WILLIAM THOMAS MCKEE

Dr. McKee was the son of the late Mack McKee and Mrs. Rebecca Jones McKee. Dr. McKee was born on a farm near Apex, North Carolina, May 1st, 1863; he, therefore, was born during the Civil War. His father is said to have been a native of Iredell county; and came to Wake, first, as the driver of the old-fashioned stagecoach; here, he met and married the daughter of Joel Jones. Joel Jones married Tabitha Utley, 26 April 1823. Tabitha Utley is thought to have been the daughter of John Utley Jr., known as Little Jack Utley, and lived just above the head of the Norris Mill Pond now owned by the sons of the late John Mills. This would make Tabitha Utley the great granddaughter of William, the founder of the family. Joel Jones was the son of Robert Jones, brother to the late Madison Jones. Joel Jones settled within a few hundred yards of Salem church, lived and died there; and traditions say he cut the path leading from the present home of Mr. Arthur Pierce to Apex. The daughter, Rebecca, became the mother of this sketch. Dr. McKee was the g.g.g. grandson of William Utley, founder of the family in North Carolina. The father of Dr. McKee, was a farmer, lived for many years on the land of the late W. B. Upchurch, father of Mr. George Upchurch, now one of the County Commissioners of Wake County. Dr. McKee worked on his father's farm until 21 years old; but having the ambition to become a physician, he went to the Insane Asylum where he worked, saved his wages until he had enough to enter a medical college, which he did, graduating from the Louisville Medical College in 1891.

Here we have the example of a poor boy whose father was a tenant working his own way to graduation through a standard medical college; and entering upon the practice of medicine when only 28 years old. He located at a place in Chatham county, then called Rialto, and practiced his profession here for five years, then moving to Caryville, Tennessee. However, before this time a very important event had taken place in the life of the young doctor, for in the neighborhood of Rialto, there lived a young lady, Miss Beulah Florence Wynne, born April 13, 1872. This young lady had graduated from Salem Female College the same year Dr. McKee had graduated from the medical college; and on the 19 April 1894, they were married in Durham, by Rev. George Dowell.

Dr. McKee practiced medicine approximately 46 years; first in Chatham county, North Carolina, second at Caryville, Tennessee, and third in Oklahoma, perhaps all the time at Seminole, a great oil center. He was a successful physician, loved his work, having grown up a poor boy, and made his way in the face of adverse conditions, he was therefore better able to sympathize with the poor, needy and suffering. Two or three years before his death, Dr. McKee's health became poor, from some cause his leg became infected which necessitated it being amputated, but until he died he insisted he much regretted his physical inability to answer every call. He died honored, respected and loved in the Sanitorium at Paris, Texas, Feb 1, 1937. He was therefore, 74 years old at the time of his death. He lived a useful, active life, he was the son of honorable, useful parents, whose example for industry, integrity and honor he could emulate.

Mr. Phil Upchurch
2073 Miraval Quinto
Tucson, AZ 85718

Dear Phil,

No, I have not died, but the days have shrunk. This seems to be a phenomenon that must be peculiar to the east coast, Washington, especially. I have talked with others of us who are interested in genealogy, and all of us seem to find the same thing true. Free time is an inverse proportion to interest in research. I hope the same is true in Arizona. I can understand, though, why I have not heard from you since you were good enough to send me all the information. I really do apologize for not writing before now. This is my yearly desk-cleaning time. I do this once a year whether it needs it or not.

When you called I was about asleep and it must have taken me several minutes to get my head screwed on straight. I hope I didn't scare you with any wild talk, but I must confess that I quite forgot what I was supposed to send you. I am enclosing the pedigree charts that are not at all complete, but at least it will give you some idea of who is who and where. I do not find any Upchurches, but there are some collateral Sorrell lines that do cross. The ones who lived in and around Cary and their descendants seem to have been active with the Upchurch and allied lines. I am in the process of trying to get a Sorrell book ready for publication. No doubt it will be another five years in the making, but at least I have started trying to pull it together. I find that I am hampered by lack of time in N. C., and now that Mother is here with us, we don't get down there nearly often enough.

In May I went to the hospital and found that among other things I have arthritis. Right now my neck is one very painful part of my ample body. I have been here at the desk and typewriter all day, and it is beginning to show. I'm afraid I must stop this and pull out the heating pad or I won't make it to school tomorrow.

Do you plan to come this way any time after Christmas? We are going to go to Raleigh on the 22nd. Willis will return Xmas Day, but Mother and I shall stay. I'll return to D. C. the 29th, and she will stay on until sometime in January. I would like very much for you to come by to see us when you are up here after that time.

Since I have talked with anyone at home, I have acquired ~~the~~ library of a genealogist who is almost totally blind and has to stop working. I am so grateful for the opportunity to use these books that I would like to share with you whatever is here that you might find. Please come and look. If you are interested in Tidewater Virginia, you might be able to find something. She had quite a collection of books.

Please let us know the next time you are up here. We would like very much to have you come out. Sorry that I have been so slow. After the stay in the hospital, I had some adjusting to do, and I spent the whole summer doing very little, as you already know!

Best wishes for the holidays and the new year.

Come up when you can,

Francis

I had and Helen Bledsoe Gray from Wake Co. live in Tucson. She is the one I couldn't remember when I talked with you.

FRANCES HOLLOWAY WYNNE
9151 HERMOSA DRIVE
FAIRFAX, VA 22031

Dear Frances

How nice to have your letter of December 2, 1979 and the informative charts.

I have checked through my files for individuals and find none present for the following family names on the charts you sent: Duff, Brightwell, Branfield, Huggins, Holloway, and Sings. I did find family names
for: Bellard, Johnson, Page, Hayes, Whitehead, Culpepper, Johns, Brown, Pease, Cooke, Cooper, Poole, Hill, Wynne. However none of the first names matched the names on your charts.

I did find files for 10 ~~0~~ Savell's and xerox copies are provided herewith for your files. Perhaps you may be able to identify some of these. When there is an XID number (copies might have cover) I know the relationship to the Upchurch family and could supply more detail. Let me know if you make a connection. If you want any of the other files such as for the Bellard, Johnson's etc, let me know.

Thanks for your invitation to visit. I usually get to Washington several times a year and will hope to visit sooner or later. Most of these summer trips only allow time for the bare essentials.

Sally and I just talked with Tom Brown. Our son, Barry, who is a junior at Duke, spent Thanksgiving with the Browns. I understand that in the year for Tom & Bill to have the rotating Christmas dinner. We will be sorry to miss it.

I called Helen Bedsee May and we had a nice talk. She is 80. It turns out that Lucille Bailey, one of her cousins, married Maurice Thomas Upchurch. She has her father's line well marked out and I am to go by her home in the next few days for a more detailed visit. Thanks for the tip.

Your new collection of genealogical information sounds great. I'll look forward to seeing it.

In January I am starting a new quarterly publication UPCHURCH BULLETIN with a yearly subscription rate of $10. I'll send more details later.

Please let me hear from you again
Sincerely yours
Philip Upchurch

SAVINGS BANKS

The North Carolina General Assembly passed a law in 1887 to encourage the creation of savings banks, mainly for the thrifty factory worker who might make weekly deposits after paying living expenses. While not as profitable as national banks, they were allowed to open with much less capital stock. The same year the law was passed, Capt. J. J. Thomas, John T. Pullen, W. C. Stronach, J. Stanhope Wynne, and other Raleigh men chartered Raleigh Savings Bank, the state's first such institution. Pullen was made cashier from the bank's inception and later served as president for the rest of his life. A bachelor and devout Christian, he was known for keeping his pockets filled with candy and religious tracts which he distributed to anyone he met, both inside and outside the bank. He endeared himself to many of the city's poorest citizens by visiting them in their homes to offer counseling or give them money for basic necessities. "He never thought that his religion was helping the bank," Josephus Daniels later wrote, "but people had such confidence in him that widows and many others who had a few pennies they wished to save, would deposit their money in 'John Pullen's bank.'" Practically everyone in town owned small shares of stock at first, according to Daniels, but in the early 1900s a contest for controlling interest ensued between Pullen and cashier James O. Litchford. When Mrs. Daniels learned that her two shares would give either of the men majority ownership, she declined to sell but gave Pullen her voting power. By the time of Pullen's death in 1913, Raleigh Savings and Citizens National had identical ownership and management personnel, although the two institutions did not officially merge until 1927.²⁷

Other savings banks included Mechanics Dime (started 1896, with "Dime" dropped from the name in 1907) and Wake County Savings Bank (1905). Wake County Savings, initially located in the former elevator shaft of the Commercial and Farmers Bank, achieved notoriety as the smallest bank in the United States, or maybe even in the world, as one source speculated.²⁸

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION

During 1871 local merchants "and business men generally" were urged to attend a meeting to discuss ways to cooperate and build the city's economy. The resulting Raleigh Board of Trade elected banker William E. Anderson president and Alonzo I. Adams secretary. Their charter gave the directors authority to appoint the required cotton weigher for the city, as well as the inspector and weigher of flour and salt fish, and the inspector of spirits "and other fluids." One of the board's first activities was naming a committee of arbitration, the first chairman of which was merchant Len H. Adams. Another was a campaign to bring about a reduction of railroad freight rates, considered excessive by Raleigh's mercantile community. The 1871 board functioned for an apparently brief period. Soon after securing a charter, officers issued a notice inviting not only merchants but also manufacturers, mechanics, printers, and all interested to attend a meeting to decide "whether the Board of Trade shall be established." The group was apparently no longer functioning in the late 1880s, when the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce was established.²

A dozen years after that, however, a more successful start brought about the Merchants Association of Raleigh. By this time, the era of emphasis on industries had begun. In October 1900, A. B. Stronach, M. Rosenthal, J. F. Ferrall and J. S. Wynne, and others formed a nonprofit corporation, its purpose "to foster trade and commerce and the interests of those having trade, business and financial interests in common in the city of Raleigh." Within two weeks representatives of 115 firms were involved. Grocer J. B. Hill of J. R. Ferrall & Company was elected president. The group established headquarters at 210 Fayetteville Street in the Holleman Building, where the Chamber of Commerce also had its offices. They issued invitations to people of nearby towns to visit Raleigh for special events. They also participated in a drive for public playgrounds for children; conducted "Pay Up Week" to remind customers of bills owed to merchants; and in 1914 made free storage facilities available to aid Wake County's cotton merchants. The association engaged in civic drives such as the nationwide celebration of Electrical Prosperity Week in November 1915, organizing an annual Fall Festival beginning about 1915, boosting and taking leading roles in the Great White Way effort in the 1910s, and purchasing street decorations for State Fair Week.³

There was evidently close cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce in many of the members' activities. Gradually the association was merged into the Chamber. During 1919 the majority of merchants forming the Chamber's mercantile department reached an agreement with a group of clerks in their retail businesses who had formed a clerks' union; the agreement established uniform closing hours and holidays. The plan was designed to give the clerks more freedom. By the following year, a movement toward again becoming separate organizations had begun.⁴

Other officers were A. B. Stronach, vice president; J. F. Ferrall, secretary; and G. E. Hunter of Myatt & Hunter, treasurer. The managing board consisted of T. B. Crowder, J. W. Cross, J. S. Wynne, Sherwood Higgs, J. A. Briggs, M. Rosenthal, and Walter Woollcott. Raleigh Times (d.), "Looking Back [to July 29, Sept. 22, Nov. 3, Dec. 16, 1914]"; Vickers, Raleigh, City of Oaks, 103.

Clerks' hours, generally from sunrise until dark, and in summer from 5 a.m. to 7 p.m., were not much different than in antebellum times. N.C. Year Book, 1904, 577; see E. Murray, Wake I, 269.

○ 28 MAY 2007 Input from James Deewood Thompson "DICK" PG 45

Dick was first employed as An First County Extension Agent in Wake Co, NC (under John Anderson) - with responsibility in soil conservation. Helped lay out tenures on Bart Moore & Bailey Place. There was an oversight on the county Commissioner (From Ayer) at the time

The State Hospital first got the Bailey Place - The Farm Manager was L.O. Page

Dick went with A. O. Fendley in 1943. Trojan Sales was an A. O. Fendley subsidiary. They first bought the Pond. Then Dick convinced Fendley to buy land and in 1947 1000 Acres was bought for a sheep cattle operation [Mark says Dick renovated the Dairy Processing Plant into an apartment & lived there. Get divorced - and a lady 20 years his junior] Phyllis Yates left the Dairy to his wife & her son William Land south of Swift Creek had earlier been sold to Superior State - who sold it to John Buffalo. Dick says part of the 1000 Acres was from Stewart & Sullivan 1200 Acres which border Kerge Orchard on the East & South.

Fendley sold the land in 1963 to NCSU for $1,000/A when he could have gotten 20,000/A [Mark says he got $18,000/A].

Dick only houses about 40. 20 Stephen

Dick will contact Helen Crain at NCSU & try to get me the NCSU book "Knowledge in Power"

WILL A. WYNN

① In 1898 Will A. Wynn opened the Interstate Telephone & Telegraph Exchange over the Wake Drug Store at 301 Fayetteville St in Raleigh, NC. William Boylan succeeded Wynn as Mgr and under Boylan in 1907 the Interstate merged with Southern Bell to form the Capital City Telephone Co only to be completely absorbed by Southern Bell in 1912. Southern Bell was the earlier Co & it had been preceded by efforts of B. W. Stashe. (37, Pg 71).

Will Wynn built the first long distance phone line in NC which was put up between Raleigh & Goldsboro in 1896. In 1900 he installed his own Raleigh Telephone Co exchange at 130 1/2 Fayetteville St. A constant innovator, Wynn in 1903 purchased parts and built a truck to haul telephone poles, reportedly the first truck built in the USA. He retired from the phone business in 1922 but during the 1930's led a protest forcing Southern Bell to reduce rates and to refund $538,000 to NC users. Nevertheless, Southern Bell ^{later} asked Wynn to throw the switches on their conversion to automatic gear in Raleigh. See reference for picture of truck. Also see reference for picture of Exchange operator (37, Pg 71-72-73).

See 37 Pg 75 for photo of fire dept in Raleigh, NC taken in 1890 by Will Wynn.

WILLIAM AVERA WYNN

① (See reference for photo) William Avera Wynne (1896-1951) operated the first telephone exchange in Raleigh, NC, & its first radio station; built and owned the 1st track, was the first North Carolinian to play on a major league baseball team and opened in 1922 the oldest exclusive radio dealership in the state. He was a champion track bicycle rider and was stopped from riding down the steps of the Washington Monument when guards detected the parts of a bicycle he and his friends had smuggled inside the monument.

Wynne provided a telephone line between a church and a transmitter at N.C. State College to allow the 1st radio broadcast in NC during the 1st week of March 1922.

In 1926 Wynne formed the Wynne Radio Co of Raleigh, NC and broadcast as WFBB - later changed to WRCO. In 1927 The Dupont Life Insurance Co purchased the station and changed it to WPTF.
