and their daughter, six-year-old Amber Nichols.

Mrs. Wrenn cooks "all the time," her friend Grace Godwin said. Mrs. Wrenn is Mrs. Godwin's sister's mother-in-law, but Grace calls Mrs. Wrenn "Nana." "She's the closest thing to a mother that I have," Grace said during the birthday celebration.

Wayne Wheeler, another friend and 'adopted son' of Mrs. Wrenn's, brought two birthday cakes for the occasion.

"I met her 12 years ago when I was a police officer here," Wheeler said. "I roomed upstairs. I moved away for awhile, but we stayed friends. Now I'm back here in Apex."

In addition to cooking, Mrs. Wrenn crochets. She has made Afghans for many friends and family members.

Mrs. Wrenn is one of the oldest members of Apex Baptist Church. She has been a member for 77 years.

Thelma is now a member of the tape ministry at the church.

"Honey, I've seen a lot," Mrs. Wrenn said. "I've been around. I lived here way before Apex had paved streets or lights. I knew everybody around Apex, black and white, then."

Thelma Wrenn holds one of two birthday cakes she received on her 91st birthday January 30. Mrs. Wrenn has lived in or near Apex all her life. She says "I've seen a lot."

Wrenn Street in Apex, which is on property which used to belong to her, was named for Mrs. Wrenn.

She has lived in her Chatham Street home for 40 years or more. The house is 113 years old, she said.

Mrs. Wrenn's husband, George W. Wrenn, died in 1929. Their only child, George Jr., died about 22 years ago. George Jr.'s wife, Ruby Surlis, now lives in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Wrenn's great-granddaughter, Amber, is a student in first grade at A.V. Baucom Elementary.

Mrs. Wrenn said that her 91st birthday was "just another day," but her friend Wayne Wheeler said it was a big occasion in her life.

If the smile on her face during her birthday lunch was any clue, she, too, thought, (if secretly), that the day was at least a little special.

Downtown store 'devastated' by fire

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

Despite being dealt "a devastating blow," a Zebulon store owner remains optimistic after losing his uninsured business to a blaze that heavily damaged the building and completely destroyed its contents.

Zebulon firefighters were dispatched to P&W Auto Parts at 106 E. Vance St. at 10 p.m. on Sunday.

Upon arrival, "heavy smoke was coming out of all areas," said Zebulon Fire Chief Sidney Perry. The heat was so intense, he said, the firemen "could not get in the front door." The firemen were also careful to keep their distance because of the oils and batteries within the store, he added.

The fire was completely controlled after firemen battled the flames for two hours, said Perry. Zebulon fire departments were assisted by units from Wendell, and a mobile air trailer from Wake Forest.

Firefighters remained on the scene throughout Sunday night and Monday morning.

Perry is not sure what initiated the fire, but said it's been determined the blaze began in the middle of the store. A kerosene heater was located inside the store, but that has been ruled out as the culprit.

The cause is still undetermined, said Perry, adding he would not speculate on how the fire originated until the investigation is completed. On the scene investigating Monday morning were members of the Wake Arson Response Team; the Wake County Sheriff's Department; the State Bureau of Investigation; the Wake County Fire Marshal's office; the City-County Bureau of Identification; Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; and the Zebulon Police Department.

These agencies are usually called in when there is such a large financial loss, said Perry.

The term "large loss" seems like an understatement to J.E. Wrenn, who has owned the store since 1958. "It is a devastating blow. It is the most devastating thing to happen to me since my wife died," he said Monday evening.

Lost in the blaze was $300,000 worth of inventory, $150,000 worth of equipment and a building valued at $63,000, he said, adding he literally lost everything because he had no insurance.

Wrenn, who operated the store with his sons Mike and Jim, said he is also baffled on how the fire started. It couldn't have been an electrical problem, he said, because "we always cut the main switch off when we leave. The store was closed Saturday a little after 4 p.m. and I'm pretty sure no one went back in."

Perry reported that firemen found the back door of the business open when they arrived on the scene.

Since the fire, Zebulon police officers have kept the 100 block of East Vance Street sealed off from traffic. Chief Wayne Medlin said he is keeping the street blocked for two reasons: The fire-damaged wall of P&W Auto Parts may fall and cause personal injury or property damage, and the department treats all fire scenes as a crime scene until otherwise determined.

Even though his family has been dealt a heavy blow, Wrenn attempts to keep a positive outlook. He is grateful his sons were not injured in the fire. "We'll cry a little bit and move on. At least we still have our good health."

Reuben Henderson Bramlet, tenth child of Coleman B. and Susannah (Upchurch) Bramlet, was born February 7, 1842 on the family farm in Saline County, Illinois. He died July 1, 1925 near Selma, California. He was buried in the family plot at Mt. View Cemetery, Fresno, California.

Reuben married Euphemia Ellen Wren on November 3, 1876 at Fresno. She was born January 19, 1856 in Adams County, Illinois; a daughter of John W. and Elizabeth (Martin) Wren. She died October 12, 1929 at Los Angeles, California. She was buried at Mt. View Cemetery.

Reuben left Eldorado, Illinois on May 3, 1867. He traveled to New York by various conveyances, where he boarded a steamship to Panama and San Francisco, California, where he ended his journey on June 3, 1867. He attended the Pacific University at Santa Clara, California from 1867 to 1870. He then moved to Fresno where he began his teaching career and raised cattle on his farm.

In 1875, Reuben was elected Superintendent of Schools. He took charge of that office in March of 1876. The offices of Auditor and Superintendent of Schools, of which he served, was combined in 1878. He served in that capacity until 1892. He taught school and served as Deputy County Assessor from 1892 to 1897. He retired from teaching in 1902.

Reuben owned an 80 acre farm and vineyard near Selma, California. He became interested in fruit growers associations and joined the California Associated Raisin Cooperative.

Euphemia attended schools at Stockton and San Jose, California. She was a teacher in the city of Fresno at the White School in 1879. Her parents were natives of Adams and Rock Island Counties in Illinois. They moved to California in 1860.

Reuben and Euphemia were the parents of John C., Dora B., Eva S. and Julia Ellen Bramlet.

which exists in the NW corner of the intersection of 751 and 1752. I have not been able to locate O'Kelly's Chapel Christian Church on a map and would like to do so. You will note the residence of S. Uphurch on the 1870 map. I am sure this is Simon Uphurch, the son of Moses Uphurch. On the map I have highlighted MORINGVILLE which may be of special interest to you.

I have had a quick look at my records on the Parrish (Parish) / Wrenn (Wren, Renn) / Moring families. At first glance I do not spot your specific ancestor. However, I am sure my records deal with close relatives of your ancestor. If you are interested we can each dig a little deeper into the organization of these families in an attempt to help each other. In this regard I have taken two preliminary steps. In these steps I created preliminary Family Outlines for the families of Alfred W. Moring & Franklin O'Kelly. Note that Franklin O'Kelly Moring^{SR}, a son of these two families married Patten Aline Uphurch, I. She is a great-granddaughter of Nathan Uphurch, I. A copy of my master outline for Patten & Frank and their children is enclosed. I have more detail on this couple and their descendants but that likely involves details remote from the central interest you and I might have in earlier generations on the Wake/Chatham Boundary.

I would be interested in your full maiden name and the full name of your father.

Note that I have included a sketch of your line on the bottom of the Alfred W. Murray sheet. If you could amplify this giving more details (dates, places, full names) it would be helpful.

I know that you must be pressed by a number of projects as I am. I will leave it up to you as to whether it will be mutually helpful for us to continue to exchange letters and share information.

With All Best Wishes.

☺ Sincerely yours

so from the area described in your entry. My ancestor, Nathan W, I, settled 3-4 miles to the east just inside Wake Co at Green level. Descendants of these two brothers intermarried with local families and continue to do so. We particularly have links to the Moring family.

If you can send me some sort of sketch on the four families of your interest going back to the Chatham Co, NC area in the 1800's I'll be glad to enter key details in my files and also search to see if any details in my extensive collection might be of interest to you.

I recently became a member of the Chatham Co, NC Genealogical/Historical Society and I have recently acquired some documents related to Chatham Co History.

Enclosed are details on my Upchurch Bulletin now in its 17th year of publication. In it over 40,000 members of the Extended Upchurch Family have been identified. Also enclosed is a copy of our "Freedom Document".

It would be a pleasure to hear from you

Sincerely yours

WRENN - DRIVER - MORING - PARISH - Mrs. Marie East, 420 Rogers Rd., Rogersville, TN 37857 needs the parents of THOMAS WRENN b. ca. 1810 Person Co., NC. He and MARY ANN DRIVER m. there in 1843. Who were her parents?

Need information on Moring, Wrenn, and Parish families in the New Hope area of Chatham Co., NC in the mid- to late-1880s. All apparently lived near O'Kelly's Chapel.

Has anyone information about the little cemetery on private property near O'Kelly's Chapel? Most of the graves are unmarked.

EDITOR'S NOTE: If Mary were underage at the time of marriage, the consent of her parent or guardian would be recorded in the marriage book of the county at the time the bond/license was issued.

Dear Mr. Upchurch:

Your letter was interesting. In my search in Chatham County I never remember running into that name--Upchurch probably because that name didn't seem to be one I was looking for.

I know very little about my ancestors, MORINGS, PARISHES.. My father's mother was Julia Ann PARISH. Her mother was Elizabeth MORING, married to James PARRISH, a soldier killed in the Civil War.

married in Wake Co. Dec. 9, 1856

Married at J.M. Moring Res.
Witness: J.M. Barbee C. Barbee

These MORINGS and PARISHES lived in Chatham County. But James seemed to have joined the army in Wake County in a township just across the county line from the township in which we find PARISHES and MORINGS.

Here is some information gleaned from the Census:

There is an O'KELLY's chapel on highway 751 in Chatham County. At this church is a cemetery but I did not find any stones with my ancestor's names. Just off a side road near there is a little cemetery with most of the graves unmarked. It seems this is called the MORING cemetery. I'll draw a little map of the area.

See below

Years ago--at least 50--my dad's half-sister took my father and sister and me to the place where my dad was born. At that time I was not as interested as I should have been and don't remember much. My aunt did take us to a church where my grandmother Julia Ann PARRISH-WRENN had gone to church. There was a little pump organ in the church that my aunt said my grandmother used to play. Then on a side road she took us to a cemetery where she said my grandmother was buried. If I remember correctly it was quite grown up.

Several years ago when we were living in High Point I became interested. In searching I found O'Kelly's Chapel and on a side road a cemetery. It all seemed to fit what I had seen so many years before. We have visited the people living by the cemetery but don't get much of a lead. The gentleman felt we were in the right area and probably the cemetery there was where my grandmother is buried.

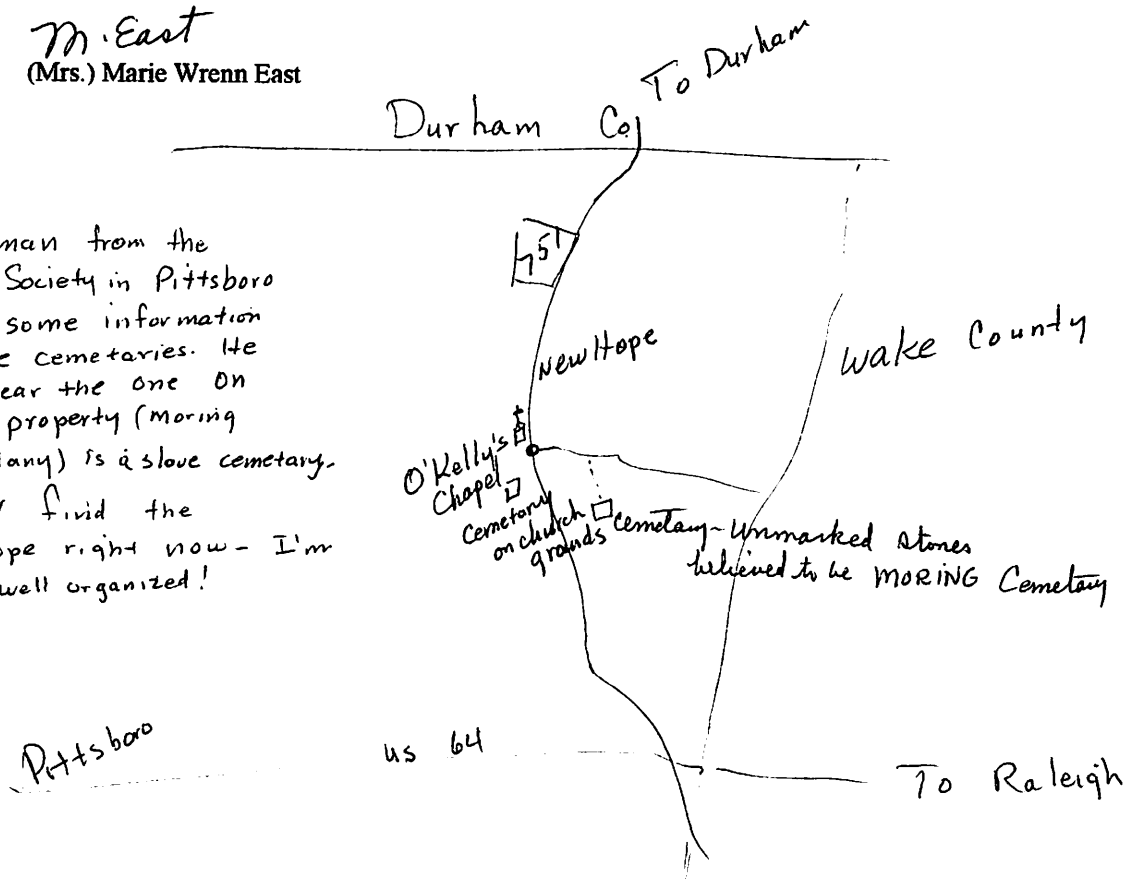

I have some other materials on the MORINGS. I'll run them through the copy machine.

Thanks for your interest. And for your attempting to get something from this jumbled construction. I have so many facts that needs to be organized in the computer but I have't the time nor the knowledge to be able to do it right. I do have a lot on the program FAMILY TREE MAKER and I have my family line on my father's side in the computer according to the way I wanted it. It is just hard to teach an old dog new tricks--I'm slow at learning the beauties of the computer and what it can do.

Respectfully,

M. East
(Mrs.) Marie Wrenn East

A gentleman from the Historical Society in Pittsboro sent me some information on these cemeteries. He said near the one on private property (Moring Cemetery) is a slave cemetery. I can't find the envelope right now - I'm not well organized!

- ① Nathan Uphurch, I, a Revolutionary war veteran, settled at Green Level about 1802 having moved his family from Franklin Co, NC. He owned 1000 acres of land surrounding and including present day Green Level. His descendants populated this area.
- ② Moses Upchurch, a brother of Nathan Uphurch, I, and also a veteran of the Revolution, moved his family to the eastern section of Chatham Co, NC about 1802. He had many descendants some of whom still live in the area.
- ③ Mt Pisgah Baptist Church and Cemetery. This church was founded in 1814 and descendants of Nathan Uphurch, I and Moses Upchurch soon appeared on the rolls. [Note that travel from ① or ② to ③ was easily accomplished by traveling on high ground.]
- ④ UPCHURCH CROSSROADS - This crossroads took its name from William Buster Upchurch, I, a great grandson of Nathan Uphurch, I
- ⑤ An Upchurch Family owned land in this area on the waters of Shaddox Creek and bordering the county line starting in the 1780's. The Patriarch of this group was John Upchurch, III. He died intestate in the area in 1795 leaving three sons and several daughters. Evidence for the sons in the area cease to exist in the 1810-1820 era and it is known that they moved west - one to western NC, one to TN and one to IL. Little is known of the daughters. They could have married in the area and stayed there - or not. Their John Upchurch, III was a 2nd cousin of Nathan and Maser referred to above. There is no evidence that these 2nd cousins knew of or interacted with each other. Their lands on the Wake/Chatham border were about twelve miles apart.

ROBERT LEE WRENN, JR

① The Apex Herald WED 8 JUN 1994 Apex, NC

Kouder, Smith are wed

Catherine Wrenn Kouder of Fuquay-Varina and Otto Brian Smith of Holly Springs were united in marriage at seven o'clock in the evening on Saturday, June 4, 1994, at Piney Grove Baptist Church.

Rev. Larry Turner officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, Robert Lee Wrenn Jr. of Apex, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory bridal satin. The basque bodice was lavished with delicately beaded Venice lace preluded by a "V" neckline. The short puffed sleeves were detailed with sheer illusions of lace, pearls and crystal sequins. The grande ball skirt and cathedral-length train were embellished in Victorian lace finished with a scalloped organza hem.

Her veil of sheer illusion flowed from an intricately crafted wreath of pearl spray and iridescent crystals finished with delicate poufs.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Blanche Bailey of Fuquay-Varina, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Wrenn of Apex, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Sheila Hunley of Fuquay-Varina, friend of the bride.

The attendants wore long, fuchsia-colored evening dresses which featured chiffon skirts and poufed chiffon sleeves.

Miss Brianna Kouder of Fuquay-Varina, daughter of the bride, and Miss Erica Smith of Myrtle Beach, S.C., daughter of the groom, served as flower girls.

Jeff Dewar of Fuquay-Varina, friend of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Charles Mason and Charles Bailey, both of Fuquay-Varina and friends of the groom.

The musical program was provided by pianist/organist Mrs. Sylvia Wrenn of Cary and soloist Mrs. Delores Howard of Fuquay-Varina.

A reception was held at the Ramada Inn in Apex, hosted by the bride and groom.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple will live in Duncan.

The bride graduated from the University of North Carolina and is employed by Dr. J.E. Howard.

The groom is the owner of Napa Auto Parts of Fuquay-Varina.
